Mrs. Albert Coldwell.

She stood in the glorious shadow of the Father's throne of love. But she saw not the shining threshold. Where the great unknown move, she heard not their garments faintly stir. As they opened the golden gates for her.

How seldom do we view death thus, instead of a 'glorious shadow' it is midnight darkness; and instead of angel watchmen, we see only the grim destroyer. And yet the New Testament throws so such gloom around the 'going home' of the child of God. 'Thine that sleep in Jesus, 'He fell on sleep'; 'To depart and be with Christ'; 'She is not dead but sleeping'; 'is the only shadow which the Bible casts around the departure of Christians from this world. 'Be thou faithful unto death, and thou shalt obtain a crown of life.' Our sister was one of the Charter members of the Wolfville W. C. T. U. organized in 1893—filled the office of secretary many years—and was ever faithful.

Her sisters of the Union offer this tribute of her work to her memory. W. C. T. U. Wolfville, March 18, '13. THE GLAD HOMELAND. All things all our thoughts of heaven. At first we think of sweet life. Of spots of portland dusting light. Of shining wings and robes of white. And things all strange in mortal sight. But in the afterworld of heaven. It is a more familiar place. A home without a selfish tear. Where sweetest may a well-known face. With passing months it comes more near. It greets more real day by day. 'Tis strange or odd, but very dear. The glad home land not far away. Where none are sick, or poor or lone. The place where we shall find our own. And as we think of all we know. Who there have met to part no more. Our longing hearts desire home, too. With all the strife and trouble o'er.

At a special meeting of the Council on Monday evening Mr. A. R. Coldwell, Town Clerk, was granted a leave of absence of two months, with full pay. Mr. Coldwell left on Wednesday for St. Louis, accompanying his daughter, Mrs. Ledford, and will be away until the first of June. Mr. Coldwell is one of Wolfville's more highly esteemed citizens and he has the sympathy of a host of friends in this time of his sore bereavement. THE ACADIAN wishes him a safe journey and a pleasant sojourn among the members of his family in St. Louis.

Our town has been invaded with school teachers this week, attending the sessions of the Kings and Hants Teachers' Institute. The meetings have been very successful and interesting.

Death of Esteemed Lady.

Wolfville has been called upon to mourn the loss of a lady who has long occupied a prominent place in the life of the town and who will be greatly missed. At an early hour last Saturday morning there passed away at her home on Acadia street Jessie H., wife of Mr. Albert H. Coldwell, aged 61 years. The deceased was a daughter of the late William J. Higgins, of Wolfville, and is survived by two sisters in Vancouver and four brothers in Oregon and Washington. She was always active in every good work and was held in very high esteem. During recent months she has suffered from heart trouble, but so immediate death was anticipated until near the end. Her daughter, Mrs. Ledford, of St. Louis, arrived on Friday night barely in time to be present at the last. Mrs. Coldwell leaves besides a sorrowing husband, two daughters, Vera (Mrs. Stewart) of Hammond, La., and Winifred (Mrs. Ledford), of St. Louis, Mo., and one son, Fred, of St. Louis. Another daughter predeceased her. To the sorrowing family THE ACADIAN, in common with the community generally, tenders sincere sympathy.

The funeral took place on Sunday afternoon and was largely attended. The service was conducted by Rev. Dr. Gundry. Prayer was offered by Rev. Dr. Spidle, and a most appropriate address was given by Rev. Dr. DeWolfe. The college quartette rendered a number of selections.

At the Opera House on Easter Monday will be shown one of the best programs of the year when the Vitagraph two reel special 'The Pickwick Papers,' with John Bunny as Pickwick, will be the feature.

The Business Men's class increases in interest week by week. Last Sunday afternoon there was a good attendance and a very interesting discussion of Jesus' teaching regarding the poor. Next Sunday afternoon the subject considered will be 'Jesus Teaching with regard to Criminals.' Dr. DeWolfe is making the class very helpful and instructive.
