

six pence, currency, and no more; nor shall any such Minister be entitled to the benefit of this Act, unless he shall at the time of taking such oath as aforesaid, produce to the Judge who shall administer the same, the certificate of his ordination, and of the invitation or call to become their minister, by him received from his congregation, and of his installation as such Minister, or legally attested copies of such documents respectively; and all such documents shall be copied into each register to be kept by such Minister under the authority of this Act, and the copies so made therein shall be certified to be correct by the Prothonotary, before such register shall be authenticated by him or by any Judge of the Court: nor shall any such Minister be entitled to the benefit of this Act, unless he shall at the time of taking the oath aforesaid, give security in the sum of one hundred pounds, currency, jointly and severally with two good and sufficient sureties, before and to the satisfaction of the Judge who shall administer such oath, that whenever he shall, by death or otherwise, cease to be the Minister of such congregation, each and every register not previously deposited in the Prothonotary's office in which it ought by law to be deposited, shall be so deposited within two months after he shall have ceased to be such Minister.

Security to be given by him.

Duplicate of Register to be the property of the Congregation.

III. Whenever the connection between any such Minister and such congregation shall cease, the duplicate of the register shall be the property of such congregation, and shall be deposited with the Clerk thereof, to be kept by the successor of such Minister, for the use of said congregation.

Register where to be kept after removal of Minister.

IV. Such Registers, after the removal of such Preachers or Ministers from the City, Town, Township or place in which they may respectively have officiated and have kept such Registers, shall be deposited with their respective successors in office, or in case there shall be no successors, with the Prothonotary of the Superior Court in the district in which the Preacher or Minister keeping the same may have annually officiated.

Ministers removing may have a new Register.

V. On his removal from one city, town, township or place, to another city, town, township or place in this Province, such Preacher or Minister shall be entitled to have and obtain a new Register for the place to which he shall have removed, if none shall have been previously obtained or kept at such place by some Preacher or Minister in connection with the said Conference.

Legal effect of such Register.

VI. The Registers which shall have been so kept, and the several entries made therein according to the laws in force in this Province, as well as authentic copies of the entries therein made, shall to all intents and purposes be good and available in law as if
