Colony, to which they requested the concurrence of the Council.
Resolved, That the said proceeding is without precedent—is inconsistent with that decorum which ought to be observed in the intercourse between independent branches of the same Legislation, and is a breach of the privileges of the Council.

We understand that another Resolution passed the Council discharging the order of the day for the second reading of the above-mentioned Bill.

In reference to this subject, we are informed that both the Council and Assembly have had transmitted to them a copy of a letter from the Secretary of State to the Governor directing him not to assent to any Bill which does not remunerate the Collector and Sub-Collectors of Customs for the extra duties imposed on them by collecting the Colonial Revenue.
The sum (£800) at present allowed for the payment of additional Clerks and Officers.

The following sums have been voted
