London, June 24.

A review of 7,000 troops by Queen Victoria was held at Windsor Park this afternoon in honor of the Shah. The weather was showery, but the crowds were enormous. The troops were formed in line and marched past the Queen and the Shah. Among the distinguished persons who assisted at the review were the Prince and Princess of Wales, the Duke of Edinburgh, Prince Leopold, the Duke of Cambridge, the Princess Beatrice, and the Czarowitch and wife.

In the Commons, yesterday, a debate took place on the Canada loan guaranty bill, Sir Charles Dilke leading against the bill, and Mr. Gladstone in its defence. The measure was carried 116 to 15. 7.20.

She was three days in a cyclone, during which time it was necessary to cut the masts and rigging away, and throw part of the cargo overboard. The front of the poop was smashed, and all the bulkheads on the starboard side of the cabin, flooding it fore and aft, and washing away nearly all the provisions. Only a few barrels of flour were saved. The chronometer, books and charts were ruined. The vesnarrowly escaped foundering.

A Long Branch special says that President Grant, the evening before going to Washington, was visited by several gentlemen who urged the removal of Mr. Richardson from the Treasury Department, and that they left his presence with the belief that his decision was made to do so. The same despatch says that the official life of Minister Jay will terminate with the Vienna Exposition, as he has long heep marked by the president for
