Ottawa, 26th May, 1904.

Sir,

You recently taxed an account amounting to $2.30 from the Proprietors of the "Essex Free Press", for advertising for tenders for Indian supplies. When the account was received at the Department there was attached to it a copy of the advertisement of this Department regarding the sale of Indian lands. Under the circumstances I think it well to return the account to you.

Your obedient servant.

Secretary.
