

THE BELLS OF SAINT PAULS.

In London town wags many a tongue,
And nonsense much is spoken;
In London many a fly is told,
And many a promise broken.

But there's a tongue in London town
That tells no lies at all;
And oh! that men gave heed unto
The truths which from it fall!

Solman and deep, with measure tone,
It speaks both night and day—
You hear it both when close at hand
And many miles away.

By day, when all the world's a-roar,
It speaks, though all be talking—
Speaks though not spoken to, and speaks
To resting, running, walking.

By night, when all good folk repose
(Their restless only walking),
It speaks, though not spoken to, and speaks
To resting, running, walking.

Unheeded though its voice resound
Through Middlesex and Surrey—
By folly in a hazy mood,
And all in a hurry.

Still it proclaims to both abroad
"Mid London's bells are ringing,"
"Merrily, merrily, merrily flies apace!
"Merrily is coming!"

Oh! Paul's, thou hast a solemn voice:
Oh! may I never fear it;
But when my life's expiring hour
May I rejoice to hear it!

Never Failing Remedy!
HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.

CHRONIC SORE THROAT AND BRUISES AFTER TEN YEARS SURVIVAL.
Copy of a Letter from Mr. Thomas, Chemist, Liverpool, dated August 20, 1852.

To Professor Holloway,

Dear Sir,—I am called to furnish you with a most extraordinary cure effected by your invaluable Ointment and Pills. I have established every person acquainted with the sufferer. About ten years ago, Mr. W. Cummins, of Salisbury Street, in this town, was thrown from his horse, whereby he received very serious injuries, which he has since recovered very slowly. He has since received your Ointment and Pills, which have now healed his wounds, strengthened his limbs, and enabled him to dispense with his crutches, so that he can walk with the greatest ease, and with renewed health and vigor.

A MOST EXTRAORDINARY CASE OF A HEREDITARY SORE THROAT AND BRUISES AFTER TEN YEARS SURVIVAL.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. W. H. Deane, of Leeds, dated March 16, 1852.

To Professor Holloway,

Sir,—Some time since, one of my children was afflicted with dreadful eruptions over the body and face. I obtained the advice of several eminent Surgeons and Physicians, all of whom the case was considered hopeless. At length, I bought your Ointment and Pills, and without exception, the eruptions quickly disappeared, and the child was restored to perfect health.

I previously lost a child from a similar complaint, and I am truly glad to have seen another child in your hands, and I feel sure that your medicine, should have been saved also. I shall be happy to testify the truth of this to any enquirer of the Ointment and Pills.

(Signed) W. H. DEANE, Leeds.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. J. M. Clifton, of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, dated September 20, 1852.

To Professor Holloway,

Dear Sir,—I am authorized by Mrs. Gibson, of 21, Bailey-street, in this town, to inform you that for a considerable period she has had a most distressing complaint, and is now suffering from a general debility, accompanied with a diarrhoea and great debility of the system. In addition to this she was afflicted with a most distressing complaint, and is now suffering from a general debility, accompanied with a diarrhoea and great debility of the system. In addition to this she was afflicted with a most distressing complaint, and is now suffering from a general debility, accompanied with a diarrhoea and great debility of the system.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. W. Walker & Co., Chemists, dated March 1852.

To Professor Holloway,

Dear Sir,—Among the numerous cures effected by your Ointment and Pills, I have had the opportunity of seeing one of the most remarkable cases of an old lady living in the Villa of Preston, about five miles from this City. She had ulcerated wounds in her leg for many years, and lately she had a most distressing complaint, and is now suffering from a general debility, accompanied with a diarrhoea and great debility of the system.
