

Col. Carnegie, stating that Mr. George Watts had informed him that the Canadian-Chalmers Company had decided not to undertake the manufacture of shells. As they had a fuse expert, Mr. A. A second letter showed that the Chalmers Company had finally decided not to undertake the manufacture of fuses.

Peddlers' Parade Held at St. Jude's

A very pretty programme was presented last night at St. Jude's church school room when a large number of people were delighted by the entertainment offered. The evening opened by a parade of Peddlers wearing fancy costumes carrying a variety of wares which were afterwards dispensed of.

Mr. J. L. Axford gave two recitations much to the delight of everyone. A Japanese motion song by six young ladies, was finely executed. Patriotism was represented by seventeen little girls prettily attired who went through a drill in credible style at the same time singing strains of martial music.

Two young ladies gorgeously attired in Italian costumes flourishing tambourines sang a characteristic and appropriate song with fine effect. A rock orchestra led by a ludicrous conductor proved quite amusing.

The whole arrangements were carried out under the presidency of Mrs. Metcalf, who was presented with a beautiful bouquet of roses. Mrs. Broadbent acted as accompanist. The proceeds of the evening totalled $60.

- 4th—You can hang a ten-pound weight on the bottom of coat, and it will not pull off the neck at back.

The best proof of the correctness of these statements is to have your garments Broadbent-made. If they do not measure up to the above in every particular—you may have YOUR MONEY BACK.
