WIFE AND MOTHER GONE FROM HOME, SUPPOSEDLY TO THE WEST; GENERAL NEWS OF THE NORTH END

A young man living in the North End, who had been married for four or five years, was lately deserted by his wife. They had always seemed to get along fairly well, according to the neighbors, and there never seemed to be any disagreement between them.

It is believed that the woman, who is young and attractive, has gone west with the harvesters, as she has not been heard of since the night the excursion train left the city. On that evening she was seen in company with a North End man who, it is known, intended going west. They had been seen together several times previous to that and although the man had often visited their home, the husband had thought nothing of it as he supposed him to be a friend.

The woman is the mother of three small children, and her neighbors cannot understand how she could have left them.

Wm. Lilley & Sons have opened their new meat and provision store at 558 Main street, and will conduct a store along new and modern lines. Low prices will be a feature of this company and in order to lower the price of the goods they will cut off all avenues that cause expense. Goods will be bought and sold on a cash basis, and no goods will be delivered, thus cutting off delivery expense. The store is central and should prove a success from the start.

Miss Vera Earle of Main street, will leave this evening for Providence, R. I. where she will study nursing.

Miss Grace Mahoney left last evening for the Boothby Hospital, Boston, where she will study nursing. She was accompanied by Miss Claire Daly, who has been visiting at her home in Main street.

Miss Pauline O'Pray of Simonds street, left yesterday on her return to Boston.

Miss Isabella M. Duff has returned to her home in Chubb street, after spending a pleasant vacation with Mr. and Mrs. George Knight at Williams' Landing.

Knowing that he had done wrong and fearing the consequences of his act, little Ivan Walters of Indiantown, aged about ten years, decided to escape from the law, and with another lad, Murray Chase, aged about twelve years, planned to make a get-away on the steamer D. J. Purdy yesterday. Chase withdrew at the last moment, but the Walters youngster went alone. He was soon missed and his father got in telephonic communication with Hampstead with the result that he was brought back on the steamer Victoria yesterday afternoon. He was arrested and with young Chase, is charged with breaking into Bigelow & Laboon's confectionery and beer shop in Main street and stealing candy. Young Walters admitted having broken into the store and also accompanied by Chase, into the butcher shop of Robert Ross in Indiantown. Their fathers have endeavored to reform the lads by chastising them, but without success, and they will probably be arraigned in the police court on Tuesday.

Miss Alice Gertrude Duff has returned to the city after spending her holidays with her uncle, Robert Duff and Mrs. Duff at West Scotch Settlement, Kings county.

Miss Grace Mahoney, of the North End, left last evening for the Boothby Hospital, Boston, where she will study nursing. She was accompanied by Miss Claire Daly, who has been visiting at her home in Main street.

London, Aug. 28.—A mysterious person, signing himself "Jack the Ripper," threatens to start a lone warfare against the militant suffragettes unless they abstain from violence.

"Stalking pests of the British Isles" is the title given to the women by this modern avenger.

In a note addressed to the Women's Social and Political Union he writes:—

"Unless women cease their violence I shall suppress the militant suffragettes by a method that has been proven effective. They are the stalking pests of the British Isles."

It was signed "1913, Jack the Ripper."

Uncle Toby was aghast at finding a strange dandy with his arm around Mandy's waist.

"Mandy, tell that nigger to take his arm away from round yo' waist!" he indignantly commanded.

"Tall him yo'self," said Mandy, haughtily, "He's a puffed stranger to me."

Prevented—Stopped

MOTHERSILL'S, after thorough tests, is now officially adopted by practically all the Great Lakes and New York Steamship Companies.

Four years ago Mr. Motherstill gave a personal demonstration of his remedy on the English Channel, Irish Sea, and the Baltic, and received an endorsement from leading papers and such people as Bishop Taylor Smith, Lord Northcliffe, and hosts of doctors, bankers and professional men. Letters from passengers of international renown people we all know—testify to the fact that Motherstill's is a most valuable information, are contained in an attractive booklet, which will be sent free upon receipt of your name and address.

Motherstill's is guaranteed not to contain cocaine, morphine, opium, chloral, or any other dangerous substance. 50 cent box is sufficient for twenty-four hours. $1.00 box for a Transatlantic voyage. Your druggist keeps Motherstill's or will obtain it for you from his wholesaler. If you have any trouble getting the genuine, send direct to the Motherstill Remedy Co., 47 Schermer Ridge, Detroit, Mich. Also at 19 St. Bride St., London, England, New York, Paris, Milan, Hamburg.
