His Honor JUDGE HILL, and a crowded assembly of ladies and gentlemen interested in the affairs of the Society.

The Right Revd. PRESIDENT took the Chair shortly after 7 o'clock, and invited those present to join in singing the 100th Psalm.

The Ven. The Archdeacon read Prayers.

His Lordship the PRESIDENT then briefly stated the object of the Meeting, and called upon the Secretary to read the following REPORT.

The rapid flight of another year brings again together, in the good Providence of God, the friends of the DIOCESAN CHURCH SOCIETY OF NOVA-SCOTIA. The Members of the Society, resident in the City, rejoice in being permitted to greet their friends and fellow-labourers from the different districts of the Country, and trust to hearing from their mouths the gladdening testimony, that the blessing of the Lord has prospered them in the work, in which they are engaged for His glory and the advancement of his Church upon Earth.

It is a matter of regret to the Members of this Society, resident in Town, that they are not permitted to welcome a larger number of Clerical and Lay Delegates at this Anniversary. Yet it is a matter of rejoicing, that there now remains scarcely an exception to the existence of Local Committees throughout the Province; and that the whole body of the Church in this Diocese may now be regarded as engaged in the same work, and doing what they can to promote, by united operation, the great cause which is committed to the Church's care.

Since our last Anniversary, the Committee at Bridgetown, formed at an early period of this Society's existence, has been re-organized under favourable circumstances; and the Rev. Charles Elliot has announced the formation of a Committee at Pictou, from which the Society may look for active co-operation.

The Committee would now bespeak the attention of their friends, assembled at this their Seventh Anniversary, to a few details relating to Income, Expenditure and Operations.

INCOME.

HALIFAX.—The urgent appeals made by some of our friends at the last Annual Meeting, and the example of some Parishes in the Country, produced the effect of bringing many additional members to the Society in Halifax, particularly from among the families of those who had already
