NEWS OF THE WORLD.

All the important events of the week ending on Tuesday evening.

BOILED DOWN TO A COLUMN.

The estate left by the late Bishop Fuller, of Hamilton, is worth over $425,000.

Louise Michell, the communistic agitator in prison at Paris, is said to be dying.

The cold season in Montreal has been followed by rain, and so far there is a poor look-out for the ice palace.

The Scott Act petitions for St. Thomas and the county of Elgin have been filed in the Sheriff's office at St. Thomas.

One of the Canadian voyageurs with the Egyptian expedition has become insane. He will be removed to an insane asylum in England.

To make up, as it were, for the absence of social and political convulsions, to which the people of Spain have grown so accustomed that they must have them or die, kind nature came to the rescue with a pretty lively earthquake on Christmas eve, destructive of life and property.

Mrs. Charles Tracey, of Kingsbridge, N. Y., has given birth to a baby with a head the size of a crab-apple and a well developed body, weighing eleven ounces. Thus does beneficent nature assist the dime museum man and keep up the attractiveness of the freak department.

There is trouble in Henry Ward Beecher's church owing to his action in the Presidential campaign. There is a movement among the Republican members of his flock to absent themselves from the annual sale of pews, and by diminishing the receipts cut down the salary of the pastor. Mr. Beecher has said that if a majority, or even a strong minority, of the congregation no longer wanted him he would go. He had lived on a salary of $1,500 a year and could do so again, and he did not care whether his salary were cut down or not.

Eight tramps were asleep over the boiler house of the Lincoln coal company at Lincoln, Ill., on Christmas eve, when one of the steam pipes blew out. Six of the tramps got out safely, but two were fatally scalded. One of the number, Tobian Tebhoe, an engine driver from Milford, Canada, escaped all right, but hearing the cries of the others he ran to their rescue, and was badly scalded about the face, hands, and lower extremities. He is quite popular in Lincoln, owing to his heroic act.

A scandal of some proportions has been caused by the discovery that a portion of the precious stones in the splendid diadem worn by the ex-empress Eugenie were bogus. This diadem was very beautiful and was held at high value. It was set with diamonds and emeralds. The imperial crown jewels, including this diadem, were recently sold in Paris. An English nobleman purchased the emeralds for £40,000 and the money was paid over to the ex-empress. Then it was discovered that the emeralds were bogus, and her imperial ladyship had to hand back the money.
