-Auction SALE -On Thursday, April 13th, E. C. Sliter, auctioneer, will sell at Thos. Somerville's farm near the Orange Hall, Leeds, at 1 p.m., 2 heavy work horses, 13 selected cows. 7 pigs and a lot of first class machinery. Everything to be offered is in first. class condition and well worth the attention of buyers.

-Byron W. Loverin, Greenbush, purchased a cream separator, last week to separate the cream from the milk of his cows, given on Saturday nights and Sundays during the season. As his cows milk nearly the year round it will be used to make up the milk after the cheese factory closes in the fall and before the factory opens in the spring. The separator, which is one of the largest and best kinds made was purchased from Geo, W. Gardiner, Lvn.
