MORNING NEWS OVER THE WIRES.

Liverpool, England was the scene of a riot yesterday afternoon, when a mob of men fought strikers clashed with the police. One policeman was killed by being struck on the head with a brick and the superintendent of police was taken to the hospital seriously injured. The soldiers were called out and the riot arrested but the rioting continued. Houses were burned and twenty policemen and sixty civilians were injured during the day. The Glasgow Street Car employees have joined the strikers and 2000 London railway men threaten to strike on Saturday next unless their grievances are remedied.

CIVIC MATTERS.

A committee from the board of works will this afternoon meet with Wm. Downie, superintendent of the C. P. R., in the Atlantic division, relative to the widening of Mill street. Progress will be reported and it is expected that a practical plan of work will be decided upon.

Ald. McGoldrick, chairman of the board, will also call a meeting of the committee to consider the complaint of W. H. Thorne regarding the allotting of berths to
