about 1-2c. Local traders were chief selects. Commission houses had some buying, but the outside trade is very light and undoubtedly will remain so until the December deal is out of the way. New York reported fair buying by exporters, 20 loads. It also reported quite a line of December wheat was sold, at least 300,000 bushels. We expected after yesterday's sudden bulge that market would react. The total clearances of wheat and flour amounted to 490,000 bushels. Northwest receipts were 927 cars, against 542 last year. We believe on any further decline wheat should be bought.

Bradstreet's Summary.

British Columbia.—The trade situation is much the same as previous week. Shipments of lumber have been light, but volume of business in general increhandise reported up to the usual standard. Some complifits are heard regarding country collections, but general state of affairs viewed as more satisfactory.

Manitoba.—The only new feature in the condition of trade this week is the large importation of general goods, wholesale of the previous. Navigation will, doubtless, be closed by the first of next week, and in consequence wheat shipments are slackening. Farmers are now bringing in from 25,000 to 50,000 bushels per day. Prices in all lines will, it is expected, firm from this out. Retailers have their Christmas stocks in, but business this week has become quieter.

Maritime Provinces.—Colder weather has a realty stimulated the drygoods and clothing business, and the demand for woolens has been quite brisk. In other lines there is not so much activity, the fish market being particularly dull. The Cape Breton fisheries have been a failure this year, and it is feared that there will be much distress amounst the fishermen. Collections are hardly up to expectations. In Prince Edward Island, as a result of Government assistance, the cheese industry has been quite successful, and the output during the year more than was anticipated. St. John, N.B., reports general trade about up to the average. There is no improvement in the lumber market, vand, whilst coastwise freights are firm, there is no activity. The market for fish is somewhat firmer all round.

Ontario.—The wet weather of the past few days has been unfavorable to the sale market for fish is somewhat firmer all round.

Ontario.—The wet weather of the past few days has been unfavorable to the sale of goods usually in demand at this season. The fur trade is especially injured by the open fall. Country roads are btoken up, and, despite the fligh prices for grain, which is a strong incentive to farmers to sell, deliveries are but limited. Export demand keeps up and warehouses outside are being emptied. The provision trade is quiet owing to low prices abroad. Wool is quiet, stocks being unusually light, owing to the heavy demand for the United States during the early summer months. A 'good many enquiries for dressed poultry are being received from England. Prospects point to an enlarged trade in that line. Money rates continue steady at 4 per cent. for call loans and at 5 to 7 per cent. for discounts. Quebec.—The trade situation has not been altered much from that of the preceding week. Wet and slushy weather has somewhat interfered with city retail trade, while she national holiday on the 25th has helped to cut down sales. In some lines travelers have not been doing so well as prior to the close of navigation, and, as stocktaking is becoming pretty general, more attention is being given to arriving at the annual results. It is confidently expected that general results will show up better than last year. Dealers in groceries, dried fruits an dmanufacturers of candies all report better business than last year. Collections fairly good, although partial report better business than last year. Collections fairly good, although partial report better business than last year. received the following despatch to-day from New York:

Speculation in stocks continues small involume and largely of local professional character, but the general market shows better tone and tendency to advance. Yesterday's improvement and to-day's was largely due to covering of shorts and some buying by traders. We believe the short interest is still large in Grangers, Coalers and also in some of the Industrials. There is a feeling among the larger operators that, while we may not have much activity or much higher prices before the beginning of the year, the situation is an improving one, and the better class of stocks ought to be bought on all weak spots. We are informed the President's message to Congress will be bullish and this may stimulate activity. The message will be pacific on the Cuban question, and, inview of Spain's friendly attitude, the President will deprecate any action by Congress toward intervening or granting belligerency. Considerable talk on Manhattan and Metrepolitan Traction, as no likelihood of rapid transit scheme going through under Tammany. Southern roads are showing better earnings. Of the Grangers, Burlington is expected to continue the leader. The decision in maximum freight case will not be given till January term according to our information.

and they very generally realized. This selling by professionals, both in this market and St. Louis, started the market on the downward track, and, as the short interest had been greatly reduced during the advance in the past week, the market ruled weak, and closed at 1% decline from last night's prices. New York reported that late cables brought liberal acceptances and the business done was very good for Saturday. Thirty-five loads were bought for shipment, including 20 loads for Austria. St. Louis, market led in the weakness, and the selling orders received from that market had not a little to do in inaugurating the weakness. There were reports affoat that winter wheat points were offering wheat in this market and asking for hids. The visible supply is estimated to show about 1.000,000 bushels increase. The reaction to-day seems to us to be only natural and we advise purchases on all such breaks.
