CHAMBERLAIN ON COLLEGES ST. MARTINS NEEDS RELIEF.

Eulogizes American and Can- Rain Drowned Out the Forest Close of the University Celeadian Institutions.

Fires Which

ENCIRCLED THE PLACE,

But Not Before Considerable Damage Was Done--The Destitute of the Town Are Greatly in Need of Assistance -- Appeals to Be

ABSOLUTE PROHIBITION.

Premier McDonald's Bill Provides Heavy

Penalties in Manitoba.

ald's liquor bill provides for the prohibi-tion of the sale of liquor within the prov-

Heavy penalties are provided.

the building.

ince of Manitoba for one year from today.

Paris Exposition.

Paris, May 31-5.15 p. m.-The American publishers' building of the exposition was opened by the United States ambassador, General Horace Porter, today. A big gathering of Americans was present. Great in-terest was taken in the production of the Sudden disease, like a thief in the night. is apt to strike confusion into a household-

Winnipeg, May 31-Premier MacDon

ENGLAND BEHIND

In Institutions for the Preparation of Men for Great Commercial Struggles--Praises the Liberality of Wealthy Americans in Endow-

London, May 31-The secretary of state meeting of the University of Birmingham, referred to Andrew Carnegie's magnificent donation to the university and to the report of the deputation which, at Mr. Carnegie's suggestion, had visited the great colleges of the United States and Canada. That report, he added, showed how it was that Great Britain was behind hand in preparation for the imminent great struggle of commercial competition between nations. He eulogized the splendid system and equipment of the American and Canada control of the deadly work of Wednesday would be added to in the destruction of more of the deputation of more of the town. But this did not happen, no more buildings were destroyed but the loss in the deadly work of Wednesday would be added to in the destruction of more of the town. But this did not happen, no more buildings were destroyed but the loss in the deadly work of Wednesday would be added to in the destruction of more of the town. But this did not happen, no more buildings were destroyed but the loss in the deadly work of Wednesday would be added to in the destruction of more of the town. But this did not happen, no more buildings were destroyed but the loss in the deadly work of Wednesday would be added to in the destruction of more of the town. But this did not happen, no more buildings were destroyed but the loss in the deadly work of Wednesday would be added to in the destruction of more of the town and its famous intory of Fredericton, and its famous intory o tions. He eulogized the splendid system and equipment of the American and Cana-dian colleges, saying it was the outcome of the great liberality of the wealthy classes across the Atlantic and carnestly ap-pealed for initiation and emulation here.

OTTAWA NEWS.

French Translators Wanted-Officers of the Ottawa, May 31—(Special)—At a meeting to consider the situation and take what steps they might to secure the situation and felicitations were exchanged on every hand. The university celebration was relegated to second place celebration was relegated to second place to toward recovery from the effects of the debates of the Commons. The present staff do not seem equal to the work and this step is being taken to get the translations kept up to time.

Yesterday the residents of St. Martins gratulations and felicitations were exchanged on every hand. The university changed on every hand it is university contained to second place celebration was relegated to second place celebration was relegated to second place celebration and little but the great discussed.

In many of our plans we have our friends to help us; some to draw a sketch of the plan, others to help us in popular opinion and little but the great celebration was relegated to second place celebration and felicitations were exchanged on every hand. The university changed on every ha tonight concludes the meeting.

The officers elected were: President, Dr.

The customs returns received up to noon today at the department here shows that the amount collected for the present month was $2,231,183 as compared with month was $2,231,183 as compared $2,162,657 for May, 1889, or an increase of

PRELIMINARY RUN.

The New Russian Cruiser Built by Cramps Tested.

Lewes, Del., May 31—The Russian cruiser Varig, which left Cramps' shipyard on Tuesday for her builders' trial, arrived at the Deleware Breakwater at 11 o'clock this morning, after a thirty-hour run at sea to Shinnecock, L. I. This run was taken to drill the men and also to guage the efficiency of the new style Nictausse boilers. Everything aboard the ship worked in a satisfactory manner, the boilers par-ticularly being efficient, maintaining enough power to drive the ship over 21 knots with checked hatural draught. It is knot and a half to the above speed under full natural draught for an indefinite per-

WOMEN AND A HORSEWHIP.

Thrashed a Man and Tried to Throw Him from a Window.

New York, May 31—Edna Benn, a woman 40 years old, who lives at 429 Fifth avenue, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry L. Brooks, her friends, were arrested today on accusations that they are the persons who committed an assault on August Meyers at 12.20 this an assault on August Meyers at 12.30 this morning. Miss Benn told the police she had norsewhipped Meyers because he had slandered her. Mr. and Mrs. Brooks, she said, accompanied her entirely to see fair play.

About 11 o'clock last night a man and told the police the names of his assailants and today's arrests followed.

RAILWAY BILL PASSED

For the Construction of a Line Between Toronto and Georgian Bay.

Ottawa, May 31-The Canadian National Railway bill, which is for the construction Bay and which has engaged the attention of the railway committee for four or five meetings, was put through today. It was finally adopted on a vote of 47 for to 25 against An amendment to permit the governmen to expropriate was defeated.

FARM HOUSE DYNAMITED.

The Place Wrecked and Six People Killed.

Chilton, Wis., May 31-A dynamite explosion in the house of August Broehm, near Forest Junction today, killed six per-

The dead: William Broehm, Mrs. William Broehm, three Brochm children, John Stebbins, hm was a wealthy farmer. It is not known what caused the explosion.

A GRAND FINISH.

bration Turned Into a

PATRIOTIC AFFAIR.

Fredericton Organized a Celebration Which Monopolized Attention--Corner Stone of the Science Building Laid -- Reception and Ball.

ing the course of his speech today, at the meeting of the University of Birmingham, in the wooded districts around St. anartims were needed to put me and energy into the closing day of a celebration that into the closing day of a celebration that into the closing day of a celebration that the deadly work of Wednesday would be must ever remain memorable in the history of the later than the wooded and our investment into the closing day of a celebration that the deadly work of Wednesday would be must ever remain memorable in the history of the later than the wooded and our investment into the closing day of a celebration that the deadly work of Wednesday would be ning storm was over the town and it was accompanied by a deluge of rain. What accompanied by a deluge of rain. What otherwise might not have been so welloome, was gladly seen by the population who feared that Wednesday's awfal experience might be duplicated, because of the extent of the fires in the woods. The rain, however, prevented all danger of a spread of the blaze. In fact, a telephone message was received by The Telegraph at 10 o'clock last night announcing that the rain had put the fire out.

Yesterday the residents of St. Martins held a meeting to consider the situation and official nature. There was a general feeling that perhaps the university celebration was a little too long drawn out, and that breathing space had hardly been given the visitors or c.tizens, for in addition to the functions of a public character, private hospitality had been lavished with a generous hand. Up to 10 o'clock us night announcing that the rain had put the fire out.

Yesterday the residents of St. Martins held a meeting to consider the situation of the functions and felicitations were expensed. And Alexander, waking from his dream, told this to the physician, and the physician wandered out upon his wound and that immediately it was cured. And Alexander, waking from his dream, told this to the physician, and the physician wandered out upon his wound and that immediately it was cured. And Alexander, waking from his dream, told this to the physician and the physician wandered out until he found just the kind of plant which the sick man had described, brought it to him, and the would was healed. Well, the human race had been hurt with the ghastlithe physician and the dreamed that that plant was put upon his wound and that immediately it was cured. And Alexander, waking from his dream, told this to the physician, and the physician wandered man that immediately it was cured. And Alexander, waking from his dream, told this to the physician wandered man that immediately it was cured. And Alexander, waking from his dream, told that the physician wandered man type in the physician wandered man to put upon translations kept up to time.

The Royal Society of Canada elected its officers today and completed all business connected with this year's meeting. The lecture by Dr. Howard, of Washington.

Mr. W. E. Skinen, secretary; Mr. William decorated, and the majority of the residences made an excellent showing of flags and bunting. All day long the streets were and carriages decked with the national colors flashed here, there and bers of the committee.

It was decided to make a general appropriate the majority of the residences made an excellent showing of flags and bunting. All day long the streets were converted with the patient of the residences made an excellent showing of flags and bunting. All day long the streets were national colors flashed here, there and burting the following of the residences made an excellent showing of flags and bunting. All day long the streets were not converted with the patient of the residences made and excellent showing of flags and bunting. All day long the streets were not converted with the patient of the residences made an excellent showing of flags and bunting. All day long the streets were not converted with the patient of the residences made an excellent showing of flags and bunting. All day long the streets were not converted with the patient of the residences made an excellent showing of flags and bunting. All day long the streets were not converted with the patient of the residences made an excellent showing of flags and bunting. All day long the streets were not converted with the majority of the residences made an excellent showing of flags and bunting. All day long the streets were not converted with the patient of the residences made an excellent showing of flags and bunting. All day long the streets were not converted with the patient of the residence of the patient of the residence of the patient of It was decided to make a general appeal for assistance. It was estimated that at least $6,000 will be needed immediately for pressing necessities for some 30 families. The omeers elected were: President, Dr. Lou-louis Frechette; vice-president, Dr. Lou-don; secretary, Sir John Bourinot; treas-are homeless and destitute. Money is prin-gladness.

less.

It was decided to address appeals to the provincial government, and to the city of St. John through Mayor Daniel. This will be done today by Secretary Skillen.

Yesterday Mr. William Shaw, M. P. P., brought to the burned town a load of flour which was most acceptable.

As near as could be calculated last night the insurance on buildings burned was As near as could be calculated last night the insurance on buildings burned was about $14,000. W. E. Skillen had $800; David Vaughan, $1,000; Nathaniel McClelan were among the callers of the Cumber, $500; S. V. Skillen, $700; Robert afternoon, as were also all the St. John McCutcheon, $600; William Smith, $1,000; McCutcheon, $600; William Smith, $1,000; John Burchill, $600, all in the Western.

Mrs. Jane Ingraham had $500, in the Union and Ingr Mrs. Jane Ingranam nad $000, in the Union, and David Brown, $200 in the Commercial Union; David McLeod had $300, S. V. Skillen $2,000, and the Driving Park laying the corner stone was over. Bands hall $300, all in the Manchester; Captain Carson had $2,000 in the Phoenix of Hartford; David Smith had $2,000, Mrs. Smith During Mrs. Harrison's reception the (piano) $200; Robert Brown, $300; all in the Sun. efforts to make the occasion agreeable. The O'Neill Lumber Company, it is The O'Neill Lumber Company, it is estimated, lost 300,000 feet of lumber. This is insured in the Imperial and will represent $2.400. The Imperial had the inmuch later when the ceremony took place. sent $2,400. The Imperial had the insurance ($7,000) on lumber owned by W. Copies of the Fredericton papers, the University Calendar and a few M. McKay.

Messre. R. W. W. Frink and F. R were placed beneath the stone.

Messrs. R. W. W. Frink and F. R. Butcher of the Western Company, will go Mrs. McClelan, wife of the lieutenant governor, had declared it "Well and truly laid," Chancellor Harrison and Mr. Fairweather made a few remarks, the band played God Save the Queen, and just as the crowd was dispersing rain began to fall heavily. The weather has been scorchingly hot during the last day or two and the shower came as a welcome relief.

It did not matter here yesterday after noon that news of Pretoria's surrender was a trifle premature, the town antici pated the actual happening by a day-perhaps an hour or two. A half-holiday was proclaimed and all places of busines were closed. Everybody was ready for the celebration and the rejoicing went on The new fife and drum band was out in full force and the air was filled with such sights and sounds as have become familiar to us since the victories of the Transvaal war have been coming thick and fast.

A fitting close to the magnificent university centennial celebration was the ball given tonight at that institution. Seven hundred guests were present, among whom were included members of the House of Assembly, their wives and daughters. The building is beautifully decorated throughout, national colors prevailing. Dancing and extras.

Notable Fossil Found.

New York, May 31-The vertebrae of giant mammal, estimated to have been at least 100 feet long, have been discovered near Grassey Point, along the margin of the Thoroughfare Meadows, opposite against him. He had not come to Ventnor. Three pieces of the gigantic skeleton have been dug up. Each of these cumference, and weighs 40 pounds. incal nap. The lovely blossom of immortality consecuted the some immense mammal, which found its some immense mammal, which found its last resting place in the New Jersey in.

Instead of an engagement ring the Japanese lover gives his sweetheart a last resting place in the New Jersey piece of beautiful silk for her sash.

Instead of an engagement ring the Japanese lover gives his sweetheart a piece of beautiful silk for her sash.

Clara Olding, librarian; Dr. J. W. Daniel, curator of museum.

THE END OF THE DAY. FOUND THE MASTER'S WORK WELL

Washington, May 27. - In this discourse Dr. Talmage shows in an un-usual way the antagonisms that Christ overcame and finds a balsam for all wounded hearts; text, John xvii, 4, "I have finished the work the city was most spontaneous in its gladness.

The event of yesterday afternoon was don; secretary, Sir John Bourinot; treasurer, Dr. Fletcher.

Telegrams were received from Rev.

Fred Scott. Quebec; Mr. H. S. Poole, Stellarton. N. S.; and J. S. Williston,
Toronto, expressing thanks for honor conferred in electing them fellows of society.

The customs returns received up to room. cal faculties. Through high, hard, dry, husky, insensate Judaism to hew a way for a new and glorious dispensation was a stupendous undertaking that was enough to demand all the concentrated energies even of

In his father's shop no more intercourse was necessary than is ordinarily necessary in bargaining with men that have work to do; yet Christ with hands hard from use of tools of trade, was called forth to become a public speaker, to preach in the face of mobs, while some wept and some shook their fists and some gnashed shabby, for after he had worn it a long while the gamblers thought it worth railing about, but still it was decorated with flags, cut flowers and fact that he was not regularly gradlamps. The grounds were beautifully decorated and lighted. The order of dances come with the diplomas of colleges and schools and theological seminar were as follows: Waltz, lancers, two-step, waltz, Militaire, waltz, two-step, waltz, two-step, waltz, two-step, waltz, two-step, travel, the world is disposed to listravel, the world is disposed to listravel, the world is disposed to listravel, the world is disposed to listravel. Waltz, lancers, twoten. But here was a man who had graduated at no college, had not in with the usual number of supper dances any academy by ordinary means learned the alphabet of the language he spoke, and yet he proposed talk, to instruct in subjects wh had confounded the mightiest intel-lects. John says: "The Jews mar-which thou gavest me to do."

There is a profound satisfaction in the completion of anything we have undertaken. We lift the capstone with exultation, while, on the other hand, there is nothing more disappointing than after having toiled in a certain direction to find that our Yesterday fire continued to rage in the wooded districts around St. Mar-thing were needed to put life and energy time is wasted and our investment er does he set his foot in the towns upon him with their teeth and many wanted him out of the way. To address orderly and respectful assemblages is not so casy as it may seem, force and more concentration to adcress an exasperated mob. The villagers of Nazareth heard the pounding of his hammer, but all the wide reaches of eternity were to hear the stroke of his spiritual upbuilding. else struggle to get into his arms, and to kiss his cheek, and to run were against him. The mighty men of Christ's time did not appear in apparel without trinkets and adora-None of the Caesars would have appeared in citizen's apparel. fessed king, who always were the same coat. Indeed, it was far from far from being an imperial robe. It was a coat that any ordinary man kingdom of heaven."

Again I remark there was no orpenniless projector, lest a loan be demanded. It requires money to print books, to build institutions, to pay books, to build institutions, to pay instructors. No wonder the wise men of Christ's time laughed at this penniless Christ. "Why," they said, "who is to charter the ships to carry the mission raise." Who is to charter the ships to carry the missionaries? Who is to pay the salaries of the teachers? Shall wealthy, established religion be discom-fited by a penniless Christ?" The con-sequence was that most of the people that followed Christ had nothing to was in the assembly room, for which Winters' orchestra is supplying fine music. The guests were received by Mrs. J. D. Hazen, Mrs. L. W. Bailey, and Mrs. H. S. Bridges. Mr. J. D. Hazen, president of the alumni, by whom the ball is given, is assisting the ladies. Many beautiful gowns were worn and the representation of St. John ladies was large, and some splendid toilets were worn by them. Supper was served down stairs and the tables were decorated with flags, cut flowers and shall be prolonged in everlasting chorals he declared, "I have finished the work which thou gavest me to of nature. The sea is a crystal sep-ulcher. It swallowed the Central velled, saying, How hath this man America, the President and the Spanletters, having never learned?"

So also the brevity of his life was ish armada as easily as any fly that ever floated on it. The inland lakes are fully as terrible in their wrath. me of us who have sailed on it

Soldiers of the Italian army are allowed bones is 13 inches long, 40 inches in cirknow that Lake Galilee, when arous yet that sea crouched in his presence what we call midlife. But very few and licked his feet. He knew all men do anything before 33 years of the waves and the wind. When he age, and yet that was the point at thich Christ's life terminated. beckoned, they came. When he frowned, they fled. The heel of his foot made no indentation on the sol-GO THOU AND DO LIKEWISE. Which Christ's life terminated. The first 15 years you take in a nursery and school. Then it will take you six years to get into your occupation or profession. That will bring you to 21 years. Then it will take you ten years at least to get established in your life work correcting the mississipport. idified water. Medical science has wrought great changes in rheumatic limbs and diseased blood, but when the muscles are entirely withered no human power can restore them, and when a limb is once dead it is dead. takes you have made. If any man at But here is a paralytic—his hand lifetess. Christ says to him, "Stretch forth thy hand," and he stretches it 33 years of age gets fully established in his life work he is the exception vity." This young man responded, "Blessed are they that mourn." Public opinion in those days said, "Blessed is the Roman eagle, the flap of whose wing startles nations and the plunge of whose iron beak inflicts eye for an eye, a tooth for a tooth."

hem of his garment." Children who love their mother better than any one that was all.

Notwithstanding

Yet that is the point at which Christ's life terminated. Men in military life have done their most wonderful deeds before 23 years In the eye infirmary how many diseases of that delicate organ have been cured? But Jesus says to one blind, "Be open!" and the light of of age. There may be exceptions to it, but the most wonderful exploits heaven rushes through gates that have never before been opened. The frost or an ax may kill a tree, but Jesus smites one dead with a word. in military prowess have occurred be-fore 33 years of age. But as a legislator — no man becomes eminent as a legislator until he has had long years of experience. And yet the gray bearded scribes were expected to bow down in silence before this young legislator who arraigned sanhedring and accused governments. Chemistry may do many wonderful things, but what chemist at a wedding when the wine gave out could change a pail of water into a cask of wine? What human voice could command a school of fish? Yet here is hedrins and accused governments.
Popular opinion declared in those days, "Blessed is the merchant who days, "Blessed is the merchant who has a castle down on the banks of Lake Tiberias." This young man said, "Blessed are the poor." Popular opinion said in those days, "Blessed are those who live amid statuary and fountains and gardens and congratulations and all kinds of festivity." This young man responded. a voice that marshals the scaly tribes, until in a place where they had let down the net and pulled it up with no fish in it they let it down again, and the disciples lay hold and began to pull, when by reason of the multitude of fish the net broke. Nature is his servant. No man could go through all the obstacles I have described, you say, without having a nature supernatural. In that arm, amid its muscles and nerves and bones, were inter-twisted the energies of omnipotence. cruelty upon its enemies." This young man responded, "Blessed are the merciful." Popular opinion said, "An In the syllables of that voice there was the emphasis of the eternal God. That foot that walked the deck of, the ship in Gennesaret shall stamp In other words, if a man knocks your eye out knock his out. If a man breaks your tooth break his. Retort kingdoms of darkness into demoli-This poverty struck Christ owned Augustus, owned the sanhefor retort, sarcasm for sarcasm, irony for irony, persecution for persecution, wound for wound. (Arist said, "Pray for them that despitefuldrin, owned Tiberias, owned all the castles on its beach and all the skies that looked down into its water, owned all the earth and all the heavly use you." They looked at his eye. It was like any other man's eye, exens. To him of the plain coat belonged the robes of celestial royalty. cept perhaps more speaking. They felt his hand, made of bone and He who walked the road to Emmaus the lightnings were the fire shod steeds of his chariot. Yet there are muscle and nerves and flesh, just like any other hand. Yet what bold treatment of subjects, what supernathose who look on and see Christ turn water into wine, and they say, "It was sleight of hand!" And they see Christ raise the dead to life, and tural demands, what strange doc-trine! They felt the solid earth under them, and yet Christ said, "I bear up the pillars of this world." They looked at the moon. He said, "I will turn it into blood." They looked at the sea. He said, "I will hush it." They looked at the stars. hush it." They looked at the stars. He said, "I will shake them down like untimely firs." Did ever one so der them, and yet Christ said, "I bear up the pillars of this world."

They looked at the moon. He said, "I will turn it into blood." They intimely figs." Did ever one so in judgment and the hills shall rock young say things so bold? It was peal? In the time of Theodosius the Great there was a great assault made upon the divinity of Jesus all against him.

I imagine Christ one day standing I imagine Christ one day and in the streets of Jerusalem. A man descended from high lineage is standing baside him and says: "My father ing beside him and says: "My father was a merchant prince. He had a castle on the beach in Galilee. Who was your father?" Christ answers,
"Joseph, the carpenter." A man from Athens is standing there unroll-

Christ, and during that time Theodosius the Great called his own son the empire, and one day the old bishop came and bowed down before the court ordered that Theodosius, the Emperor, and passed ing his parchment of graduation and says to Christ, "Where did you go to out of the room, and the Emperor was ofended, saying to the old bishop, "Why didn't you pay the same honor to my son, who shares with nonor to my son, who shares with me in the Government?" Then the old bishop turned to the young man and said, "The Lord bless thee, my young man," but still paid him. school?" Christ answers, "I never graduated." Aha, the idea of such an unheralded young man attempting to command the attention of the world! As well some little fishing village on Long Island shore attempt to arraign New York. Yet no soonyoung man," but still paid him no such honor as he had paid to the Emperor. And the Emperor was still offended and displeased, when or cities of Judaea than everything the old bishop turned to Theodosius the Great and said to him, "You are offended with me because I don't pay is in commotion. The people go out on a picnic, taking only food enough for a day, yet are so fascinated with Christ that at the risk of starving they follow him out into the wilderthe same honor to your son whom you have made copartner in the Government of this Empire, the same ness. A nobleman falls down flat becourage multitudes of people in your realm to deny the Son of God equal authority, equal power, with God the honor I pay to you, and yet you enfore him and says, "My daughter is dead." A beggar tries to rub the dimness from his eyes and says, "Lord, that my eyes, may be opened." A poor, sick, panting woman presses through the crowd and says, "I must touch the

My subject also reassures us of the fact that in all our struggles we have a sympathizer. You cannot tell Christ anything new about hardship. I do not think that wide ages of eternity will take the scars from their fingers through his hair, and for all time putting Jesus so in love with the little ones that there is ha temples and his sore hands. You will never have a burden weighing so many pounds as that burden Christ carried up the bloody hill. You will with the little ones that there is hardly a nursery in Christendom from which he does not take one, saying: "I must have them. I willnever have any suffering worse than he endured, when with tongue hot and cracked and inflamed and swolfill heaven with these, for every ced-ar that I plant in heaven I will len he moaned, "I thirst." You will never be surrounded by Worse hostility than that which stood have 50 white lilies. In the hour when I was a poor man in Judaea they were not ashamed of me, and reviling, livid with rage, hownow that I have come to a throne I ling down his prayers, and snuffing up the smell of blood. O ye faint hearted, O ye troubled, O ye do not despise them. Hold it not back, O weeping mother! Lay it on my warm heart. Of such is the persecuted one, here is a heart that can sympathize with you!

Again, and lastly, I learn from all that has been said to-day that Christ ganization in his behalf, and that was against him. When men propose any great work, they band together, they write letters of agreement, they take oaths of fealty, and not been a momentous mission he would have turned back from it disgusted and discouraged. He saw you the more complete the organization the more and more complete the suc-cess. Here was one who went forth solved to extricate you, though it without any organization and alone. If men had a mind to join in his blood. He came a great way to save you. While it will take all the company, all right; if they had a ages of eternity to celebrate Christ's triumph, I am here to make the mind not to join in his company, all well. If they came, they were greet-ed with no loud salutation; if they startling announcement that because of the rejection of this mission on the went away, they were sent with no part of some of you all that magnifi-cent work of garden and cross and bitter anathema. Peter departed, and Christ turned and looked at him, grave is, so far as you are concerned, a failure. Helena, the empress, went to the Holy Land to find the cross of All this was against him. Did any Christ. Getting to the Holy Land there were three crosses excavated, and the question was, which of the crosses was Christ's cross. They took one ever undertake such an enterprise amid such infinite embarrassments and by such modes? And yet I am here to say it ended in acomplete dead body, tradition says, and put worldly occupation, his poverty, his it upon one of the crosses, and there plain face, his unpretending garb— the fact that he was schoolless, the fact that he had a brief life, the fact vas no life, and they took the dead body and put it upon another cross, and there was no life. But, traditthat he was not accompanied by any visible organization—notwithstandion says, when the dead body was put up against the third cross, it ing all that in an exhilaration which sprang into life. The dead man lived again. Oh, that the life giving powagain. Oh, that the life giving power of the Son of God might dart your dead soul into an eternal life, begin-

The medical Society has elected Dr. J. R. McIntosh president; Dr. W. L. Ellis, vice-president; Dr. G. B. Melvin, secremercy and divine justice would incline?

BAD COMPLEXIONS RED ROUGH HANDS

PHILIPPINE AFFAIRS.

General McArthur Reports More Small Surrenders.

Washington, May 31-The following de today, from General McArthur at Manil Small surrenders continue departme. of Northern Luzon. Corino, fugitive governor Benguet, Rich, active friend of A ernor Benguet, Rich, active friend of A; uinaldo, captured yesterday near Kabayas important. While scouting near San Miguel De Mayumo (Luzon), May 29, Captain Charles D. Roberts, Privates John A. McIntyre and Lyel W. Aken were captured; Sergeant John Gallen; Privates Joseph McCourt and John A. Green, killed; George Kinger, wounded, thigh; all of Company 1, 35th U. S. V.

Manila, May 31—A number of rifles have been surrendered at Cuyapo and more are expected.

The fugitive governor of Benguet, prov-ince, a rich, influential and devoted friend of Aguinaldo, was captured at Allit yes

Grant and Funston have sent detaments in pursuit of the insurgents warushed the town of San Miguel De Mary umo near here, Tuesday, killed five Am 1 icans, wounded seven and captured ('aptain Roberts of the 35th infantry, and enlisted men.

A NEELY INCIDENT.

Printing Plant Authorized to Resum Business.

Indianapolis, May 31-The plant of the on an attachment of the government, on the ground that Charles F. W. Neely has to sit on the throne with him and be a copartner in the Government of ed to resume business by the United

The court ordered that the presses be kept running and the workmen employed until the appraisement is completed. Judge Baker, in delivering his orders, said to the United States marshal: "Have

Ottawa, May 31-The supreme court concluded today the hearing of appeals for the May session, and adjourned until Tuesday, June 12, for delivery of judg-

Another 10 Heard From

THE ST. JOHN

Intercolonial Railway On and after Sunday, January 14, 1900, train will run Daily (Sunday excepted) as follows: Trains Will Leave St. John. Suburban for Hampton, -

Express for Campbellton, Pugwash, Pictou and Halifax, -Express for Halifax, New Glargow and Pictou, - - - Express for Sussex, -

Express for Sussex,

Express for Quebec and Montreal,

Accommodation for Moncton, Truro, Halifax and Sydney, - 22.10

A sleeping car will be attached to the train leaving St. John at 17.30 o'clock for Queber and Montreal. Passengers transfer at Moncton.

A sleeping car will be attached to the train leaving St. John at 22.10 o'clock for Halifax.

Vestibule, Dining and Sleeping Cars on the Trains Will Arrive at St. John. Suburban from Hampton, - 7.1 Express from Sussex. - . . 8.30 Express from Montreal and Quebec,

Express from Halifax, -Accommodation from Moneton, -All trains are run by Eastern Standard time. D. POTTINGER

General Manager. Moneton, N. B., Jan. 12, 1900.

CITY TICKET OFFICE: 7 King Street. St. John, N. B.

Life and Labors of D. L. Moody is now ready, and we are prepared to fill orders at once. This is a charmingly writ-ten volume, covering the whole field of Moody's life from the cradle to the grave, er of the Son of God might dart your dead soul into an eternal life, beginning this day! "Awake, thou that sleepest, and rise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee life!" Live now! And live forever!

England has a million soldiers in India.

If the whole brute creation, driven by a frenzy of desperation, should rise in revolt against its tyrant man, what feeling heart can doubt to which side heavenly mercy and divine justice would incline?