St. John Mechanics' Institute.

THE Lecture Season of this Institution will commence on Monday the 15th instant, when Professor Rand, of King's College, will deliver the Introductory Address. The Professor will be followed on consecutive Mondays, by a number of talented Gentlemen among whom may be mentioned, (without regard to the order in which they are to lecture, which is not yet fixed,) Rev. Mr. Lawson, Samuel R. Thomson, Esq., Rev. Mr. Wishart, Wm. Wyse, Jun. Esq., Rev. Mr. Churchill, George Blatch, Esq., Rev. Mr. Allison, George N. Smith, Esq., William P. Dole, Esq., James Hogg, Esq., Douglas B. Stevens, Esq. The subjects to be lectured on, and the names of the other lecturers, will be announced on a future occasion.

The Institute possesses now many attractions, of which not the least are the Library, the Reading Room, and the Museum. The Library, which is open every Monday and Friday evening, from 7 to 8 o' clock, contains now over 1800 volumes, in the various departments of Literature, Science, and the Arts, and is constantly receiving large additions. The Reading Room, which is open every evening except Saturday and Sunday, from 7 to 9 o' clock, receives regular supplies of the latest and most popular Magazines and Reviews, and a considerable variety of British, Colonial, and American Newspapers. The Museum, which contains the most extensive collection of the objects of Natural History that can be found in the Colonies, is the admiration of strangers, and is well worthy of the attention of the public.

An Evil to be remedied.—It having come to the knowledge of the Board that Lecturers have heretofore felt great inconvenience and annoyance from the number of applications made for free Tickets: To relieve them from such importunities, and to compel all persons desirous of attending the lectures to pay their fair fee and so get only a limited number of Tickets will be placed at the disposal of the lecturers for distribution among their immediate friends.

Tickets can be obtained from the Secretary, at the Hall of the Institute, every evening during the ensuing week.

Member's Ticket, to admit the Member and two Ladies, 15s.

Non-Member's Ticket to the Lectures, 15s.

Apprentices' Ticket to do., 5s.

Lady's Ticket to do., 5s.

Ladies wishing to avail themselves of the Library may do so by paying 10s. per annum.

Persons wishing to be elected Members of the Institute, may make application to any of the Directors.

WANTED

TWENTY FIVE Active, Industrious and Responsible Men, to sell several New and Valuable BOOKS by subscription, and otherwise, in the British Provinces. Not a copy of the Works has yet been sent there, and the very superior manner in which they are got up, with the high character of the Authors, will enable a smart man with a very small capital to realize from fifty to one hundred dollars profit per month.

Good recommendations as to character and ability will be indispensible. Address (post paid)
