

being persons of mature age, practical experience, and special aptitude. They must pass such an examination as shall shew that they are fully able to enter upon the course prescribed. Such students take the course of four years as set forth in the annexed synopsis; except that the first year need not be taken by those who produce evidence satisfactory to the Council that they have taken work which is fully equivalent:—

FIRST YEAR	Latin; Elements of Greek Testament Grammar and Vocabulary, with Harper and Weidner's Manual; English; History; one of the three Sciences—Chemistry, Biology, Geology of the First Year in Arts; Biblical Theology of the New Testament; Rhetoric.
SECOND, THIRD, AND FOURTH YEARS..	The same work prescribed in A for Matriculated Students, with the addition of Rhetoric in the second year.

2. Alterations are being made in the Curriculum of the University whereby Hebrew may be substituted for certain other subjects in each year of the pass course, where such options are given Hebrew is strongly recommended.

3. A Candidate for examination in any year in the course who has failed in not more than two subjects of the examination, may be allowed to present himself at the next ensuing October Supplemental Examination on the subject or subjects only in which he has so failed. No candidate shall be allowed to enter upon the next succeeding year of course, until he has passed at the Supplemental Examination in the subject or subjects in which he has failed.

4. No deviation from these regulations will be allowed except by petition to the Council.
