

DUAL LEADERSHIP SUGGESTED FOR LIBERAL PARTY

Ottawa, July 16.—From a certain group of the French Canadian members in the opposition comes a proposal to be brought forward at the convention if found acceptable, that the Liberal party in Canada should henceforth be governed by a dual leadership. The names in the minds of the proposers of this idea are Premier Gouin and Martin, and they urge that this would indicate once and for all the desire of Liberals to do justice to all sections of the community and especially to the two races making up the Canadian nation. The difficulty with this proposal is that it seems to overlook that a leader is selected with the idea that he shall later become a premier. A dual leadership is out of the question although a practical division of the duties of leadership has not been an uncommon thing in countries having like Canada in its citizenship more than one race. In every such case, however, one man is given the name and fame of leader. A proposal will be made that whatever leader is chosen, shall have to assist him such an advisory council as that formed during the last session to help D. D. McKenle. Those who formed that council are well satisfied with the results obtained and wish to continue the system. It is now presided over by James Hobb. In latest rumors regarding the reconstruction of the cabinet credence is increasingly given to the report that when Premier Borden announces the changes in the cabinet one portfolio will be found to have disappeared. If, as is confidently expected, Hon. Arthur Meighen becomes finance minister and the situation is not further complicated for the premier by the resignation of Hon. Frank Carvell as minister of public works, Hon. James Calder is expected to become minister of the interior, while Hon. N. W. Rowell will become minister of public health, immigration and colonization while retaining his present position as president of the privy council.

New Policies Adopted.

It is being noted with some surprise that although a successor to Sir Thomas White as finance minister will be appointed within ten days some important policies, under which the new minister will have to administer are being established before he is appointed. For example it has been practically declared that the government has decided on the policy of not exempting the boards of the next loan. It has also decided to place a minimum price on wheat, both of which plans the new finance minister might regard as placing handicaps on his ability to handle the situation whether they are wise provisions or not. As this would hardly be done without consultation with the new appointment, it lends color to the view that Hon. Arthur Meighen has already been selected and that these new departures in policy have been embarked on after consultation with him. As a western minister, Hon. Arthur Meighen would believe that the minimum price would be popular out west.

URGES NEED FOR A NEW PARTY

London, July 16.—(Reuter Despatch)—A sensation has been caused in political circles by the news that Colonel Winston Churchill, secretary for war, who has just returned from visiting Premier Lloyd George at Criceth, delivered a speech at a dinner in the west end at which over a hundred members of the house of commons were present, at which he urged the necessity of a new and permanent coalition party re-christened the "Centre" party. The dinner was organized quietly and only became known when some of the diners returned to the house.

It appears that Colonel Churchill, speaking as a disciple of Lloyd George, spoke for an hour, reviewing old political differences and emphasized the necessity for continued combination of the moderates among the Unionists and Liberals in order to preserve what had been won in the war.

Colonel Churchill insisted that co-operation was necessary in order to fight Bolshevism. The supporting speakers included the chief coalition Liberal and Unionist whips.

The lord chancellor referred sympathetically to the future of the labor party, but some speculation exists as to the new party's attitude of alliance or opposition towards the saner elements. The diners gained the impression that Lloyd George would lead the new Centre party.
