Write Ideas For Moving Picture Plays!

YOU CAN WRITE PHOTO PLAYS AND EARN $25. OR MORE WEEKLY

We Will Show You How!

If you have ideas—if you can think—we will show you the secrets of this fascinating new profession. Positively no experience or literary excellence necessary. No "flowery language" is wanted.

The demand for photoplays is practically unlimited. The big film manufacturers are "moving heaven and earth" in their attempts to get enough good plots to supply the ever-increasing demand. They are offering $100, and more, for single scenarios, or written ideas.

We have received many letters from the film manufacturers, such as VITAGRAPH, EDISON, ESSANAY, LUBIN, SOLAX, IMP, REX, RELIANCE, CHAMPION, COMET, MELIES, ETC., urging us to send photoplays to them. We want more writers, and we'll gladly teach you the secrets of success.

We are selling photoplays written by people who "never before wrote a line for publication."

Perhaps we can do the same for you. If you can think of only one good idea every week, and will write it out as directed by us, and it sells for only $25, a low figure,

YOU WILL EARN $100 MONTHLY FOR SPARE TIME WORK.

FREE SEND YOUR NAME AND ADDRESS AT ONCE FOR FREE COPY OF OUR ILLUSTRATED BOOK, "MOVING PICTURE PLAYWRITING"

Don't hesitate. Don't argue. Write now and learn just what this new profession may mean for you and your future.

If all roads were city brick-paved streets the wonderful superiority of the Ford would not be so easily demonstrated. But bad roads and bad weather have made the undaunted and economical Ford the ideal car for Canadian service.

Think of it—nearly 200,000 Fords have been sold and delivered. New prices — runabout $675—touring car $750—delivery car $775 — town car $1,000—with all equipment, f.o.b. Walkerville, Ont. Get particulars from Ford Motor Company of Canada, Limited, Walkerville, Ont., Canada.

In Lighter Vein

Undressing the Chickens.—A little slum child was enjoying his first glimpse of pastoral life.

The setting sun was gilding the grass and roses of the old-fashioned garden, and on a little stool he sat beside the farmer's wife, who was plucking a chicken.

He watched the operation gravely for some time. Then he spoke:

"Do yer take off their clothes every night, lady?"—Youth's Companion.

Absent.—A very prominent man recently died and shortly after a friend of the family called to condole with the widow.

The caller had been a very warm friend of the deceased, and as he was about to depart he asked:

"Did Will leave you much?"

"Oh, yes, indeed," responded the widow, "nearly every night."—Harper's Bazar.

A Poser for the Court.—A coloured woman was on trial before a magistrate, charged with inhuman treatment of her child.

Evidence was clear that the woman had severely beaten the youngster, aged some nine years, who was in court to exhibit his battered condition.

Before imposing sentence his honour asked the woman whether she had anything to say.

"Kin I ask yo' honah a question?" inquired the prisoner.

"Go ahead," said the judge, and the court room listened.

"Well, then, yo' honah, I'd like to ask yo' whether yo' was ever the parient of a puffedly wuthless culled chile?"—Burlington News.

The One and Only Time.—"Father, did mother accept you the first time you proposed to her?"

"Yes, my dear, but since then any proposal that I have ever made she has scornfully rejected."—Detroit Free Press.

Good Business.—"That fellow who was talking so nicely about love in a cottage must be a poet."

"No; he's a real estate dealer. He's trying to persuade me to get married and buy a semi-detached cottage on the installment plan."—Washington Herald.

A Call for Help.—Young Pops—"Dearest, what did your father say when you told him of our engagement?"
Daphne Sweet—"Darling, it was too funny! He gulped a few times, and then turned to the parrot. 'Polly,' said he appealingly, 'please help me out!'"—Judge.

By Way of Demonstration.—Editor (to new reporter)—"You say in this report of the fire that 'the lurid glare of forked flames shot athwart the dark-domed sky.' Are you sure of that?"

New Reporter—"Yes, sir; I saw the whole thing."

Editor—"Did you notice any insurance man looking about the place, or learn what caused the fire, or the probable amount of property destroyed?"

New Reporter—"No, sir."

Editor (striking match)—"Well, just watch the lurid glare of forked flames athwart this report!"—Liverpool Mercury.

Unexampled Courage.—He was the small son of a bishop, and his mother was teaching him the meaning of courage.

"Supposing," she said, "there were twelve boys in one bedroom, and eleven got into bed at once, while the other knelt down to say his prayers, that boy would show true courage."

"Oh," said the young hopeful, "I know something that would be more courageous than that: Supposing there were twelve bishops in one bedroom, and one got into bed without saying his prayers!" Truth Seeker.

Cruel Admission.—"Do you think only of me?" murmured the bride.

"Tell me that you think only of me."

"It's this way," explained the groom gently. "Now and then I have to think of the furnace, my dear."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Music Taught Free

Home Instruction

Special Offer to Our Readers

In order to advertise and introduce their home study music lessons in every locality the International Institute of Music of New York will give free to our readers a complete course of instruction for either Piano, Organ, Violin, Mandolin, Guitar, Banjo, Cello, Brass Instruments or Signet Singing. In return they simply ask that you recommend their Institute to your friends after you learn to play.

You may not know one note from another; yet, by their wonderfully simple and thorough method, you can soon learn to play. If you are an advanced player you will receive special instruction.

The lessons are sent weekly. They are so simple and easy that they are recommended to any person or little child who can read English. Photographs and drawings make everything plain. Under the Institute's free tuition offer you will be asked to pay only a very small amount (averaging 14 cents a week) to cover postage and the necessary sheet music.

No one should overlook this wonderful offer. Tell your friends about it — show this article to them.

The International Institute has successfully taught others and can successfully teach you, even if you know absolutely nothing whatever about music. The lessons make everything clear.

Write to-day for the free booklet, which explains everything. It will convince you and cost you nothing. Address your letter or postal card to International Institute of Music, 98 Fifth Ave., Dept. 423 B, New York, N. Y.
