The rumor probably found its foundation in the fact that on Friday afternoon Messrs. McNacoll Bosworth and Williams, of the C. P. R., were in consultation with E. Tiffin, general freight agent of the Intercolonial. On Saturday the C. P. R. officials left for Fredericton on an inspection trip accompanied by Superintendent Oborne.

It is known that the C. P. R. expect to be cramped in their facilities at Sand Point this winter as the business will be much greater than ever before. Consequently they feel it important that they should acquire additional accommodation.

Under the rumored arrangement, if adjusted, the C. P. R. will send a portion of its frieght across the bridge to Long wharf and a portion to Sand Point Following this will be a probable re-arrangement of berths.

Superintendent Oborne was seen Sunday and asked as to the truth of the story. He said: "There may have been some communication on the question between Mr. Bosworth and Mr. Tiffin but
