

A N

A C C O U N T

O F T H E

Situation, Climate and Trade, of the COUN-TRIES adjoining to Hudson's Bay, &c.

HUDSON's Bay is a great inland Sea, situated betwixt 51 and 65 Degrees North Latitude, and from 78 to 95 West Longitude from London, being in Length from Nodway and Moose Rivers, in the Bottom of the Bay, to Whalebone Point, 14 Degrees; which, at 69 English Miles to a Degree, is about 970 Miles; and in Breadth from Digg's Isle, the East Entrance of the Bay, to the Land Westward of Churchill River, 200 Leagues, of 20 to a Degree, 690 Miles, surrounded by a great Continent, except the Opening of Hudson's Streight, and the North-west Side of the Bay, which appears

B