EVEREADY DAYLO

*The light that says
"There it is!"*

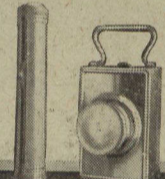

MOST accidents happen in the dark. And even at home you are not safe from the mishap or mistake that may result disastrously.

In any emergency of the dark, you can depend upon DAYLO'S bright, revealing light. A touch of the switch, and instantly it leaps out to serve you.

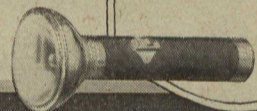

It is the safe light, too, because it cannot cause fire, or blow out. It is the economical light because it is fitted with the long-lived Eveready TUNGSTEN battery and MAZDA lamp. Always specify these makes when your battery or lamp must be renewed.

DAYLOS are made in 77 styles, ranging from the dainty candle stick for Milady's boudoir to powerful torches and electric lanterns for the wilderness camp. Prices from 85c up. Displayed and sold by the better electrical, hardware, drug, sporting goods, stationery and jewelry stores everywhere.

Don't let your soldier boy go to camp without an Eveready DAYLO — "the light that may save his life"
