

NOVA SCOTIA LOBSTER MEN ARE HART HIT

French Bill Means a Lot Of Money Out of Their Pockets

DRAYTON GETS THE JOB

Toronto Corporation Counsel To Succeed Judge Mabee—Detective Says Lawyer Tried to Bribe Him—Dr. Nesbitt on the Witness Stand

Halifax, June 27.—The French chamber of deputies have before them a bill which provides that all species of canned fish shall have the name of the country of its origin embossed upon the tin in which they are packed.

This is of special importance to the lobster packers of Nova Scotia. Several thousands of cases of canned lobsters are now on the way from Canada to France, and if the bill becomes operative at once these would be liable to be refused admittance to that country.

Dr. Nesbitt on the witness stand in the case of the Toronto corporation counsel.

Los Angeles, Cal., June 27.—For the first time a witness in the Darrow trial today charged Clarence S. Darrow with having personally offered him a bribe to testify to his certain evidence against the McNamara brothers.

The witness, Guy Biddinger, a Chicago detective, one of the men who arrested James B. McNamara and Arthur McLaughlin, testified he had pretended to be Darrow's lawyer, and that Darrow told him he wanted to learn the inner details of the McNamara defense, had been "tipping off" secret information to Detective W. J. Burns.

Toronto, June 26.—Dr. Beattie Nesbitt, former president of the defunct Farmers Bank, made his long expected appearance in the witness stand when Sir William Meredith resumed the investigation into the affairs of that institution this morning.

The Nickel's Fine Week End Bill. The Nickel opened its end-week program this afternoon with a wig and a budget of fine features.

Morning News Over the Wires. The new 85 dominion bills will be issued on July 1.

London, June 27.—Patrick Lawrence, who with his wife and Mrs. Pankhurst, was sentenced to nine months imprisonment at the Old Bailey sessions on May 22, on the charge of conspiracy and inciting their followers to malicious damage of property, was liberated today.

Because they act so gently (no purging or griping) yet so thoroughly.

NA-DRU-CO LAXATIVES

are best for the children as well as the grown-ups. 25c. a box at your druggist's.

There is a growing demand for American parks. Those taken from the western waters last season were valued at $200,000.

Rome, June 27.—Baron Vincenzo Paterno, a former cavalry lieutenant in the Italian army, was today sentenced to life imprisonment for the murder of Princess Trisouni Di Sant'Elia, lady in waiting to Queen Helena, on March 2, 1911.

INTERNATIONAL PARADE, KNIGHTS OF ST. JOHN, IN TORONTO

This picture shows the big organization moving in two directions in Jarvis street. There was considerable comment made as the result of the fact that there was no sign of the Union Jack in the parade. The Stars and Stripes predominated. The picture in inset represents Miss Johanna White of Kentucky, supreme secretary of the ladies' auxiliary, and General W. T. Hornor, supreme treasurer of Covington, Kentucky.

DEATH OF THOMAS PARK

Found With Head Submerged in Newman Brook—Suffered From Heart Trouble

With his head submerged in Newman Brook, which at that point is not more than three feet deep, Thomas Park, a well known and much respected citizen of the North End, was found dead just after 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon by James W. Speight.

Dr. Roberts examined the body and found no signs of violence, giving permission to have the body removed to Chamberlain's undertaking rooms where he made a thorough examination later in the evening.

Mr. Park had been in ill health for some months suffering from heart trouble, but had been working yesterday morning. He was with his son in High street and went out yesterday afternoon for a walk.

Mr. Park was one of the few survivors of the body of journeymen tailors which the old time firm of James S. May & Co. brought to the city from Scotland about forty years ago.

Mr. Park was married to a daughter of the late W. H. Turner, of the North End, and had always been a faithful and valued employee, giving up his position nine months ago on account of ill health.

Commissioner Wigmore has given instructions to the water department to lay a water main down Egbert street to supply water for use in connection with the work on the drydock.

Mr. Park was one of the few survivors of the body of journeymen tailors which the old time firm of James S. May & Co. brought to the city from Scotland about forty years ago.

Mr. Park was married to a daughter of the late W. H. Turner, of the North End, and had always been a faithful and valued employee, giving up his position nine months ago on account of ill health.

Commissioner Wigmore has given instructions to the water department to lay a water main down Egbert street to supply water for use in connection with the work on the drydock.

Mr. Park was one of the few survivors of the body of journeymen tailors which the old time firm of James S. May & Co. brought to the city from Scotland about forty years ago.

Mr. Park was married to a daughter of the late W. H. Turner, of the North End, and had always been a faithful and valued employee, giving up his position nine months ago on account of ill health.

Commissioner Wigmore has given instructions to the water department to lay a water main down Egbert street to supply water for use in connection with the work on the drydock.

Mr. Park was one of the few survivors of the body of journeymen tailors which the old time firm of James S. May & Co. brought to the city from Scotland about forty years ago.

Mr. Park was married to a daughter of the late W. H. Turner, of the North End, and had always been a faithful and valued employee, giving up his position nine months ago on account of ill health.

Commissioner Wigmore has given instructions to the water department to lay a water main down Egbert street to supply water for use in connection with the work on the drydock.

Mr. Park was one of the few survivors of the body of journeymen tailors which the old time firm of James S. May & Co. brought to the city from Scotland about forty years ago.

Mr. Park was married to a daughter of the late W. H. Turner, of the North End, and had always been a faithful and valued employee, giving up his position nine months ago on account of ill health.

MORNING LOCALS

The police investigation with Commissioner McEllan presiding was resumed at city hall yesterday afternoon and after additional witnesses including a member of the police force had been examined, adjournment was taken until 2 o'clock this afternoon when one or two witnesses will be heard and the investigation concluded.

Results of the examinations in the music department of McGill University include the following from the maritime provinces. Passed, first examination for Mrs. Bae, Miss Florence De Courcy Campbell; final examination for Mrs. Bae, Miss Florence De Courcy Campbell; final examination for Mrs. Bae, Miss Florence De Courcy Campbell.

There was a large crowd in the King Square last evening when St. Mary's band played at a meeting of the Young Men's Association on Wednesday evening. The band was led by Mr. J. B. M. Baker.

Final arrangements were made for December 1st, at a meeting of the Young Men's Association on Wednesday evening. The band was led by Mr. J. B. M. Baker.

Mr. Park was one of the few survivors of the body of journeymen tailors which the old time firm of James S. May & Co. brought to the city from Scotland about forty years ago.

Commissioner Wigmore has given instructions to the water department to lay a water main down Egbert street to supply water for use in connection with the work on the drydock.

Mr. Park was one of the few survivors of the body of journeymen tailors which the old time firm of James S. May & Co. brought to the city from Scotland about forty years ago.

Mr. Park was married to a daughter of the late W. H. Turner, of the North End, and had always been a faithful and valued employee, giving up his position nine months ago on account of ill health.

Commissioner Wigmore has given instructions to the water department to lay a water main down Egbert street to supply water for use in connection with the work on the drydock.

Mr. Park was one of the few survivors of the body of journeymen tailors which the old time firm of James S. May & Co. brought to the city from Scotland about forty years ago.

Mr. Park was married to a daughter of the late W. H. Turner, of the North End, and had always been a faithful and valued employee, giving up his position nine months ago on account of ill health.

Commissioner Wigmore has given instructions to the water department to lay a water main down Egbert street to supply water for use in connection with the work on the drydock.

Mr. Park was one of the few survivors of the body of journeymen tailors which the old time firm of James S. May & Co. brought to the city from Scotland about forty years ago.

Mr. Park was married to a daughter of the late W. H. Turner, of the North End, and had always been a faithful and valued employee, giving up his position nine months ago on account of ill health.

Commissioner Wigmore has given instructions to the water department to lay a water main down Egbert street to supply water for use in connection with the work on the drydock.

Mr. Park was one of the few survivors of the body of journeymen tailors which the old time firm of James S. May & Co. brought to the city from Scotland about forty years ago.

Mr. Park was married to a daughter of the late W. H. Turner, of the North End, and had always been a faithful and valued employee, giving up his position nine months ago on account of ill health.

JUNE WEDDINGS

Robertson-Tweedie. The marriage of Miss Minnie Isabella Tweedie and James Alexander Robertson, both of this city, took place last evening at the summer residence of Rev. L. A. McLean, at Millidgeville.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of the groom's mother, 190 Brunswick street, when Miss Minnie McKimley was united in marriage to Robert Connell.

The groom's parents to the bride were a check and to the bride a ring, a diamond brooch and a bracelet.

Mr. Park was one of the few survivors of the body of journeymen tailors which the old time firm of James S. May & Co. brought to the city from Scotland about forty years ago.

Commissioner Wigmore has given instructions to the water department to lay a water main down Egbert street to supply water for use in connection with the work on the drydock.

Mr. Park was one of the few survivors of the body of journeymen tailors which the old time firm of James S. May & Co. brought to the city from Scotland about forty years ago.

Mr. Park was married to a daughter of the late W. H. Turner, of the North End, and had always been a faithful and valued employee, giving up his position nine months ago on account of ill health.

Commissioner Wigmore has given instructions to the water department to lay a water main down Egbert street to supply water for use in connection with the work on the drydock.

Mr. Park was one of the few survivors of the body of journeymen tailors which the old time firm of James S. May & Co. brought to the city from Scotland about forty years ago.

Mr. Park was married to a daughter of the late W. H. Turner, of the North End, and had always been a faithful and valued employee, giving up his position nine months ago on account of ill health.

Commissioner Wigmore has given instructions to the water department to lay a water main down Egbert street to supply water for use in connection with the work on the drydock.

Mr. Park was one of the few survivors of the body of journeymen tailors which the old time firm of James S. May & Co. brought to the city from Scotland about forty years ago.

Mr. Park was married to a daughter of the late W. H. Turner, of the North End, and had always been a faithful and valued employee, giving up his position nine months ago on account of ill health.

Commissioner Wigmore has given instructions to the water department to lay a water main down Egbert street to supply water for use in connection with the work on the drydock.

Mr. Park was one of the few survivors of the body of journeymen tailors which the old time firm of James S. May & Co. brought to the city from Scotland about forty years ago.

Mr. Park was married to a daughter of the late W. H. Turner, of the North End, and had always been a faithful and valued employee, giving up his position nine months ago on account of ill health.

Commissioner Wigmore has given instructions to the water department to lay a water main down Egbert street to supply water for use in connection with the work on the drydock.

MR. INGRAHAM OF ST. JOHN IS REGISTRAR

The Pharmaceutical Society Meeting—Lightning Strikes Sheffield Barr

Fredericton, June 27.—The annual meeting of the New Brunswick Pharmaceutical Society was held at Pine Bluff Camp, Springhill, today amid very pleasant surroundings. There was a good attendance, most of the Fredericton druggists being present as well as a large delegation from St. John.

After the usual reports had been read and adopted the following officers were elected for the ensuing year. President, J. Ryan, Fredericton; vice-presidents, J. Magee Cook, Moncton; treasurer, G. Y. Dibblee, Fredericton; secretary, C. Fred Cheaston, Fredericton; registrar, E. B. W. Ingraham, St. John; council—the officers, J. M. Wiley, Altona; Staples, A. W. Combes, C. A. Burchill, J. M. Cook, B. Spencer, E. Mair, E. R. W. Ingraham; delegates to dominion pharmaceutical meeting at Vancouver (B. C.), D. B. McKenzie, Chatham; George Y. Dibblee, Fredericton; substitutes, J. M. Cook, E. Mason.

It was decided to hold the next annual meeting at Moncton. After the conclusion of the regular business the members of the society were entertained at dinner by the Fredericton druggists. An excellent report was received and was followed by a round of toasts and speeches.

At the meeting of the New Brunswick Educational Institute held this afternoon a paper by John T. Hawke, of Moncton, chairman of the Moncton school board was read. It was entitled: "Does our school system meet modern industrial needs?"

The discussion was opened by Dr. H. S. Bridges, of St. John. It was discussed by several members of the institute. The subject of "industrial continuation schools" was taken up and discussion led by Prof. Sexton, director of technical education, Halifax.

During the course of a severe thunderstorm which passed over Sheffield yesterday, the barn of George W. Bridges was struck by lightning and burned to the ground. Mr. Bridges, who was on horseback near the barn at the time, was knocked off his horse and received by a severe shock, but otherwise escaped serious injury.

Fortunately there was no live stock in the barn at the time, and very little hay. The contents consisting of only some empty barrels and a few boxes, were saved. It is understood that the loss is covered by insurance.

MR. DUGAL DENIES A YARN

To the Editor of The Telegraph. Sir—I have read in some newspapers that I was to support the Premier's address yesterday of the present state of our good Liberal friends in Madawaska county have elected me as a supporter of the opposition and I shall remain faithful to my party. Hoping that you will publish the above explanation, I am, Sir, Yours very truly, L. AUGUSTE DUGAL, Edmundston (N. B.), June 28, 1912.

VERDICTS IN TWO CASES

In the circuit court yesterday afternoon the case of William Jorral vs. Thomas Williams, contractor was taken up. This is an action to recover $4,000 damages for injuries received by the plaintiff, who is blind, by falling into an excavation, being dug by the defendant on Watson street, west side, one Sept. 6, 1911. It was contended for the plaintiff that there was negligence on the part of the defendant, by reason of his not having the trench properly fenced.

The defence put in no appearance, and Dr. F. L. Kenney, of Wells, Wilson, Whalen, Walter L. McLeod, William Morrish and the latter's wife gave evidence for the plaintiff who was represented by A. A. Wilson, K. C., and S. B. Bustin. The jury was composed of Robert A. Watson, Percy Holman, Thomas J. Kee, John Edgewood, Harry I. Morton, F. Deane Smith and William Keane.

A verdict for the plaintiff of $800 and costs was given. In the case of William Carlton Hale vs. Joseph Thompson, an action to recover $2,000 civil damages on the ground of assault and battery, the jury, yesterday afternoon returned a verdict for the defendant. At the morning session the defendant, Sherman Johnston, and William R. Garrison, George H. V. Bell, appeared for the plaintiff and Recorder Barker, K. C., for the defendant. This case will be appealed.

HOW IT HAPPENED

The lead—"De Hamme must have seen that trouble coming. Why didn't he get out of the track?" The Heavy—"In a moment of preoccupation he mistook the headlight for a spotlight and struck a post."

WAS A GREAT SUFFERER FOR FIVE YEARS FROM DYSPESPIA.

Dyspepsia is one of the most prevalent troubles of civilized life, and thousands of people suffer untold agony every year, for nearly everything that enters a weak dyspeptic stomach acts as an irritant. The long train of distressing symptoms, which render life a burden to the victim of dyspepsia, may be promptly cured by the use of Burdock Blood Bitters. Mrs. Wm. J. Boyne, Leppau, N.B., writes—"I thought I would write and tell you of the good Burdock Blood Bitters has done me and also tell you how thankful I am. For five years I had been a great sufferer from dyspepsia, and tried different doctors and proprietary medicines, but could get no relief. I was then advised to try Burdock Blood Bitters. I did not have much faith in it, but I thought I would give it a trial. To my surprise I am completely cured, and I will always recommend it. Burdock Blood Bitters has been on the market for about thirty-five years and is manufactured only by T. M. Millburn & Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

HOLIDAY TO BE BIG ONE AT CAMP SUSSEX

July 1 Attractive to Both The Soldiers and Visitors WILL BE FIELD SPORTS

Bonfire and "Sing Song" to Close The Day—The Work of The Signallers—Baking the Bread For The Hungry Men

Sussex, N. B., June 27.—All was activity at Sussex Camp today. Old Sol cast warm and radiant sunshine over a busy scene. From early morning parade until the command "dismis" was given late this afternoon, the big green field presented an animated spectacle with nearly 3,000 men in uniform dress, khaki shirt and trousers and "Panama" hats, executing orders of drill in various and multiple manoeuvres, marching, wheeling, forming fours, reforming and in other ways following the diverse commands given by their officers or instructors.

The camp has settled to a definite programme of action and the men are becoming accustomed to the daily routine and familiarizing themselves with matters of detail. The "Rookies," as recruits are termed, are sharpening their wits and though still members of the "awkward squad," they are improving considerably and know which way to turn when the commands "right wheel," "right about," or others similar are given. They have soon learned also which foot to first place in action on marching off with in addition to matters of drill and discipline they have become painfully wise concerning some of the old soldier's tricks which were of old. For instance, there are few to be found who will start off with brush and pall to "whitewash the last post."

Arrangements are being made whereby Dominion day, July 1, will be attractive to both soldiers and visitors. At noon a royal salute of twenty-one guns will be fired with the whole infantry brigade and infantry standing at rigid attention. As there is no artillery in camp, the salute will be fired by a detachment of infantry.

In the afternoon a programme of field sports will be held, beginning on the broad expanse of level ground in the lower portion of the field at 4:30 o'clock, after the bugle has sounded the retreat from parade.

Field sports of regimental representatives will be held tonight, at which arrangements for the affair will be promoted. The events will be participated in by members of all corps and will consist of baseball, running, pole vaulting, broad jump, tests of horsemanship, and a score of other features.

Captain T. Malcolm McAlvay has donated a handsome silver cup and individual prizes will also be presented. Preliminary events will be held before Monday, when the contest will be conducted.

In the afternoon, also, a social event of interest will be a reception held by Miss C. Herbert McLean in a large marquee in the Dragon lines. A large number of invitations have been extended and a pleasant time is anticipated.

In the evening a huge bonfire and "sing-song" will be held in the hollow. This is a feature of camp life which has many admirers amongst the soldiers. Through out the day teams and men are kept at work on collecting logs, trees, brush and other material to keep the fire high and deep and when a match kindling the "sing-song" begins. The programme this year will be furnished by the Army Service Corps and 62nd Battalion of St. John.

The patients in No. 2 hospital, conducted by No. 2 Canadian A. M. C., in charge of Captain F. S. L. Ford, of Liverpool (N. S.), are convalescent today, but another was added to the number being treated by the physicians and attendants of this body today.

Private Bruce McVear, of the 29th N. B. Dragoons, suffered painful injuries on being kicked by a horse in the side. He was taken to the field hospital in an ambulance and is somewhat improved tonight. His injuries are not serious, but he will be unable to drill again during camp.

Signallers at work. The instructions being given at signalling are being accorded great attention by the largest classes for this camp of military study yet up on Cape T. E. Powers is in command and is being ably assisted by J. Arthur Lindsay, I. M. S., and the subordinate members of the No. 8 section.

The recruits are being taught the art of flag waving in the semaphore, while the more advanced classes are receiving instructions in sending words, letters and figures by "dots and dashes" in the Morse code. Some of those who have more experience are given telegraphs and signalling from one station to another, with generally a transmitting post, by means of flag and their mirrors to the sun. This is an interesting procedure and is regarded with careful attention by those unfamiliar with the "umpy-itydy" language, the sending of messages through the air for varied distances by means of the Morse code and the aid of the sun.

Major J. R. Kirkpatrick, 6th Regiment, was field officer today, and Major J. W. S. Black will act in that capacity tomorrow. Major S. T. A. Wainwright, 71st Regiment, was orderly medical officer, and Lieut. G. B. Peat, of the 6th Regiment, will attend to this duty tomorrow.

Bread Supply. The huge ovens embedded in the clay in the rear of the Army Service Corps lines are now turning out the bread supply for the vast host of men in camp and as most of them are the happy possessors of healthy appetites it is no mean task to keep them in bread. For the first day or two of the camping season this important table article was furnished by contract with Sussex firms, but now the big baking ovens have been put in shape and the members of the bakers' division of No. 7 A. S. C. work them to the limit in supplying bread for the tables in camp, officers and men alike.

Most of the regiments now have covered tables set up for the men. For the opening days, and even until this morning, the privates were compelled to "rough it," but they did so uncomplainingly and cheerfully. They ran with their tin plate, tin cup, knife and fork to the field kitchen to cook house at the call to mess, and received their rations of coffee, tea, meat and potatoes, which they discussed while spouted about on the grass. This has now been abandoned as tables and benches have been placed for the different companies and the men can eat in comfort.

Pabst Blue Ribbon

The Beer of Quality

THE water knows that he is serving a discriminating guest when ordered to bring Pabst Blue Ribbon Beer.

This is the beverage beyond compare, and is appropriate for all times and occasions. Wholesome and refreshing—a delight to the eye and the palate—the perfection offering.

Bottled only at the brewery in crystal clear bottles, showing at a glance that it is clean and pure.

This is the beer for your home. Phone or write Richd. Sullivan & Co., 44-46 Dock St., Phone Main 83.

