HOMESTEAD REGULATIONS.

ANY even numbered section of Dominion Lands in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta, excepting 8 and 26, not reserved, may be homesteaded by any person who is the sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years of age, to the extent of one-quarter section of 160 acres, more or less.

Application for entry must be made in person by the applicant at a Dominion Lands Agency or Sub-agency for the district in which the land is situated. Entry by proxy may, however, be made at any Agency on certain conditions by the father, mother, son, daughter, brother or sister of an intending homesteader.

DUTIES.—(1) At least six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each year for three years.

(2) A homesteader may, if he so desires, perform the required residence duties by living on farming land owned solely by him, not less than eighty (80) acres in extent, in the vicinity of his homestead. He may also do so by living with father or mother, on certain conditions. Joint ownership in land will not meet this requirement.

(3) A homesteader intending to perform his residence duties in accordance with the above while living with parents or on farming land owned by himself must notify the Agent for the district of such intention.

W. W. CORY,

Deputy of the Minister of the Interior.

Poems and Sketches

By William Henry Drummond

Author of "The Habitant," "Johnnie Courteau," etc.

Edited, with a Biographical Sketch

By MAY HARVEY DRUMMOND

Illustrated by Frederick S. Coburn.

This volume brings together the poems and sketches which had remained unpublished at the time of Dr. Drummond's death. The collection has been made by Mrs. Drummond, who has provided the book with a preface containing some illuminating comments upon the poems, and with a brief and very interesting account of Dr. Drummond's life.

As to the book itself, it is full of the quaint French Canadian humor and sentiment, and breathes also the devotion to sport and the love of life in the open which together have drawn a large circle of devoted and appreciative readers.
