likewise subjected to summary conviction; and a fine not exceeding £5 above the value of the thing stolen, & for a second offence imprisonment and hard labour, with whipping, may be inflicted. Receivers also punishable on failing to give a satisfactory account of how they came by the things stolen. Stealing fruit or vegetables out of gardens is also made punishable in like manner.

By the 7 and 8 Geo. 4, cap. 30 sec. 24, persons wilfully and maliciously committing any damage, injury, or spoil to or upon any real or personal property not specifically provided against, may be summarily convicted before a Justice of the Peace and fined a sum not exceeding £5, by way of compensation. This provision relates to what may be commonly understood by Petty Trespasses.

The last point to which I shall now draw your attention is the remedy provided for Common Assaults by summary conviction, which is a great improvement in a Police regulation. By the Act 9 Geo.
 4, cap. 31, sec. 57, for consolidating and amending the Statutes in England relative to offences against the person, a summary jurisdiction is given to two Justices to fine persons convicted before them of common assaults in a sum not exceeding £5, which by our Local Act is distri-butable one-half to the party grieved and the other half to the Crown, and in default of payment the party may be sentenced to two months imprisonment.

You will, as usual, visit the goal, and should any thing come under your notice requiring the interposition of the Court, any representation you may think proper to make shall receive due consideration.
