

Examination and Graduation.

All undergraduates shall be required to undergo examinations at the end of Hilary Term in all the subjects of their respective years.

Every undergraduate, previous to presenting himself for an examination, must obtain from each Professor or Lecturer whose lectures he has attended during the term, a certificate of attendance, which shall not be granted without the consent of the Faculty if there be more than three absences during the course of a term.

In order that a candidate may pass in any of the three examinations, he must obtain forty-five per cent. of the marks assigned to each paper.

If an undergraduate fail to pass in more than two subjects at an examination he shall lose his year, but if he fail to pass in two or less, he shall be allowed a supplementary examination in such subject, or subjects, at the beginning of any subsequent year, and not sooner.

Academical Habit.

Bachelors of Civil Law are entitled to wear gowns and hoods. The gowns are of black silk and the hoods of blue silk, trimmed with white fur.

Doctor of Civil Law.

The candidate for this Degree must be a Bachelor of Civil Law of five years' standing, complete. He must have composed a Thesis on some legal subject, to be appointed by the Faculty.
