CHILDREN ENTERTAIN

Centennial Sunday School in Prosperous Condition.

The anniversary entertainment given last evening by the Sunday school children of the Centennial Methodist Church, was a great success. The programme was a splendid one, and showed excellent preparation. A choir of 50 children gave several choruses.
Rev. Joseph Philip delivered an address. Superintendent E. L. Liddicott presided.

Secretary Althouse presented a report showing an increase in membership and attendance, better work by the pupils, and more liberal collections, as against the preceding year.
The enrollment is 460; average attendance, 315. There were 26 teachers and 10 officers. The year's collections amounted to $133.23.

A Special Advantage.

Dr. Wills' English Pills Do Not Produce Griping
or Nausea.

Constipated people usually suffer from weak stomach, and have found the large majority of medicines in liquid and pill form to produce nausea and sickness.

Dr. Wills, the celebrated English physician, years ago came to the rescue of those who suffer from deranged digestion and constipation. His now celebrated pills have become the popular medicine with people who can not tolerate the harsh and purgative remedies that some use with such little success.

Dr. Wills' English pills quickly remove all waste and poisonous matters from the body; they tone the liver and kidneys, and impart true digestive vigor.

For the cure of constipation Dr. Wills' English Pills are recommended and guaranteed by over 500 druggists, who are prepared to refund the money if relief is not obtained.

Be sure and get Dr. Wills' English Pills for constipation; your druggist is prepared to tell you all about them.

LIFE SAVED—Mr. James Bryson Cameron writes: "I was confined to my bed with inflammation of the lungs and was given up by physicians.
A neighbor advised me to try Dr.
Thomas' Electric Oil, stating that his wife had used it for a throat trouble with the best results. Acting on this advice I procured the medicine, and less than half a bottle cured me; I certainly believe it saved my life. It was with reluctance that I consented to a trial, as I was reduced to such a state that I doubted the power of any remedy to do me good."

A LOCAL BUDGET

urdays hereafter.

Dromgole, of this city, has secured a nders, druggist, is to be fitted up for a piano wareroom and concert hall.

—Lieut.-Col. Holmes, D. O. C., is in Essex today, formally transferring No. 3 Company of the Twenty-first Essex Fusiliers from Essex to Windsor.

—City Clerk Kingston, now in California, has written to City Clerk Bell that he will return to duty next Tuesday. He is much improved in health.

—Miss Annie Stone and Mr. Walter R.
Perry, both of this city, were united in marriage yesterday at the Memorial Church. They will spend the honeymoon in Detroit.

—The remains of the late Mrs. Elizabeth Ann Dougherty were interred Saturday in Woodland Cemetery. The funeral services, conducted by Rev.
Canon Dunn, were held at the family residence, 427 Wellington street. Many beautiful floral tributes were sent by sympathetic friends.

—While walking across the floor of the Grand Pacific Hotel dining-room last evening, Miss Kate Regan, a domestic, slipped, and dislocated her thigh. She was removed to St. Joseph's Hospital in the ambulance. About four months ago Miss Regan fell and broke her arm while on her way to church. She had been back at work but two weeks when this second accident occurred.

—The board of directors for Summer-holm are making arrangements for a unique entertainment in aid of Sum-merholm veranda fund. They will hold an exhibition and sale of home-made cakes next Friday afternoon and evening in the Young Women's Christian Association building. All the ladies of the city who are interested in the work are asked to contribute a sample of their finest cooking, and to send it to the Y. W. C. A. Friday morning.

THOSE DIRTY STREETS.

The asphalt pavement on the south side of Dundas street and the west side of Richmond street, is in some places covered with three or four inches of a mixture of mud and ice, which leaves those thoroughfares in a filthy and dangerous condition. Bicyclists and citizens generally are loud in their complaints. Other Canadian cities have had their pavements clean for some six or eight weeks.

HATS IN CHURCH.

St. Thomas Journal: Rev. Mr. Irvine, of Grace Church, occupied the pulpit of the Central Methodist Church Sunday morning. He commended the action of the pastor of the church, Rev.
Mr. Crews, in requesting the ladies of the church who wore large hats to remove them during the sermon. He said the request was not contrary to Scripture, inasmuch as women were in a condition of servitude at the time when Paul wrote, but they were not so now. He said he hoped the movement would become quite general in all the churches.

ONLY ASKS BRITISH JUSTICE.

At the service of praise in St. Andrew's Church last night, Rev. Dr.
Johnston took occasion to refer to the case of the convicted murderer, Martion Brown. Dr. Johnston said he was acting in behalf of Brown, from a desire solely to see British justice done.
He desired that Brown should receive the full measure of the law for the crime he had committed, but he believed that crime to have been manslaughter, and not murder. He further said that his petition had been signed by many of the clearest-headed legal and business men in the city.

THE C. M. S. CENTENARY.

Canadian branch of the C. M. S. in Canada will conduct a prayer service

Wednesday, in commemoration of the founding of the society 100 years ago.
In the evening at 8 o'clock a united public service will take place in St.
Paul's Cathedral, when Rev. Prof. Cody, of Wycliffe College, Toronto, will preach. Within the past few months Rev. Dr. Gould (Palestine), Rev. T. R.
Westgate (South America), and Miss Annie L. Archer (Japan), have gone out from this city as laborers in connection with this society. The C. M. S., which represents the evangelical section of the Church of England, has, with native agents, a band of 7,193 workers, and had last year an income of about $1,618,000.

SHENANGO NO. 1.

Detroit News: The giant hulk of the car ferry Shenango No. 1, which runs between Port Stanley and Conneaut, Ohio, plowed its way up the river yesterday, on its first visit to Detroit. She lies at the foot of Orleans street, awaiting an opportunity to get into the Detroit drydock. The Shenango has had considerable difficulty with the ice during the past winter, and last week dropped a bucket from one of her wheels. Her solid wheels are to be replaced with dock in Cleveland big enough to accommodate her. She is 300 feet long, 54 feet beam, and carries 30 Grand Trunk cars. Her upper works sit very high out of the water, and her strange appearance excited much curiosity along the river front. It will take about six days to complete her repairs, after which she will resume her route on Lake Erie.

AN EVENING OF MUSIC

Anniversary Service of Praise at St. Andrew's Church.

The Choir, Assisted by Talent From Detroit and Toronto, Contribute the Excellent Programme—Dr. Johnston Congratulated.

The anniversary service of praise at St. Andrew's Church last night will long be remembered by those who attended, as a rich musical treat. Large as the church is, standing room was at a premium throughout the evening.

The choir was assisted by Mrs. Winnifred Scripps-Bellis of Detroit, soprano of the First Presbyterian Church of that city, and Mr. Bruce G. Bradley, tenor soloist of the Jarvis Street Baptist Church, Toronto. Mrs. Scripps-Bellis, possesses a clear, sweet voice, and sings with admirable ease and excellent expression. She was enthusiastically recalled after each number. Mr.
Bradley, who was in fine voice, gave a number of the most successful efforts of the evening. He has a clear, powerful voice, rich and full, and takes the high notes without the least apparent effort.

Too much credit cannot be given to the choir, under the direction of the choirmaster and organist, Mr.
Charles E. Wheeler. A pronounced artistic success for both the choir and its director was the opening anthem, "Sing Unto the Lord and Praise His Name." The choir numbers about 40 voices, splendidly trained, and their singing had a very large share in the evening's enjoyment. Mr. Wheeler executed a number of organ solos, showing to advantage his finished technique and perfect command of all the finer shades of expression, and he received an ovation.

Miss Edith Hartson sang an arrangement by Mr. Wheeler of "Well Met, Nae Mair." There was a solo by Mrs.
Brown, and a very effective trio, "Lift Thine Eyes," from Mendelssohn's
"Elijah," by Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Wheeler and Miss Hartson.

Rev. Dr. Johnston was presented with a congratulatory address on behalf of the congregation, in recognition of the advances made during his four years' pastorate, and also upon his having become a doctor of divinity. Dr. Johnston replied in a happy vein.

COMPANY CAN EXPECT TROUBLE

Street Railway Employees Have Many Grievances.

The Industrial Banner Issues a Warning—Change of Tactics Called For—Mr. Carr Scored.

The Industrial Banner for April officially predicts trouble for the London Street Railway Company unless the management changes its tactics. The company is charged with systematically breaking the agreement entered into with the employees at the time of the late strike, and in a three-column article gives a detailed statement of some of the grievances which now exist. The discharge of Motormen Taylor and Wigmore are included in the grievances. For some time past, says the Banner, it has been the opinion of the employees that the manager was desirous of bringing on trouble during the late disagreeable weather, and was trying to force the hands of the men. The employees' agreement with Mr. Carr should not be considered binding on the men if it were to be broken by the manager, as it has been, regularly and systematically. Some of the provisions in the new rule book conflict with the agreement, and the men look upon the book in the nature of a catch. The Banner concludes "that the company's actions have proven that they will respect the provisions of the agreement only where they are forced to. Surely the shareholders do not want the management to precipitate another conflict. They can hardly be blind to the fact that this city was never so thoroughly organized or self-reliant as it is at the present moment. They cannot surely be ignorant of the fact that fraternal societies are honeycombed with members of labor organizations. To invite a conflict now would be to paralyze Springbank traffic during the approaching season." Dealing with prejudices, the Banner says: "It is a question as to whether the employees can tolerate the present state of affairs until the expiration of the existing agreement on May 11. The old agreement must be revised, and unless the directors insist that Manager Carr shall change his present tactics and live up to the agreement, there is a probability that the employees may take the matter in their own hands."

ELOPING PREACHER FORGIVEN.

Vancouver, B. C., April 11.—There has been an unexpected development in the Albany elopement case. It seems that Rev. Mr. Harris succeeded in boarding the steamer Danube before she left here with Miss Lear and her mother on board. When well out to sea he put in an appearance and succeeded in making it up with his ladylove and her mother. He was put off at Alert Bay, having no money to continue his passage. Miss Lear insisted on being put off also, and the couple are now there, awaiting developments.
