of this for you while your modesty dwells upon, not so much your own capacity, as your new duties, & increased responsibilities. - I am so glad your journey "around the world" was so successful & interesting.
I fear it will be too old a story when we meet - to hear much of it - for my return to America does not look as if it would be immediate, or even this year.
I hope you may be able to find time to let me know if your necessities in other fields have been covered with the desired P.P.S. I sincerely hope so for you - I am most grateful to Mr. Ireland, & your hosts in their efforts in behalf of my star-away.
I regret the number the immigration officials made in giving Taggart the $25: in a lump sum. I had taken considerable trouble to avoid just this mistake. I shall still hope to hear from you, or even from, him some day - I had a
