Hamilton, May 3.—(Special.)—The members of the quarterly board of the Hannah-Street Methodist Church, held their annual meeting this evening. They found that all branches of the work were in such a prosperous condition that they increased the salary of the pastor, Rev. W. B. Caswell, from $1000 to $1100. Dr. Gillie and W. D. Platt were named as the church's delegates to the conference. A resolution was passed inviting the pastor to remain for the fourth year. The 13th regiment has decided to hold a military tattoo early in June. About seven bands from outside cities will be invited.

The firemen were called out this afternoon to one of Ald. Allen's houses at 202 North Macab-street, which was being torn down. The roof caught fire, and the firemen were called out to extinguish it before much damage was done.

His honor also sent Thomas Morton down for a month for stealing lumber.

YOUNG TIGER IS AT LARGE

Only Weighs 75 Pounds, But is Big Enough to Terrorize the Neighborhood.

Long Island City, L.I., May 3.—Some- where in the jungles of Long Island City a tiger awaits his prey—and prey that may come his way. Policemen, citizens, brave small boys and others are on the trail of the beast, while in nearly every Long Island City saloon diagrams have been drawn on the bars to show how bold hunters, otherwise busy, would capture the tiger if they only had the time.

An empty dog kennel and a broken chain in the back yard of the owner, 13 Academy-street, are silent evidences of the tiger's escape. The white bones of three chickens in an adjoining yard and here and there a dead dog or cat tell the story of the beast's ferocity. The blood stained jaws and fery eyes of the beast are expected at every street corner, while Long Island City has a corner on cold chills, and tomorrow will create a demand for nerve tonics.

James Clair, once the amateur champion lightweight boxer, is the owner of the missing tiger. The animal was given to him three weeks ago by a vessel captain. Ever since the report reached the police station a man looks out of an upper window if there is a noise outside the door. Still the police are searching for the tiger. Others are aiding, but, strange to relate, they make the search for tigers and barn roofs. They have heard that a tiger can walk out on a trolley wire and slide down the pole of a passing car and eat a motor-man and conductor in twelve minutes.

James Clair owns a saloon, and many inquiries have been made there about the tiger.

"Has he got stripes, Jim?" asked one anxious resident.

"Sure," was the reply.

"Then you should search for him on Blackwell's Island," said the caller.

The tiger's home was near the high school and the pupils there do not feel very comfortable. Principal De- marest has assured, however, that the tiger is too young to be very harmful.

Up to a late hour this afternoon Burden's goods and surrounding meadowland had been searched, and it was reported that claw prints had been found under the bushes near the school and the men employed on the Newton Creek bridges are prepared to prevent the tiger from crossing the bridge and making his way to McCarron's headquarters.

At nighttime Mr. Clair offered a reward of $10 for the return of the tiger alive.

NEW MILITIA BILL. Why Principle of British Army Reform Can't Be Followed.

Ottawa, May 3.—(Special.)—In drafting his new militia bill Sir Frederick Borden had hoped to follow the principle of the British army reform measure by which the position of commander-in-chief is abolished and the army is placed under the control of an army council with the minister in the chair. The bill accordingly provided for the appointment of an officer "charged with the military command of the militia."

Frederick, however, by the appointment of such an officer, the power of the minister would be exhausted, and in the case of a rebellion, for instance, the inspector would have to take command, leaving the force without an inspector. He, therefore, proposes to appoint an officer to the new bill to appoint an officer commanding and an inspector, if found advisable, so that there will be two instead of one, dealing with the command on inspection.

By the first the minister will be empowered to appoint an officer below the rank of colonel in the militia or British regular army, who, under regulations and subject to the minister's directions may be charged with the military command of the militia, such officer to have the rank of major-general of the militia and be paid a rate not exceeding $6000 per year.

By the second clause the minister is empowered to appoint an inspector of the militia at the same maximum rate of pay, and of the same military rank, except that the inspector of the militia does not take rank as major-general.

SOME OF THE BEST FAMILIES. Might Be Wearing Crepe Had Elevator Dropped Farther.

Ottawa, May 3.—(Special.)—An accident this morning to the electric elevator in the house of commons, by which the railway committee room is reached gave a tremendous shaking up to a number of persons who were making the descent, among them Mr. J. B. Macpherson of Vancouver City, and Mr. J. B. Macpherson of Vancouver City, and Mr. J. B. Macpherson of Vancouver City.

Mr. Macpherson had not yet recovered from his agitation when the house met this afternoon, and on the first opportunity called attention to the mishap and demanded an improvement in the elevator service.

"While I and three or four others were descending from the railway committee room to-day," said Mr. Macpherson, "the elevator dropped and a serious accident was only averted by the fact that the machine did not give out soon enough. (Laughter.) Yes, we had passed the first floor, and when the thing got out of control, Mr. Macpherson, the rate at which it travelled to the bottom can only be compared to the speed of a King's Flatter out for fast exercise. Had the machine given out at the top floor, I can tell you, Sir, some of the first families in this land would be wearing crepe."

When the merriment evoked by the hon. member's western intensity had simmered down sufficiently for him to be heard again, he went on to say that, in all seriousness, something should be done to protect the lives of members and others using the elevators. He blamed such troubles on the incapacity of the operator and maintained that it was just as necessary to have a competent man in charge of a passenger elevator as to have a certificated master in charge of a passenger steamer.

Mr. Sutherland, minister of public works, replied in effect that the elevator was the make of one of the best firms in Canada, but he would have the charge of incompetent management looked into.

SAY SOME SETTLEMENT REPORTS ARE INSPIRED

Adjustment Committee Have Only Agreed on Eight Claims as Yet.

The system adopted by the general adjustment committee in appointing sub-committees to handle each individual claim bore its first fruit yesterday, when the adjusters, thru those sub-committees, made report of losses on the following: Continental Costume Company, Dignum & Montpenney, E. & S. Currie, J. H. Peters, Northrop & Lyman, G. H. Hees & Co., W. H. Payne & Co., and the Canada Cloak Company.

Secretary Garrow did not care to communicate the figures, but from unquering of the firms themselves some information was gleaned. Thus the insurance to be drawn by the Continental Costume Co., will be $60,000; by Northrop & Lyman (stock only), $25,000; and by G. H. Hees & Co., on stock, $40,000, on the building $35,000, and furniture $25,000. Mr. Hees in discussing his claim last night said that in many places outside Toronto the belief appeared to prevail that the company had sustained the loss of factory and warehouse, they being actually far removed from the fire zone, and he was really receiving letters, whose contents showed they had been written under that misunderstanding.

The adjustment committee views the professional insipid reports regarding the amounts of the claims to be paid to some of the larger firms as the merest pieces of guesswork. The only claims adjusted as yet are those above mentioned.

Sub-committees were yesterday appointed on the following: "Office Specialty Co., Robt. Kilgour, Prime & Rankin, Gillespie Furnishing Co., Toronto Office and Spice Co., Merchants' and Finishing Co."

It is probable that most of the insurance companies will not exact the same one per cent discount allowed for prompt settlement of claims. The increase in rates will affect the insurance on the public schools. The present rate is 70 cents for three years. The advance would make it $1.20, applying on all policies renewing after April 20. Chairman Garrow says it won't be paid. The increase totals $19,426.
