READY MONEY PERSIA'S MOST URGENT NEED

Cash Required to Provide Police to Protect Life and Restore Peace

A VICIOUS CIRCLE

No Loans Until Order is Established and This Cannot be Accomplished Without the Loans

St. Petersburg, Aug. 12.—Russia is sorely embarrassed and much disquieted by the Persian tangle, which grows more knotted and fraught with greater danger every day.

Today there is no law, no order, no authority whatever. The peaceful inhabitants of the Ardabil district, for example, are suffering from the struggle between the Shahans and the Russians.

To rescue Persia from this anarchy, it will be necessary to create a strong force of gendarmes, and this involves heavy expenditure, besides postulating a honest and patriotic administration.

As various financial sources are dried up, a foreign loan of at least five or six millions is indispensable and urgent.

True, the Russian Government looks with a hopeful eye upon the situation, and holds that the land tax and other items of national revenue would, if properly systematized, suffice to pay a fair percentage of the necessary capital.

And between these two stools Persia is falling to ruin.

LOST IN THE WOODS

James Cunningham Strayed From Picnic Party and Was Not Found Until This Morning

Straying from the other members of the party with whom he had been picnicking, for the purpose of gathering some berries, James Cunningham, of the Brampton Brook, about seven miles from the city yesterday afternoon, lost his way in the thick woods and was missing until about 10 o'clock this morning.

With about twenty others, Mr. Cunningham drove out in a large bus yesterday morning, and after a little while separated from the others to pick berries.

At the coming of daylight the search was resumed with renewed vigor, but although the territory for miles around was covered there was nothing to indicate his presence.

Finally a searching party came upon him after wandering about for several hours. Mr. Cunningham, naturally, was exhausted, but was rejoiced to find his friends as much as they were to see him.

Among those who had formed the searching party were Charles Dunham, Lawrence Garnett, Robert Evans and Howard Lasker, and others.

RETIREMENT OF TWO WEEKS LONG ENOUGH FOR JACK JOHNSON

"Just One More Fight"—Plans to Begin Training Today—Has Not Selected His Opponent Yet—Other Matches

A VICIOUS CIRCLE

No Loans Until Order is Established and This Cannot be Accomplished Without the Loans

Chicago, Aug. 12.—After having been in "retirement" for two weeks, Jack Johnson is out again. He planned today to begin training for "just one more fight," and judging from the number of promoters who have been camping on his trail, since he recently announced that he was out of the ring for all time, he will have little trouble in getting it. Jesse and Eddie McMahon of the St. Nicholas Club were expected here from New York today to make Johnson an offer for fighting Joe Jeannette.

It is said Jeannette already has accepted the club terms.

"I want to show the public that I have not gone back," the champion said in an explanation of the sudden determination to re-enter the ring.

"These stories that I am all in make me laugh. Maybe I was a little above the Flynn bout, but I'll show the critics that I can box as well as ever."

Billy McCarney also was expected today to attempt to induce Paddy McFarland and Johnny Coulton to accept some bouts before Billy Gibson's Madison Square Garden Club. McCarney was in Cadillac yesterday and obtained Ad. Wolgast's promise to fight McFarland in New York in October.

ATTEMPTED ESCAPE TWO HOURS BEFORE TIME FOR HANGING

Fred. James Pays Penalty for Killing Constable—Japanese Murderer Hung at Same Time

Kamloops, B. C., Aug. 12.—Fred James, who murdered Constable Ahrens at Vernon, B. C., last spring, was hanged at two o'clock here Saturday night.

Two hours before he was hanged, James attempted to escape by climbing over the wall of the prison. He was seen by the eyes of Keeper Simpson, but Simpson, though half blinded, was able to overpower him. James went to his death smiling.

A Japanese, also convicted of murder, was hanged at the same time.

WITHIN FIVE MONTHS OF THE CENTURY MARK

Death of Aged Quebec Woman—Madame Michaud Makes Her 26th Contribution to Population

Quebec, Aug. 12.—Five months short of reaching the age of one hundred years, Madame Joseph Drouet, wife of Gabriel Beaulieu, is dead here.

She was ninety-nine years seven months and ten days old when she died. She was born in the town of St. Jean, in the province of Quebec, and was the daughter of a miller.

Madame John Michaud, of Levis, has just given birth to her twenty-sixth child. There were three pairs of twins among the twenty-six. Eighteen of her children are still living.

BOYCOTTING A PARISH PRIEST

Collections Cut Down to Express Disapproval—Rough Treatment For Those Who Gave More Than a Shilling

Dublin, Aug. 12.—The unusual measure of boycotting a parish priest has been adopted in the neighborhood of Westport, county Mayo.

Some time ago the priest advised his people to pay the rents due from them to the landlord, and to disregard the efforts of agitators who were going round the district telling people not to pay and to join in a land war.

He also denounced the local branch of the Ancient Order of Hibernians. The order then went round that, at a certain anniversary, at which many of the people had been accustomed to contribute so much as a sovereign to the collection, no one was to give more than a shilling. The worshippers were watched as they entered the church, and those who were seen to put more than a shilling in the plate have since had their turf left thrown into the bog, their poultry killed, and their cattle driven off.

BULGARIANS DEMAND WAR WITH TURKEY DESTRUCTION WROUGHT BY THE HEAVY RAINS

Excitement Over Massacre at Kotschana Continues Unabated

Fighting Between Turks and Montenegrins Resumed Yesterday—Pacifying Albanian Insurgents

(Canadian Press)

Sofia, Bulgaria, Aug. 12.—The excitement of the Bulgarian people over the massacre of Bulgarians that Musselmen at Kotschana perpetrated on August 2, continues without abatement.

The Bulgarian press is clamoring for war against Turkey. The inhabitants of Southern Bulgaria are extremely bellicose. They are holding meetings of protest against the massacre in which 100 Bulgarians were killed and demonstrations against Turkey are being organized in all parts of the country.

The Albanian government has been asked to abandon the national festivities on August 15, on account of the mourning for Kotschana, but it probably will not comply with the request.

Saloniki, Aug. 12.—The Austrian post office has received today by a bomb it is believed that the perpetrators were Turks or Bulgarians.

Frontier fighting between Turks and Montenegrins recommenced yesterday, when reinforcements reached the Turkish fortified posts on the eastern frontier. The strongest contingent available in the capital.

London, Aug. 12.—No news has yet been received here as to whether the renewed fighting on the Turkish-Montenegrin frontier is of a serious character. It probably is in defiance of orders from the two camps, as advisers near Constantinople continue to describe the situation as improving.

The extreme vigor of martial law at the Turkish capital has been relaxed. No developments growing out of the meeting of the Committee of Union and Progress and the Albanian insurgents, as it is understood that the Porte is able to control in most of the demands, submitted by the Albanian insurgents.

The Albanian insurgents, the strong feeling of the Bulgarian populace on account of the Kotschana massacre, it is felt here, is the worst danger. Neither will be appointed. Negotiations between Mulu Halid and General Lyantze, the French resident governor to the end have been arranged.

The sultan has publicly announced his desire to abandon power for reasons of health before he leaves the country, so as to avert the danger of appeal to factionism on the ground that he had been abdicated.

Paris, Aug. 12.—The Marquis de Guerry has been asked to contribute to the fund for the redemption of small objects pledged in the state pawnshops by the poor.

The legacy has its origin in a visit paid one day by the marquis to the chief depot of the Mont de Piete, as the state pawnshop establishment is called in France, where his attention was attracted by a silver christening set, consisting of a knife, fork and spoon such as is given to a child on his baptism or first communion.

The set was tarnished with age and is a ticket showed it had been pawn for half a century.

ABDICATION OF SULTAN OF MOROCCO

To Leave for France Immediately—Wishes Brother to Succeed Him—Reasons of Health

Rabat, Morocco, Aug. 12.—The abdication of Mulu Halid, the Sultan of Morocco, is practically an accomplished fact. He probably will leave Rabat bound for France immediately.

The sultan has publicly announced his desire to abandon power for reasons of health before he leaves the country, so as to avert the danger of appeal to factionism on the ground that he had been abdicated.

Vienna, Aug. 12.—In an interesting article entitled "Impressions of a Physiologist in London," which he contributed to "Imago," a scientific review, Dr. A. Meader, of Zurich, divides the women of England into two classes, which are represented by the extremes of the masculine and the doll-like types.

The impression of a want of womanliness is received everywhere in London. Compare, for instance, two theatrical performances, the one in Paris and the other in London.

Los Angeles, Aug. 12.—It is estimated that at least 100,000 colonists will come here this season. The opportunities and inducements which have brought them heretofore have been materially increased this season.

More small farms have been placed on the market and the general development of the West has been widely advertised in the East.

Railroad officials are optimistic in making their figures upon the colonists and despite the increased fare they are confident that the number of newcomers will be largely increased.

LITTLE GIRL WAS STARVED TO DEATH

Ottario Authorities Investigating Sad End of Orphan Child on Farm Near Sarnia

London, Ont., Aug. 12.—At the instigation of the crown attorney at Sarnia, the police have seized the body of a nine-year-old home girl, the funeral of whom was taking place from the farm house of a man named Parke, one mile from Sarnia where she had been placed.

The child had died as the direct result of sheer starvation and had not been given the slightest medical attention.

A jury, after viewing the remains, adjourned Wednesday night, interesting developments are expected.

Queen's $90,000 Gems Stolen in Portugal

Young Woman Suspected; Traced to Vigo, Where She Embarked for South America

London, Aug. 12.—The Madrid correspondent of the Weekly Dispatch telegraphed that jewelry valued at $90,000 belonging to the late Queen Maria Pia of Portugal has been stolen at a Lisbon hotel from Senor Jose Cruz, who purchased the gems at an auction held recently at the Bank of Portugal, in Lisbon.

The young woman who was staying at Cruz' hotel is suspected. She has been traced to Vigo, where, with her husband, she embarked for South America.
