The following latter from the Grand President accompanied the assessment notice:
DEAR SIR AND BROTHER—The Trustees of the Grand Council, together with several members of the Law Committee, met at Brockville on the I'fth inst., and decided that in pursuance of its agreement with the Supreme Council, made at the last Couvention of the latter body, it would immediately issue this, its first assessment notice, to cover all death claims for which it is responsible up to the 1st day of January inst. You will be pleased to learn from it that but one assessment is necessary, and that after these claims are paid a surplus will remain in the hands of your Treasurer. These are the only death claims for which the members of the Grand Council, so that claims may be paid without any unnecessary delay. In future all benefits will be paid, as far as possible, as soon as proofs of death are complete, thus avoiding the delay of sixty days which has heretofare been the practice.

The few members who have not already exchanged their old certificates for new ones should do so without further loss of time, so as to leave no doubt as to their standing.

At the same trustee meeting Brother J. E. H. Howison was appointed organizer for this association, and will in addition perform the duties of Assistant Secretary, having special charge of all correspondence in French. His present address is 14 Laroix street, Montreal, and all members of the association seeking information and preferring to the correspond in the French language will address him there. The general business of the association, activity (Frand Secretary) at January and charge will abserted to the contraction of the association, and will as heretofore be contracted as the feet of the contraction of the association of the contraction of the contr

The general business of the association, particularly that involving matters of finance, will as heretofore be conducted with the Grand Secretary at London. The new constitution is in course of preparation and in a short time will, together with all blank forms, etc., be printed in both languages and distributed to such branches as may require them. Fraternally yours, O. K. FRASER, Grand Pres.

An Important Matter.

Ed. Catholic Record—Your Lindsay correspondent draws attention to a live question in the C. M. B. A. The question of the excessive use of intoxicants is overlooked by many of our branches, to the injury of the members who indulge in them and the financial loss of the entire association. It is certainly my opinion that a certificate before each of the member of the financial loss of the member dies from liquor. I am not sure but that the constitution obliges the branch to suspend or expel the offending member: certainly that should be the rule, if it is not the rule. The branches are too lax on this question. A word from the Grand President would be timely. By all means let us have the C. M. B. A. protected from this internal enemy.

Well-Deserved.

Moved by Mr. Tansey, seconded by Mr. O'Keefe, that the several Deputies present meet this evening and draw up rules for the instruction of Deputies regarding the organization of branches and the daties of Deputies generally, and submit the same to the Grand Generally, and submit the same to the Grand President and Grand Secretary. An account from Mr. John O'Mara for same was read. After explanations by Grand Secretary and the Rev. Father Bardon it was moved by Rev. Eather Bardon it was moved by Rev. Eather Bardon it was moved by Rev. M. J. Tiernan, seconded by Mr. P. J. O'Keefe, that the account be paid. Carried.

Worthy of Imitation in Other Places.

The combined Branches of Toronto of the C. M. B. A. propose holding a grand concert under their auspices, and with the approbation of His Grace the Archbishop of Toronto, in the Pavilion, on Monday, 30th January, in aid of the new Catholic hospital in that city. The following artists will take part in the programme: Mrs. Mackelcan, of Hamilton, contralro; Mrs. Klein, soprano; Miss. Marguerite Dann, Elocutionist; Miss Sullivan, pianist; Mr. Frank Anglin, baritone; Mr. J. F. Kirk, tenor; Mr. W. E. Ramsey, humorist, and Geo. A. Fox, violinist. The concert is to be under the musical direction of Mr. F. H. Torrington, of the Toronto College of Music and under the distinguished patronage of His Honor the Lieut. Governor and Mrs. Kirkpatrick and His Worship Mayor Fleming. With such a list of talent and such a deserving object of charity, we feel confident that the public will heartily support the efforts of the members of the C. M. B. A. of Toronto in making this the grandest event of the season. Worthy of Imitation in Other Places

Encouraging.

Encouraging.

It may now be claimed that the Grand Council of Canada has fairly started on its career of usefulness. The number of applications received for change of Supreme for Grand Council certificates approaches so nearly to the total membership in the Dominion that the extent of the disaffection in Montreal is scarcely worth taking into account. The first assessment is a single one, which is a good beginning for the new year. Under the old system our members would have been forced to pay out just double the amount of money. It would be unwise to make any prophecy as to the future; but, judging by the past, we may safely say there is every prospect that the burthen on the shoulders of our brothers in Canada will for the time to come be much lighter than it has been in the past. In months when we have but one or two deaths—and this occurs frequently—a considerable surplus will remain after the claims are paid; and this surplus will, it is reasonable to suppose, meet the requirements of an unusually heavy mortality which may occur in any particular month. What we should all do now is to stand shoulder to shoulder and work with energy and perseverance in the procurement of new members in every branch, and forming new branches wherever advisable.

OBITUARY.

Mr. Patrick Tiernan, Detroit.

We regret very much to be called upon to announce the death of Mr. Patrick Tiernan, of Detreit; in the fifty-eighth year of his age. The deceased was a brother of the Rev. M. J. Tiernan, rector of St. Peter's Cathedral, London. His death took place in St. Mary's Hospital, Detroit, where he was attended with all the delicate nursing and care or which the good nuns of that institution are noted. He had the happiness of dying a most edifying death, having received all the rites of the Church. Such an end was indeed to be expected, as during life he was always known to be most upright in all his dealings and a fervent and practical Catholic.

The funeral took place on Monday last, the remains being interred in Madstone. Rev. Father Tiernan and many friends from a distance were present on the occasion. May his soul rest in peace.

Address and Presentation.

Miss M. Morissey, organist, of Forest, was, on Thesday, 17th inst., presented with a purse, in gratitude for her services, and the following address, which was read by Mr. Ed. O'Donnell, and signed by Misses J. Meloch and M. Madden, on behalf of the congregation. After the presentation a very enj wable evening was spent in music and singing:

— To Miss M. Morissey—Dear Friend—We are assembled here this evening to tender you our sincere thunks for your valuable services for some time past as organist and choir leader hour church. Although your services were freely given, you were always lathful and willing to perform your part. IRISH AFFAIRS.

Lemes Francis Egan, convicted of participation at Birmingham in 1884 in an Irish dynamite plot and entenced to twenty years penal servitude, was released from Portland prison by order of Home Secretary Asquith, on the ground of ill-health. The extra editions of Dublin evening newspapers containing the release of Egan had an enormous sale. The general opinion is expressed that this action of the Government is but a prelude to further clemency toward the Irishmen convicted of participation in dynamite plots and conspiracies. Egan owes his release from Portland prison to the persistent efforts of Mr. Redmond, the leader of the Parnellites.

from Portland prison to the persistent efforts of Mr. Redmond, the leader of the Parnellites.

All the party leaders have issued whips exhorting their followers to be unremitting in their attendance to their Parliamentary duties during the coming session. Lord Salisbury and Balfour emphasize the statement that it is of the utmost importance for every Unionist to be in his place early and constantly, as the Home Rule Bill will be introduced hortly after the opening, and heavy and hot debates are to be expected from the beginning.

At a prolonged Cabinet meeting the Minister discussed the legal aspects of the Home Rule Bill. Sir Charles Russell, Attorney-General, and Lord Herchel, Lord High Chancellor, who previously had not attended the Cabinet meeting, were present and gave their opinions as leugth.

Mr. Gladstone has received hundreds of letters in the past few days and hundreds of callers making inquiries as to the state of his health. The reports that he is failing have caused great solicitude and some alarm among his personal friends and the advocates of Home Rule. To dispel all doubts he walks and drives frequently in the parks, besides sending out occasional denials that he is feeling less strong and energetic than formerly. There is general apprehension among Liberal Englishmen that the Prime Minister is not so well as he and his friends would make the world believe. It is impossible to verify these apprehensions, as Mr. Gladstone is very clo-ely guarded by his family and nearest friends, and only personal or political intimates are able to gain access to him.

At the close of the Liberal Federation Home Secretary Asquith an nonunced that the plan of Home Rule for Ireland would be on large Liberal lines, Ireland would obtain general autonomy, although ultimate ascendancy of Imperial Parliament would effectually be maintained.

SUCCESSEUL ENTERTAINMENT.

A large and highly appreciative audience greeted the boys of the Brockville Catholic Separate school on the 2-th inst., in their first effort in the Itae of Ilterary and musical intertainments. The large assembly hall of the new Separate school was filled to overflowing, while many, being musble to find seats, were forced to stand. On the platform were the Very Rev. Vicar-General Gauthier, Rev. Father Collins, the Rev. Sisters of Notre Dame Convent and the members of the School Board.

The hall was beautifully decorated with flags and banners of Britain, Canada, Ireland, Scotland, England, France and the United States, while lights of every color sparkled from the ceiling of the room, giving to the whole scene an appearance both beautiful and picturesque.

The grogramme consisted of selections of a high order of merit from the leading authors of the day, both literary and musical, while the rendition of the same by the pupils was both graceful and pleasing.

Miss Rosaic McGreevy a talented and rising young lady plands of 'rockville presided at the blano, and the hearty and continuous appiause of the authence showed that her talents were recognize. The boys ranged in age from five to fourteen years, and as each youthful performer came to the front and delivered his part, it was evident at once to every observer that caref-lirahing had been devoted to their preparation for this entertainment.

One of the leading features of the performance was fine club swinging by twelve young athletes of the school, and took the audience by storm, while the rendition of a dialogue called the "Trades," by twelve very small boys, showed what careful attention can accomplish.

An orchestra, composed of four young musicians from the school, nedered in very effective style, one of Prof. Fullord's latest musical compositions, while the recitations of "The Bock Eye," The Schoolmaster," The Critics, "The Opening Speech," and "Courting by Proxy" convulsed the audience with laughter, while the kindergarten songs of "The New Moon," "The F ceived.

At the end of the performance Mr. J. J. Noonau, the principal of the school, thanked the audience heartily for their kind appreciation and encouragement given to the byst in their first efforts in the musical sphere, after which the na ional anthem was sung and the performance closed.

For Bronchitis

"I never realized the good of a medicine so much as I have in the last few months, during which time I have suffered intensely from pneumonia, followed by bronchitis. After trying various remedies without benefit, I began the use of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and the effect has been marvelous, a single dose relieving me of choking, and securing a good night's rest."—T. A. Higginbotham, Gen. Store, Long Mountain, Va.

La Grippe

"Last Spring I was taken down with la grippe. At times I was completely prostrated, and so difficult was my breathing that my breath seemed as if confined in an iron cage. I precured a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and no sooner had I began taking it than relief followed. I could not believe that the effect would be so rapid."—W. H. Williams, Cook City, S. Dak.

Lung Trouble

"For more than twenty-five years, I was a sufferer from lung trouble, attended with coughing so severe at times as to cause hemorrhage, the poroxysms frequently lasting three or four hours. I was induced to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and after taking four bottles, was thoroughly cured. I can confidently recommend this medicine, "Franz Hofmann, Clay Centre, Kans.
