

Measurement
of sides of a township, 489 chains.

"3. The township therefore will, subject to deficiency or surplus from converging or diverging meridians, as the case may be, and excepting as the same may be affected by any reduction in the number or the width of the road allowances therein, as hereinafter provided, measure on each side, from centre to centre of the road allowances bounding the same, four hundred and eighty-nine chains: Provided that the Governor in Council may, hereafter, should the same be deemed expedient, reduce the number of road allowances in any township, and may indicate the particular section lines in such township on which no allowance for road shall be laid out in the survey, and may also reduce the width of the road allowances on township and section lines from one chain and fifty links, to one chain, in Keewatin and the North-West Territories, or in any portion of the same, as may be deemed expedient."

Proviso: Reduction of

"2. Section seven of "The Dominion Lands Act, 1879," is hereby repealed, and the following is substituted therefor:—

Width on the baselines.

"7. The townships shall be laid out and given their width of four hundred and eighty-nine chains, as aforesaid, or as the case may be, on the base lines hereinafter mentioned; and the meridians between townships shall be drawn from such bases, north or south to the depth of two townships, that is to say, to the correction lines hereinafter mentioned."

S. 16, 1879,
repealed.

"3. Section sixteen of "The Dominion Lands Act, 1879," is hereby repealed, and the following is substituted therefor:—

Proviso: as to laying out and describing lands
in certain locations.

"16. Provided that nothing in this Act shall be construed to prevent the lands upon the Red and Assiniboine Rivers, surrendered by the Indians to the late Earl of Selkirk, from being laid out in such manner as may be necessary in order to carry out section thirty-two of the Act thirty-third Victoria, chapter three, or to prevent fractional sections or lands bordering on the Saskatchewan, or on any river, or lake, or other water course, or on a public road, from being laid out and divided into lots of any certain frontage or depth, in such manner as may appear desirable; or to prevent the sub-division of sections or other legal sub-divisions into wood lots as hereinafter provided, or the describing of the said lands upon the Red and Assiniboine Rivers, or such sub-divisions of fractional sections or lands bordering as above, or other lots, or wood lots, for patent, by numbers according to a plan of record, or by metes and bounds, or by both, as may seem expedient."

S. 30, 1879,
repealed.

"4. Section thirty of "The Dominion Lands Act, 1879," is hereby repealed, and the following is substituted therefor:—
