Baseball

The Marathons.

Manager Joe Page of the Marathons has received contracts from Nelson and Hugh Pinkerton for the coming season. They will arrive in the city about the latter part of this week, along with Cannon who comes from Mattapan, White from Roxbury, Berran from Roxbury, Sullivan from Dorchester, Dolan from Roxbury and Lamb from Boston. Nelson's home is in Dorchester, Mass.

Pinmore Shifts Again.

Art Pinmore is now playing in Grand Forks in the Central International League composed of three teams. He may come back to Fredericton to play with the team there this season.

In Moncton.

It is altogether likely that a semi-professional baseball league will be formed in Moncton. Four teams—Y. M. C. A., Rogers, Sunny Brae and the I. C. R.—have signified their intention of entering and a committee of business men is now soliciting subscriptions.

Fredericton Team.

Fredericton expects to send a contingent of fans here for the opening game of the N. B. and Maine League on May 24. Of the three players Manager Duggan signed while in Boston, nothing can be said yet but it is known that one of the trio is a pitcher and one of renown at that. "Bob" Gansley now in one of the southern leagues has written to the Fredericton management that he would like to return to play on the team this year, and there is a possibility that this may be accomplished.

It is understood that the management are negotiating with Arthur Pinmore to return from the west. In addition to the Connelly brothers, Murray Bates Wildes Callahan and Duggan of last year's team there are several others who have signed but nothing much can be learned about them until Manager Duggan returns from Boston. At least four men new to the Fredericton baseball followers have been secured for this season's team. They are Connelly, Fitzgerald, Ray and Hoyt.

Diamond Sparkles.

Pitcher Bill Bailey, of the St. Louis Americans, who has always been a hothead to the Tigers, has been sold to the Detroit club.

Christ Mathewson, of the Giants, has written another book. The title is "Pitching in a Pinch."

These are happy days for Hugh McGreen of Jersey City, as a baseball manager. His team is leading the International League and drawing good crowds.

Hans Wagner has headed the National League batters eight times in twelve years. Cobb has led the American five times.

There were eighty shut out games in the American and ninety-two in the National League last season.

Newark has released Catcher Bill Bergen, recently secured from Brooklyn.

The best by test. Absolutely free from Acid, Turpentine or other injurious ingredients. It's good for your shoes.

2 IN 1

SHOE POLISH

Will not rub off or soil the daintiest garment. Liquid, brilliant and lasting. No other even half as good, not at all Dealers.

McGinnity and Solomon are anxious to get Pitcher George Bell to reconsider his determination to give up baseball this season. The veteran has been turned over to the Indians by Brooklyn.

Seven Giants, including two pitchers, are hitting for 300 or better.

The Phillies put the Giants down after McGraw's team had won nine straight games.

Charley Hall has been credited with winning five games for the Red Sox this year—two against New York, two against the Washingtons, and one against the Athletics.

"Honus" Wagner, although he failed to hit safely in six of fourteen games played this year, had made seventeen hits in fifty times at bat, a record of 349. In his last four games he made nine hits in fourteen times at bat.

Tyrus Raymond Cobb did not lead the American Leaguers in driving in runs during the month of April, but he set the pace for the Tigers, hammering home eight all on safeties.

The Rifle.

Some Good Scores.

The following are the scores at the regular Saturday Club shoot of the St. John Gun Club. The numbers in order are the number of birds shot, and those broken:

Young Britt vs. Tommy Houch, Baltimore.

Old Timers Meet.

Chicago, May 13—Seated at different tables in a down-town restaurant at dinner were two men; one tall and lanky, sparse of red hair and adorned with a complexion spattered with freckles; the other, husky and the picture of health. The tall and lanky one was just putting the finishing punch to a trio of chops when his eyes alighted on the other. His gaze rested on the other for a few moments, then he left his table and stuck out a big, freckled fist.

"Hello, Jack, how are you, old chap?" "Oh, I'm bully, Fitz, and how are you?" was the reply.

The owner of the defreckled fist was Bob

VALUES OF THE VOTE

(By Dr. Max Eastman.)

I have just attended the organization meeting of a new chapter of the Men's League for Woman Suffrage in a middle western state. A leading capitalist is the president, and a leading Socialist one of the vice-presidents—a fact which reminds us that the importance of woman suffrage lies deeper than any special programme of reform, or the platform of any political party. It appeals, upon the theoretic side, to those fundamental principles of popular government which underlie our constitution, the principles of rule by the majority—that there is no majority without a right to rule, until after a single vote is the property of every single citizen.

Now, I want to specify just what the great value of political citizenship are—especially its values to women:

First, citizenship is a stimulus. It will tend to wake women up. And that is the first essential.

People say the fact that women are not greatly awake and active in their own behalf now is a reason for withholding it. But they are just wrong! Citizenship is the stimulus. It is the gift (or the position—I don't care!) that will arouse them.

With no exception throughout the whole history of the movement, after the women of a state or country get citizenship, they value it; they use it; they will not relinquish it. And this is because with the using of it they begin to acquire the knowledge which makes it valuable. They learn the game.

That is the second great value of citizenship to women. It gives them a stimulus, and then it gives them knowledge-by-experience. It teaches them how to act intelligently in their own behalf.

People say the fact that women as a class do not already possess the knowledge which pertains to citizenship, is a reason for not making them citizens. And here again they are just wrong! Women as a class have not the knowledge which pertains to citizenship, and they never will have under the sun until after they are citizens. No special kind of knowledge ever arose in any group of individuals until after the activity to which that knowledge relates was open to them.

The women who don't want citizenship, don't know enough to want it. And the reason they don't know enough, is that they haven't the kind of knowledge that citizenship begets. Therefore the more they don't want it, the more they need it—the more they ought to want it for them.

There is a third value of citizenship, the power which it gives of accomplishing things through legislation and government. This is a reason, and for the workers a rapidly growing reason.

But the power to promote legislation is not the main argument, not the original or basic reason for popular government. Neither are stimulus and education the original and basic reasons. The original reason—the great hearing of democracy in politics—is that it guarantees to every citizen a certain elementary standing in the community. It gives him a little bit of the personal sacredness of a sovereign.

It certifies to him that his needs and wishes shall be of some consequence to the society he dwells in and serves. In this lies the historic origin, and the radical significance of democracy in politics.

AMERICUS
WINS; BURNS
IS INJURED

Boston, May 11—Americus of Baltimore defeated Cyclone Burns of Boston in two straight falls in a wrestling match here last night. Burns was injured by being thrown on his head in the last fall.

The first fall took one hour, twelve minutes and forty seconds, and was made with a crotch and flying mare hold. The second was secured in eleven minutes and twenty seconds, Americus picking Burns up and dropping him on his neck and head. It is not believed his injuries are serious.

SCORE GREAT SUCCESS IN HAYDEN'S CREATION

St. John Choral Society's Fine Presentation—Soloists' Work Also Delightful

The St. John Choral Society delighted an audience which completely filled the Opera House last evening by their successful production of Hayden's oratorio, "The Creation." It is quite fair to say that their hearers were surprised as well as delighted, the improvement shown since their last production being very marked. The chorus is composed of about 150 voices, well balanced and combining to make a most effective instrument for the presentation of even such difficult music as is found in the Creation. The results secured reflect the greatest credit on the leader, Ernest Scott Peacock, who also secured a success last evening as an able conductor.

The society was fortunate in its selection of soloists, the leading roles being most successfully presented. Mrs. Marie Sundellus of Boston, who sang the role of Gabriel, possesses a beautiful soprano voice of great range and exceeding sweetness. George J. Parker of Boston, was heard in the part of Uriel, which he handled in a most artistic manner. He has a clear, well rounded tenor voice, excellent at its best, there was little to criticize, and his work was most satisfying. Mrs. C. H. Williams, contralto, assisted with the last chorus. A small, but effective orchestra assisted, and as pianist, Miss Bertha Worden added much to the success of the evening.

The stage made a charming picture with the chorus banded solidly in ten rows, the ladies all in white, the orchestra was grouped around the conductor at the front of the stage, with the soloists to the right of the stage, near the piano.

The society will give a general concert this evening with choruses, and solos by the principals.

CANVASS OF CITY WILL BE ON THURSDAY

The canvass of the city for the purpose of raising funds to cover the expenses of the Back to New Brunswick week will take place on Thursday instead of Wednesday on account of the visit of the minister of trade and commerce on Wednesday. Arrangements for the canvass were made at a meeting of the executive of the 1917 Club last evening.

J. Fraser Gregory presided. The finance committee reported having secured the co-operation of a large number of prominent business houses who will commission a member of the firm or one of their representatives to assist with the work. The city will be divided into districts and will be covered completely. The members of the enlarged committee will meet in the board of trade rooms in the morning and will report there during the day. At noon lunch will be served to the workers in Bond's restaurant. About $5,000 will be required for the expenses in connection with the back to New Brunswick week and as the business and professional men will reap great benefit both immediately and in the future from the movement it is expected that there will be no difficulty in securing all the support needed.

It was also arranged last evening to have my face stops."
