

BILBERRY, 4 TO 1 WINS BOSTON STEEPCHASE

Spencer Reiff and Marigold Outside Money in Feature Event
—Only One Favorite.

Bertha E. was the only favorite to win yesterday at Hamilton, second and third choices and Hawkama at 7 to 1 taking the other races. The afternoon was hot and there was another large crowd in attendance. The Barton Steeplechase, with $100 guaranteed, was the feature. Six accepted the conditions, John Dillon and Picktime being scratched. Moonlight opened short priced favorite, but carried no more money than Spencer Reiff, who was the only one to win. The latter combination closing first choice. Tommy Reiff kept Bilberry straight and he raced Moonlight off his feet, the latter going down at the last jump. Galt was alone second with Sam Farmer coming for the third, Spence being called for the fourth. Spencer Reiff hit with two jumps and Nat Ray stayed on with difficulty, finishing just ahead of the others. Steve Lane was backed for the show. Edgely won the first all the way, the favorite, second choice, the place from the money and Hawkama C. were all backed to win. Euripides, Greendale and Gowan had show support. Again in the second race was away flying and, as Foley was kept for the coin, the Gerst filly was out for the coin. Greendale, Nicol did his best on the favorite, Peacock's Choice, but could not take the place from Christmas, Mazy Colors, who drove her to beat J. W. Kent for the favorite, the public went down on the favorite, Arthur Brynna, Cascade, Gowan and Maxim Gun were backed to peep. Hawkama, that opened at 8 to 1 and ended to 6 to 1, won the third, coming in hot bringing him up on the outside and passing Night Mist and Anna Smith. He fought it out in front from the time the barrier sprung. The books closed up here, as Anna, Night and Ben still carried inside. The stable profited nicely on Patriot when Fairbrother scored. Off in front he rolled home alone, and the Dorothy Webb, who drove her to beat J. W. Kent for the favorite, the public went down on the favorite, Arthur Brynna, Cascade, Gowan and Maxim Gun were backed to peep. Old Monte Carlo looked a winner on the turf but he was not. He was scratched. Whatsoever was rated nicely and drove past Trackless for a clever win, Dunvegan alone third. It was Kennedy's second win in a row.

DUFFERIN MATINEE TO-DAY.
The Dufferin Driving Club will hold their weekly matinee this afternoon at Dufferin track, where three good races will be run off.

Toronto Kennel Club.
The Dominion Day dog show to be held under the auspices of the Toronto Kennel Club promises to be a phenomenal success. Breeders from across the city are taking an active interest, both in point of entries and presentation of special prizes. Buffalo especially is sending a large representation, while the Boston Terrier Club of Boston have offered two silver medals and a handsome silver cup to be competed for by their favorite variety. Entries close June 19 with the secretary
