

from the date of the protest, or if interest be therein expressed as payable from a particular period, then from such period to the time of payment; and that in such cases of protest the expense of noting and protesting, and the postages thereby incurred, shall be allowed and paid to the holder, over and above the said interest.

IV. And be it enacted, That in any action brought to recover the amount of any Bill, Draft, Order or Promissory Note, and the damages herein allowed, and the interest, expenses of noting and protesting, and all other charges and postages incurred thereon, specified and mentioned in the preceding sections of this Act, it shall not be necessary to declare specially for the same, but such damages, expenses, charges and interest shall be allowed to the plaintiff at any trial, assessment or computation, as if the same had been specially declared for.

Damages, &c., may be recovered though not especially mentioned in the declaration

V. And be it enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act,—the Act or Ordinance passed in the seventeenth year of the Reign of King George the Third, and intituled, “An Ordinance for ascertaining damages on protested Bills of Exchange, and fixing the rate of interest in the Province of Quebec,”—and the Act of the Legislature of the late Province of Lower Canada, passed in the third year of the Reign of King William the Fourth, and intituled, “An Act further to suspend certain parts of an Act or Ordinance therein mentioned, and to consolidate and further to continue for a limited time the provisions of two other Acts therein mentioned, for more effectually ascertaining the damages on protested Bills of Exchange, and for determining disputes relating thereto, and for other purposes,”—and the Act of the Legislature of the late Province of Upper Canada, passed in the fifty-first year of the Reign of King George the Third, and intituled, “An Act
