Baseball—Football—Basketball—Bowling—Hockey—
Curling—Boxing and Wrestling.FORAN'S HOMER PAVED
THE WAY TO VICTORY OVER
THE SAINTS YESTERDAYHarris, a Recruit From the Southern League, Filled the Shortstop's Position—Visitors Grumbled Continually to His Umps, Who Banished Inker.

When Foran knocked out a homer in the fourth inning with Fried on second, he practically won the first of the series with St. Thomas for the Brants. It proved to be the last tally of the match for although both aggregations endeavored to add to the score neither could add and the game ended with the tally which was registered in the fourth inning.

It was not by any means a brilliant exposition of the pastime except in one regard and that was the language. After standing a lot Umpire Bedford deemed it wise to send Inker back to the bench. This occurred in the 7th inning and did not alter the game much. Dad Stewart found piteous cause in his own mind to grumble with the decisions, which it is generally admitted might not have been as accurate as possible, but, if the Railwaymen had anything to kick over, so had those for the decisions were as accurate for one side as they were for the other.

SOME FEELING.

Although at the beginning it looked as if the feeling between the Umps. and the visitors was likely to develop, the official was not to be grieved, and when he sent Inker out of the game, the storm blew over and peace reigned. It is possible that the opposition was puffed with the score and might

C. J. MITCHELL, 55 Darling St.
Dealer for Brant County took the lead.

Their pleasure was short-lived for the Indians came back strong. Harris had been fanned and Fried singled, and was camped on first when Foran hit the first homer of the season, sending the ball clean on to the dyke behind the right field fence. Brantford took the lead with this nice bit of work, but could not add to it, for although the pitcher singled to right, Green failed to advance him.

But for Dunn's fine running catch in the fifth, Dad Stewart's brigade would have captured the game. Second and third sacks were full with two men out, when Stewart fled. Dunn sprinted and caught the sphere on the run, fielding it brilliantly, and saved the situation. Hughey had fanned and Hadley was nabbed going to first, Stewart swatted, only to see his drive caught by Dunn, when with a little luck he might have advanced the score. Close was lucky in this inning and got out of a tight corner.

THREE SACRIFICES.

The Brants second inning in which they opened the score, was remarkable for three sacrifice hits. Harris, Foran and LaCroix all tapping the pellet, only Foran failing to register first. Mullin got first on a trapped ball, then Harris bunted safely and Fried drove to right field for a single sending Mullin home. Foran went out at first, sacrificing, and La Croix bunted safely. Harris blossoming the plate and Friend following him, but being sent back because he could not advance more than a base on an overthrow. Close struck out and the inning closed.

Two hits, three bunts, two runs. The trapped ball which resulted in Mullins taking first was disputed by Todd who claimed his glove was between it and terra firma. Bedford had his own ideas and voiced them, a general protest by the Railwaymen.

Close same near to disaster in the fifth when Hughey got to him for a two bagger, and Kopp bunted safely. He whiffed Ort, Hadley hit to pitcher and was out at first, and Stewart fled out. Two hits, no runs. Mullin cavorted around to third next innings but got no farther, no body giving him a helping hand home.

Harris, the new shortstop, got his mit to a fast, high one, sent out by Kopp which was labelled a two-bagger all the way, and again the danger was passed. He received a hand for the fine play.

The Saints started the ninth with a strong rally when Hughey singled after Harris had been fanned. A brilliant double play put an end to matters when Fried and Foran worked the oracle.

The Saints were beaten and although they had "beefed" all the way it was not evident what they were to gain by their questionable conduct. They protested against the ball, and had grumbled at the bats, and complained of the ump, but it never struck them that their own machine might be examined and the various cranks overhauled.

GUELPH BEAT LONDON.
Cockneys Were Outplayed at All Points by the Leafs.

Guelph, May 27.—The first game of the series with London yesterday was a walk over for the Leafs. Up to the eighth inning the Cockneys were shut out, while the locals rolled up ten runs. They then let up, and London did some scoring after a change of pitchers. Dörbeck won his own game for Guelph, both in the box and at the bat, starting the scoring in the third inning, which ended with Guelph five runs to the good. Tony knocked out a homer the next time he went to bat. The Leafs put up a good article of ball, while London was far from putting up a good game. Score by innings:

London	0 0 0 0 3 1—4
Guelph	0 0 3 0 2 0—12

Football

The football circle will see very interesting games to-morrow when three contests in the Brantford and Paris League will take place in the city. The Sons of England are at home to the Congregationists and the Sons have an opportunity of fulfilling the talent promise which they have been showing, at the same time dealing a blow to the opposition. The P.S.A. boys will have to step out if they intend to put one over the Sons who are getting into their stride very well.

The Thistles will have Paris' as visitors upon the Agricultural Park and the game should be well worth watching. Paris are following the Scots very closely and are playing a good game at the present. Thistles have not handed out any points yet, nor do they intend to any points yet, have to travel to and from Paris will be out to get the points to-morrow. The residents of this section are assured of a hot contest.

The White Sox continued their winning streak yesterday, when they defeated the Yankees 8 to 2 for their ninth consecutive victory.

To date the Boston Braves, world's champions, have lost four series, won two and tied one. They have been playing pool ball the last few weeks and are now in the second division.

Manager McGraw of the Giants used sixteen players yesterday in an endeavor to win from St. Louis, but the latter managed to secure the odd run in eleven.

Rogge, the ex-Leaf pitcher, now with the Pittsburgh Federals, was no puzzle to the Baltimore Terrapins yesterday and the Pitts dropped in to second place, Chicago moving up into the leadership.

For "safety first" on bake-days there is only one answer—PURITY FLOUR.

It is only right that Canadians should know the truth about imported lagers. Their manufacture would not be permitted in Canada, as they do not comply with Canadian Government regulations. They cost more and are not worth it.

Regal Lager is made of choicest Canadian Barley Malt, and is Canadian through and through. There is no Lager made that surpasses Regal for purity, clean taste and healthfulness.

Regal is mild and very refreshing.
