J. W. Manning, St. John, N. B. And all money for the denominational work should be sent to Rev. A. Ochoa, Wolfville, N. S. UPPER BLACKVILLE, NORTH CO.—"J. B. M." writes that this section enjoyed a short visit from Rev. O. N. Keith, whose sermons were much enjoyed. The Sunday-schools are well attended.

COLES ISLAND.—The work in 2nd Johnstone church is still prospering. Nearly all the old members have found their places in the work, and souls are enquiring the way to Jesus and to heaven. On Lord's day, 11th inst., we gathered at our beautiful baptistry (viz. Washdemack Lake) and buried with Christ by baptism five rejoicing disciples. Again, on the 18th inst., six others followed in the same way. This makes twenty added by baptism and four on profession of faith; and still the work goes on. To God be all the praise.

S. D. ERYNE.

FIRE GROVE.—On June 4th I baptized five and on the 18th two—all young people, whose early obedience to Christ is a prophesy of great usefulness in the church. The names of those baptized are: Hattie Parker, Rosa Moore, Blanche Beasley, Annie Fenner, Malinda Bates, Minnie Bruce, Mabel Elliott. Others are received for the sacred ordinance and will follow their Lord later. Three very worthy deacons—Bro. J. A. Gates, N. F. Marshall and C. Skinner—have been chosen during the year. The brethren plan to arise and build. The outlook is hopeful. Thus closes my fifth pastoral year.

E. E. LOCKE.

NORTH RIVER, P. E. I.—On Saturday evening, the 28th of May, I baptized two young men into the fellowship of the North River and Clyde River churches.

—Ella Hurry and Sadie Harris. For convenience they were baptized at the North River bridge. Sunday, 29th May, was my last day here. I drove to Bonshaw in the morning; baptized Ada McDougall, preached and gave the hand of fellowship. Drove to Clyde River; preached; gave the hand of fellowship; ordained two deacons—Donald McNevin and Robert A. McPhail—and then administered the Lord's Supper. Presided at North River in the evening; gave the hand of fellowship to three and celebrated the Lord's Supper. Thus closed an eventful day and a happy pastorate of four years. May the Lord bless and feed these loving children of His, in His prayer.

PERSONAL.

Rev. O. K. Harrington and wife expect to return to this country about one year hence.

We are pleased to report that Bro. Manning, secretary-treasurer of Foreign Mission Board, who has been quite ill since the N. S. Western Association, is now improving and hopes to attend some of the associations of July.

We regret to learn that Rev. G. A. Hartley, of Carleton, St. John, is still unable to use his voice for public speaking. The affliction is said to be a partial paralysis of the muscles controlling the vocal organs. Rest is necessary in order to recovery.

Rev. E. H. Jones, formerly of St. John, and family will soon arrive in this country. It is gratifying to know that these missionaries, who are all from these provinces, are doing valuable work abroad, and that they are held in high esteem by the American Baptist Missionary Union, the society with which they are connected.

Rev. F. G. Harrington, wife and daughter of Yokohama, Japan, have returned to Nova Scotia for a rest of two years. Mr. Harrington has been teaching, to some extent, in the Theological Seminary in Yokohama; but his principal work has been translating denominational literature into Japanese. Among the works he has translated are Vedder's Short History of the Baptists; Everett's Concise Comments on Baptism, and Pendleton's Church Manual, with additions from Hineox. These are the first works of a special denominational character the Baptists have translated into Japanese. Other denominations have had numerous works on their distinctive beliefs. Mr. Harrington will, while gathering strength in his native land, continue his studies of the Japanese language and literature and so be ready to continue his important literary work when he returns to his distant home. He is at present in Wolfville, but will soon proceed to Sydney.

The next session of the Albert county quarterly meeting will be held with the Baptist church at Alma, the second Tuesday in July, at 2 p. m., and societies and Sunday-schools are expected to be represented.

B. N. HARRINGTON, Sec. Treas.

A convention of the Woman's Missionary Aid Societies and Mission Bands of Lunenburg county, will be held at Mahone Bay, July 12, 1893. All societies and Mission Bands are requested to send delegates. First session commences at 2 p. m. Delegates please send their names to Lela B. Kennedy, Mahone Bay.

A. M. VERNOTTE, County Secretary.

The next session of the Digby Co. quarterly meeting will be held with the Baptist church at Weymouth, on Tuesday and Wednesday, July 4 and 5. A sermon will be preached on Sunday evening, and Wednesday will be given to reports from the churches, discussion of papers and business. Will all the churches in the county send two or more delegates are appointed to represent them at the meeting?

Deaths.

TINGLEY.—At Middle Sackville, on the 19th inst., Alice Lancelotti, daughter of Josiah J. Tingley, aged one year and eight months.

JEFFERSON.—At New Germany, June 11, John Jefferson, sr., aged 72 years and 11 months. He was a member of the Baptist church for more than 30 years.

ROCKWELL.—At Amherst Shore, June 4, Nettie L., wife of Warren W. Rockwell, and daughter of Moses T. and Catherine Lowe, aged 25 years. Was baptized in 1890 by Rev. G. C. Cooley, and joined the Amherst Shore Baptist church, of which she remained a consistent member till called to join the church above.

CAMPBELL.—Suddenly, at Wood Point, Westmorland Co., on the 15th inst., Jimmie B., relict of the late Capt. Seth Campbell, aged 63 years. For about 40 years he had been a faithful member of the Sackville Baptist church, devoting her best energies to the spiritual welfare of the community, and cultivating the graces which beautify the life of every true follower of Christ. She was a sister of Revs. E. O. and J. L. Read, of Nova Scotia.

HUNT.—At Green Oak, Colchester Co., June 5, John Hunt, aged 59 years. About three years ago he became troubled as to the validity of Roman Catholic baptism, of which he was a subject, though a member of a Protestant church. His search for truth resulted in his professed conversion and obedience, about ten months ago, to that "mould of doctrine which was delivered" (Rom. 1:7). Faith and doctrine brought rest of soul.

BRAYNE.—At Tunket Falls, June 12, Harry C., oldest son of Wentworth Brayne, aged 18 years and 5 months. Brother Brayne is a leading member of the Tunket Baptist church. During the last few years he has frequently been afflicted by the entrance of death into his family circle. But, although dearly loving wife and children, looking to the future, he was able to say, "Thy will be done." Before his death the lad gave evidence that he was trusting in Jesus.

CARTER.—At Brookfield, Colchester Co., June 11th, Anna, beloved wife of A. Carter, aged 40 years. For twenty-two years Sister Carter was a faithful member of the Brookfield church. The last four years of her life were years of suffering, borne with sweet patience. For the kingdom of God she was willing to have remained longer, but the oft-expressed desire "to depart and be with Christ" was the stronger. Appropriate services were held in the church, in which Mr. McKay, Presbyterian minister, assisted.

POOLE.—At Montague Bridge, P. E. I., May 8, Charles M. Poole, aged 64 years. He was a very worthy member of the Montague Baptist church, and was licensed by the church to preach the gospel, for which he had a holy ambition and talent above the average. He would doubtless have given himself up wholly to this service but for sickness. He was stricken with terrible sickness, and was for many years a great sufferer. He has left behind a noble record of endurance for Christ's sake, as he has been through all these years an eloquent preacher of the gospel of patience under severe restriction. May the Lord sustain the faithful wife, now widowed, in her affliction and the children in their loss.

HAMMOND.—Died, at Kingsclear, Apr. 24th, after a severe and protracted illness borne with Christian fortitude, Judah Hammond, at the advanced age of ninety years. Under the ministry of Rev. J. H. Tupper he became a member of the Kingsclear Baptist church, and with Second Kingsclear church at its organization in '59. Characterized by activity and energy, which continued but little impaired until the last two or three years of his life, and having been a leader in every advance movement of the church, a vacancy is felt which will be difficult to fill. An affectionate widow and many descendants remain.

YERXA.—At Gibson, Sunday, June 11, Mrs. A. D. Yerxa, in the 68th year of her age. Our sister was only sick about twenty-four hours, although she has been in poor health for some years, and her death was a severe shock to both relations and friends. She was a member of the Gibson Baptist church, and this is the first death among our membership. The funeral took place on Wednesday morning, and was attended by a large company of sympathizing friends. The body was buried at Kingsclear, where Rev. F. D. Davidson preached a suitable sermon. May the Lord sustain the bereaved husband and children.

HOBBS.—At Central Argyle, June 15, Mrs. M. Hobbs, wife of Herman J. Hobbs, aged 24 years. Sister Hobbs was one of the most earnest and faithful Christian workers it has ever been our pleasure to meet. Some seven or eight years since she was baptized into the Argyle Baptist church, and she has always been remarkably active in every department of church work. She was vice-president of our Young People's Union, and ever ready for any sacrifice or any labor that might advance the cause of Christ. Mrs. Hobbs was one of those rare characters to whom young people naturally look for leadership, and when such a life is consecrated to the service of Jesus, it cannot fail of being a wonderful power for good. Although for some time in poor health, her death was sudden and unexpected. Every one sympathizes with her young husband in this deep sorrow, and as we realize our loss every one in Argyle feels to mourn with those who mourn. But God has done it and it must be right. The angel messenger has plucked a fair sweet rose of early summer; but for many, many days its pure fragrance must linger in the garden of hallowed memories.
