Calendar, Aspects, &c.

5th Sunday after Easter, & St. Philip & St. James. May opens pleasantly, and continues fine. ASCENSION DAY. Prospects good; there will be complaints of dryness.

Sunday after Ascension. This week, however, the weather changes, and the farmer may expect rain, and these last two days it will come down copiously. Look out!

White Sunday. Whit Monday. Tuesday in Whitsun-week. Fine weather. Changeable. Weather very unsettled for a day or two.

Trinity Sunday. Some rain about now. QUEEN VICTORIA'S BIRTH DAY, 1819. Tending to change. CORPUS CHRISTI. Doubtful and rainy.

1st Sunday after Trinity. The month ends cheerfully?

MAY.—A correspondent of the "Canadian Agriculturist" well says: "The absence of sufficient education amongst the agricultural youth of our country, together with the lack of capital, will for years prove a bar to that progress we could all wish to see made. We need, however, only look back a comparatively few years and call to mind the very crude state Agriculture was in throughout the British Isles, to take courage and assure ourselves that we shall effect more toward the development of the soil in the next ten years than was accomplished there some years back in thirty!"
