CHARGES AGAINST JAP MINISTERS

Alleged That They Enriched Themselves by Stock Gambling.

Tokio, July 6.—There was considerable disorder in the house of representatives today, following charges made by M. Shimada, that Minister of Finance Takahashi and Minister of Commerce Yammamoto had enriched themselves by stock gambling previous to the recent financial slump. Shimada based his accusations on newspaper articles, which alleged heavy sales of sugar and shipping stocks.

"Once," said M. Shimada, "the vice-minister of commerce was forced to resign for accepting the gift of a watch from the stock exchange, yet members of the cabinet remain in office despite knowledge which ought to put them to shame."

The speaker further charged that the government had been so eager to protect the interests of certain persons that it prevented the publication of reports of runs on banks.

M. Takahashi vehemently denied the charges of M. Shimada, while Premier Hara characterized them at mischievous and groundless newspaper rumors.

A motion to investigate the charges was defeated by a government majority.

In the house of peers, Baron Sakatani declared that if the government had heeded the advance of the peers to control prices, a panic would not have occurred. He added that the extent of the demoralization was shown in the merchandise accumulated in the market, which, he declared, had reached the value of $700,000,000. Baron Sakatani laid emphasis on the economic chaos prevailing in Manchuria. This was due, he said, mainly to abuse of the special rights the Japanese enjoy in Manchuria.

MONTREAL REPORTS SHORTAGE OF COAL

Situation Worse — Advocate Closing Plants in Canada for Five Days.

Montreal, July 6.—"So far as we can see," said a prominent coal distributor of this city today, "there is only one thing that can be done in order to allow the mines to catch up with the shortage and get the coal supply put on a firm basis again, and that is for all the plants in the country to shut down, say, for five days or a week."

Numerous coal distributors of this city state that during the last ten days the coal shortage has become considerably worse. A short time ago they were at least able to go out and buy coal, even tho they had to pay excessive prices for it, but now they can obtain soft coal only in the smallest quantities. As the situation is getting worse instead of better, as time goes on, there appears to be nothing to do but to follow the former suggestion.

London, July 6.—In the house of commons today, during discussion of the finance bill, J. Austen Chamberlain, chancellor of the exchequer, accepted, on behalf of the government, an amendment to the bill reducing the ad valorem duty on sparkling wines from 50 to 33 1-3 per cent. as a concession to French wine growers. The chancellor promised to take into consideration a similar reduction on cigars.

"What's in a Name?"

Facts about your name; its history; its meaning; whence it was derived; its significance; your lucky day and lucky jewel.

By MILDRED MARSHALL

ROSAMOND.

Rosamond has nothing to do with a rose, strange as it may seem. The name means "famed protection," and is of extremely ancient origin. The first Hrosmond was the fierce chieftainess of the Gepidae, whom her Lombard husband forced to drink his health in a grisly goblet composed of the skull of her slaughtered father, and who later avenged the insult by a midnight murder.

Out of this tragedy, the name of Rosamond gained great popularity among the peasantry, and in some mysterious way penetrated the land of the Norman Cliffords, by whom it was bestowed upon Fair Rosamond of ballad lore. This lovely lady's history has been much changed by Cervantes, who makes his Persiles and Sigismunda encounter her in the Arctic regions, fulfilling a dreary penance among the wehr wolves.

Her name, in its supposed interpretation, gave rise to the Latin epigram, "Rosa mundi, sed non Rosa munda" (the rose of the world, but not a pure rose), according to one historian. The ballad, however, as well as the general aura of romance whichs surrounds the name of Rosamond, established her popularity in England, and all English speaking countries.

The ruby is Rosamond's talismanic gem. Its promise of power, bodily strength, and haughty pride will be fulfilled in her. Saturday is her lucky day and four her lucky number.

NEW TORONTO

To Ask Board of Health For Order Covering Expenditure

The provincial board of health is to be asked for a mandatory order for increased expenditure to the amount of $60,000, covering cost of proposed extensions of the New Toronto waterworks system. This procedure will make a referendum on the matter unnecessary.

Other matters of municipal interest put thru at Monday night's council meeting included the appointment of George Rooney as an independent lawyer to investigate the shortages showing in Hydro accounts of the town. The shortages are of over two years standing and were the cause of the recently called provincial audit.

A bylaw for the appropriation of funds to cover the cost of a new school was read a second time and left over for final consideration. Three special constables will be added to the present police staff, a fact that speaks for the progress of the municipality.

Town accounts totaling $1,515.01 and Hydro accounts amounting to $3,799.03 were passed.

The parties were married in Belfast, Ireland, on the first of March, 1910, and came to Canada in April, 1910, and resided, first, in Ottawa, and later at 172 Day avenue, Toronto, until the petitioner went overseas, in March, 1916. LONG BRANCH

RATEPAYERS SUPPORT WATERWORKS APPEAL

Altho meeting with stronger opposition than could reasonably be expected to such a measure of local improvement or community welfare, the request of the Long Branch residents for the installation of a waterworks system is being heartily supported by the permanent ratepayers, and little doubt is held of the early realization of this, another step towards progress.

The opposition to the scheme comes from within Long Branch Park itself, the limits of which enclose approximately 200 dwellings. The majority of those dwellings are tenanted only during the summer months, and it is from this quarter comes the objections to the proposed water supply.

Some time ago an effort was made to incorporate the Long Branch Park, a community in itself, but this measure was strongly opposed and defeated by the ratepayers living in close proximity, and supported by the permanent residents of the park, who all desired incorporation on a larger basis.

In the present issue, as in the past, the permanent residents within the limits of the park are, with those in the adjoining outside territory, solid for the acquisition of a waterworks plant, or, at least, a water supply to be arranged for with the adjoining town of New Toronto.

A largely-signed petition is almost completed, and will be presented at the proper quarters in the near future.

PORT CREDIT

A DIFFICULT VICTORY.

Altho adding another victory to their undefeated record in the Lake Shore Senior League, Port Credit had a close chase in their twilight game with Mimico last night.

The game was played at Mimico, and resulted in a win for the visitors by the narrow margin of 10-9. The recovery of the Mimico team is adding interest in the league. Batteries for the game were: Mimico, McBride, Littleton and Holdenby; Port Credit, Thompson and Evans.

The game, which attracted a large crowd of spectators, was umpired by C. Downing of New Toronto.

BOARD BUYS LAND.

The school board of Mimico have got in on the real estate boom by the purchase of a piece of land adjoining the present school property, at the figure of $700. Negotiations for the deal were carried thru by J. W. Royce, the former owner being James Bromhall of Oshawa.

TODMORDEN

U. F. O. CLUB DEBARRED.

The admission of a U. F. O. club into membership of the Amalgamated Ratepayers' Association of York Township was discussed at some length at a recent meeting of the executive. It was pointed out that the amalgamated, being a non-political organization, could not absorb a U. F. O. society, which is political in character. It was further pointed out that the farmers on the town line are seldom in sympathy with the aims of the ratepayers' associations on the fringe of the city.

EAST TORONTO

FRANKLAND TO RUN FOR EAST TORONTO

H. R. Frankland, 51 Fairview boulevard, one of the prominent residents of the Danforth district will, it is stated, be an independent labor candidate for East Toronto in the next federal election. Mr. Frankland was born on Logan avenue, opposite the Frankland School, and for many years lived on the northeast corner of Danforth and Pape avenues, which property was recently sold for sub-division. During the past seven years Mr. Frankland's interest has been in his farm at Hornby.

He is coming forward on his own initiative, and states that no organization or political bodies are behind him. He will be absolutely free and independent as the country wishes now to get away from too much party politics, he claims.

In 1896 Mr. Frankland contested East York with W. F. Maclean, M.P., and so close was the voting that a recount was ordered which gave the constituency to the latter.

DANFORTH

ST. JOHN'S BEAT ST. JAMES'.

NORWAY

SCARBORO DIVISION NEEDS MORE CARS

Considerable dissatisfaction is expressed by the residents of the eastern district regarding the shortage of cars and the indifferent service of the Toronto and York Radial, Scarboro division, on Saturdays and holidays. According to the statement of a prominent business man, who states that on last Dominion Day, the company carried passengers in capacity loads during the day on the outward trips and had not sufficient cars to bring the people back to Toronto in the evening.

Passengers were left standing at stop 43 in the evening for four hours waiting for cars, and at a late hour two cars were sent out to take them back to town. Shortage of cars, he claims, is the trouble. One car an hour to West Hill is insufficient. There should be a regular half hour service at the least, and more cars put on. The number of cars on the route is sufficent for winter service, but totally inadequate during the summer season.

In June, 1919, there were 24 permits costing $417,800, making a balance in favor of this year of $82,200.
