found in the motorist to get off the great highways into these lanes and byways as to my mind, the greatest charm of the old land. All go to Canterbury many to York, but few to such cathedral cities as Winchester, Rochester, and by not doing so, they miss more than perhaps they think.

SAUNDERS of Edmonton, passed through London on his way home on Saturday. Mr. Saunders and his family resided in London for a short time in his western home. Major Saunders expects to return to London in June for the coronation.
It will be remembered that the Major was one of the Canadian representatives who followed the bier of the late King Edward.
