Scene from "The First Battalion's Return," a motion picture film secured especially for the Majestic Theatre on Thursday last, when this famous unit arrived home. This film will be shown at the Majestic today and Thursday in conjunction with other screen attractions and vaudeville. The photoplay feature, "The Test of Honor," starring John Barrymore, is conceded to be one of the best in which this popular actor has appeared. A Mack-Sennet comedy, "The Foolish Age" is one of the funniest of its kind. In vaudeville, Frankie Callan, the Ziegfeld Follies boy, has an act that he puts across in such a way as to earn him rounds of well-deserved applause.

AILSA CRAIG LADS ARRIVE BACK HOME
AILSA CRAIG, April 29.—The fire department was called out to what was supposed to be the home of Frank Atkinson, but on investigation was found to have been his incubator, which exploded, while containing 20 valuable chicks. They were unfortunately burnt. No other damage was done. Pte. Byron Cameron, son of D. S. Cameron, of this place, has arrived home, having come over with the 1st Brigade. Pte. Linwood Lee, son of Thos. Lee, of McMillan, also arrived home on Saturday night, and Sgt. Major Wilbert Bradley, son of John Bradley of McMillan. A quiet wedding took place at the manse here last week, when Alvin Carson, son of John Carson of Granby, formerly of this place, was united in marriage to Miss Constance H. Lerner of Chateaufort, but recently of Ailsa Craig. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. H. Geddes. A large crowd attended the Presbyterian Church on Sunday evening to hear Rev. (Dr.) McNair speak.

TOM MIX AT THE PATRICIA TODAY FOR LAST TIME

"Treat 'Em Rough" Is Replete With Thrilling Situations.

It cannot be said that Tom Mix is up to his old tricks again because in his latest photoplay, "Treat 'Em Rough," which opened Monday at the Patricia Theatre, he has a lot of new stunts which he puts on the screen with his usual pep and thrill.

Patrons are amazed and hearts beat fast as Tom rolls down a steep hill, seated in a horseless wagon, which crashes into and through a hut housing cattle bandits. Everybody wonders how Tom gets away with it. And yet this is only one of the big stunts he shows in "Treat 'Em Rough."

There is a pretty romance interwoven, and Tom saves his sweetheart from "hulldogging," a cattle stampede. The picture will remain at the Patricia for today only.

In addition to this thrilling picture a Sunshine Comedy, "Money Talks" is presented.

In vaudeville, Fredericks, Nelson and Fredericks present a creditable comedy musical act. The entire program will be repeated today only.

Treacy street, who died suddenly Saturday, following a paralytic stroke, took place Monday afternoon to St. Marys Cemetery. He was in his 88th year. His wife predeceased him four

"IN THE PUBLIC EYE"

When you are asking yourself the question if your eyes need the services of an experienced optometrist, ask yourself if they tire easily, while reading or if they fail to visualize some distant point. Have you a headache that medicines will not relieve? In any manner are you losing your keenness of perception? You would better let us use a few simple tests to determine the status quo of your vision power.
