FORMER BELLEVILLE BOY HAS PLAN-TATION IN TAHITI.

ROWRARDMENT OF PORT.

Geo. M. Yerex Was on Farm at Time-Natives Took to Mountains in Fear of Germans.

When the French port of Papeete, "Little Mother" were most impressive. Mr. McQueen of Marmora, Mr. Tahiti, one of the Society Islands, in John Elliott, and Col. W. N. Ponthe Pacific ocean, was bombarded by ton, K.C., of Belleville made lack of social intercourse, the island being inhabited by very few whites, who are French.

It is a strange coincidence that a strong friendship should spring up between Mr. Yerex, a former Cantain and a New Zealander, and a Russian, who is living on the island. The Russian studied for 12 years for the priesthood of the Eastern church, but rearried an American girl and who are French married an American girl and then spent four years in the study of mining engineering. The Russian, Mr Yerex says, is a fine companion.

Tahiti is known as the home of the vanilla industry, three hundred tons of the precious flavoring extract being exported annually. The island is the greatest grower of the vanilla pod in the world.

pod in the world.

Mr. Yerex recently bought 1,000 vines from a native chief for $16. At Pthe time of writing, the cocoanuts had yet to be gathered. He has a very extensive ranch of sixty cattle and a similar number of other stock, and keeps five men engaged. Fortunately his property did not suffer damage from the Germans. He still makes his home in New Zealand, except in the cold wet season.
