

"I FEEL IT MY DUTY To Give You a Statement In Regard to 'Fruit-a-tives'"

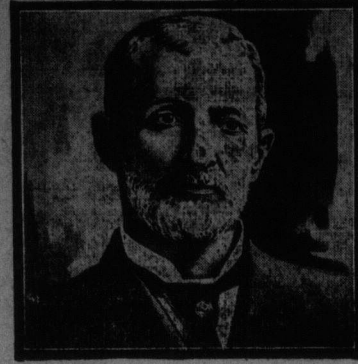

Hardwicke, Miramichi, N. B., Jan. 17th, 1910.

"I feel it my duty to give to you the world an unsolicited statement in respect to the wonderful cure I received by taking 'Fruit-a-tives.' Chronic Constipation was the complaint I suffered with for years. My general health was miserable as a result of this disease, and I became depressed and alarmed. I was treated by physicians without the slightest permanent benefit, and I tried all kinds of pills and tablets but nothing did me any good.

I saw the strong testimonial in favor of 'Fruit-a-tives' by New Brunswick's 'Grand Old Man,' the Hon. John Costigan, and I knew that anything he stated was honest and true and given only to help his fellow-men. I tried 'Fruit-a-tives' and the effects were most marvellous, and now I am entirely well from all my Chronic Constipation that I suffered from for so many years. My general health is once more excellent and I cannot say too much to express my thanks for the great benefits derived from taking 'Fruit-a-tives.'"

A. G. WILLISTON.

'Fruit-a-tives' is not gotten up by druggists or expert chemists—who know nothing about disease and the needs of the human body—but is the scientific discovery of a well known physician, and is the only medicine in the world made of fruit juices. ### MONCTON

Moncton, Sept. 23.—St. John's Presbyterian church was the scene of a very pretty wedding at one o'clock Wednesday, when Miss Winifred Girvan, of this city, was united to Mr. Ira Davis, of Sumner & Co. The church was beautifully decorated with cut flowers, potted plants and ferns for the happy event, and the ceremony which was performed by Rev. Donald Macdonald, pastor of St. John's church, was witnessed by a large number of friends. The bride was becomingly attired in a suit of pale lavender broadcloth with Persian trimmings of velvet, wearing a picture hat with gold crown. She was unattended and was given away by her uncle, Mr. John L. McLaren. Mrs. Irvine Malcolm presided at the organ during the ceremony and played Lohengrin's wedding march. The ushers were Mr. H. S. Thomson and Mr. Harold Cole.

Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Davis, Sussex, father and mother of the groom; Mr. C. T. White, Sussex; Mrs. Tapley, Mr. L. Tapley, Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Price, Mr. E. Givran, Misses Mary and Ada Tapley, St. John; Mrs. Ralph Robertson, Sussex; Dr. and Mrs. White, Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Smith, Mr. W. Rippey, Miss Rippey, Miss Emmerson, Misses Emma and Jennie Price, the Misses Marks, Miss Girvan, Miss Hal Jones, Miss Grace Harris, Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Jones.

After a wedding dinner the happy couple left by the Ocean Limited for a three weeks' honeymoon trip to New York, Boston, Montreal, Toronto, Buffalo and other Canadian and American cities. On their return Mr. and Mrs. Davis will reside in Moncton.

The Central Methodist church was the scene of one of the prettiest weddings of the season, when Miss Margaret May, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Atkinson, was united on Wednesday evening to Mr. Burton L. Gerow, barrister, of St. John. The church was beautifully decorated for the happy event by girl friends of the bride, the most noticeable feature being an arch of evergreens dotted with white asters and hydrangeas. The choir screen was banked with potted ferns and palms, and cut flowers and potted plants were tastefully arranged in the rostrum.

The ceremony took place at 7 o'clock and was performed by Rev. J. L. Batty in the presence of a large number of guests, the church being filled to overflowing with friends who had assembled to witness the nuptials. As the bride was taken to the altar by her father, by whom she was given away, the choir of the church sang Wagner's bridal chorus from Lohengrin and "The Voice that Breathed O'er Eden." Mr. Knight, the organist played several selections while the guests were assembling, and improvised softly, throughout the ceremony, concluding with Mendelssohn's Wedding March.

The bride wore a rich ivory gown with carmine and wide band trimming of pearl crystal and Irish lace. The bride carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley and bracken ferns. Miss Minnie Gerow, sister of the groom, who was bridesmaid, wore a gown of yellow chiffon cloth over yellow satin and trimmings of gold and crystal, wearing a black picture hat and carried yellow chrysanthemums. Little Miss Hazel Atkinson, sister of the bride, who was maid of honor, looked dainty in pink muslin and she carried sweet peas. Mr. W. D. Atkinson, brother of the bride, supported the groom. The ushers were A. S.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, 50 Gordon street, and a recherche luncheon was served. The house was prettily decorated with yellow and white flowers for the occasion, while in the dining room the color scheme was green and white. The bride table was adorned with beautiful silver candelabra with shades of pink with silver deposit, the candelabra being a gift of the Central Methodist church, of which the bride was a valued member.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerow left on the Maritime express last night for the upper provinces, on a wedding trip and will return via New York to St. John where they will reside. The bride's going-away gown was French blue cheviot with blouse of pailsey net and she wore a Gage hat of blue.

Most of the selling was based on rumors that a considerable amount of cotton, estimated at from 25 to 50,000 bales was hoarded this way for delivery on the September contract.

These could not be confirmed but an increase in the certificated stock for the first time in months to 39,000 bales had a distinct sentimental influence. The movement of the crop also appeared to have begun upon a more liberal scale, even although the usual weekly figures made a rather bullish comparison. There were brought into sight for the week 321,392 bales against 365,213 last year and 931,000 in 1907. In the season the figures are 719,681 bales, 937,708 and 931,365 respectively. Weather conditions as reflected by the official map remained satisfactory.
