Enjoyable Run to Fredericton and Return-Made Good Time

Roy Carritte, of Coburg street, and J. C. Belyea, also of this city, returned Saturday night from an automobile trip to Fredericton. The round trip of 156 miles was done in 10½ hours, actual running time, five hours up and five and a half on the way down. They left here Friday afternoon at three o'clock taking the road to Welsford, thence to South Branch Station, Gerry and Oromocto, where they stopped over night, and proceeded next day to the capital. This they found was the best route.

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 15.—There is considerable activity aboard the schips of the Baltic fieet. The large amount of sailors' baggage is being taken to the new battleship Orel.
