Mrs. A. G. Tuson, of Livermore, Cal., writes: "I picked up from my doorstep one day a little book in which I soon became very much interested.

My little girl of five years of age had en troubled for a long time with loss of appetite, extreme nervousness and undue fatigue. She was all rundown and in a very delicate condition. "This little book was very compre-hensively written, and told of the new method of extracting the medicinal elements of the cod's liver from the oil, eliminating the obnoxious oil which is so hard for children to take.

"'Just the thing,' said I, 'for my little daughter,' and I immediately went for a bottle of Vinol. It helped her wonderfully. She has gained rapidly in take cold half so easily.
"I am extremely grateful for the good it has done her, and I hope other mothers who have weak, delicate or ailing children will be benefited by my experience and just give Vinol a trial."

MUST CURTAIL OUTPUT.

Lumber Conditions Necessitate Smaller Cut This Winter.

Because of the conditions prevailing at present the big lumber firms operating in the Georgian Bay and Ottawa Valley districts will curtail their cut in the bushes to a very appreciable extent during the coming winter.

The demand for lumber is not at all good at present part of the conditions of th all good at present and has not been for some time. Following close upon the financial troubles of the fall of for some time. Following close upon the financial troubles of the fall of last year came the curtailment in building operations, leaving all the big dealers with a big stock on hand in their yards. The mills closed down early and a good supply of logs is still to be sawn up. The dealers do not anticipate anything abnormal in next season's demand, and think that by cutting off the stocks now in the yards they can get along without much cutting in the bush the coming winter, though the gangs will take out a little, possibly on a conservative estimate, about one-half of last year's light cut.

The following winter, 1909-90, will see the gangs in the bushes as usual, to replenish the supply of logs at the mills. The loss in wages to the bushmen will be a considerable hardship, as last year, during the seven months the men were in the camp, September to April, the 20 big companies put something close to $5,000,-000 into the bush. This year there may be half that figure paid out. The other losses to be considered are the loss to the merchants who supply the provisions for the camp, and the loss in revenue to the Government for lumber taken out, which is considerable. The talk of a bush fire chang-loss in revenue to the Government for lumber taken out, which is considerable. The talk of a bush fire changing the whole face of affairs is not taken seriously by lumber men, as they say the danger period for that has passed already.

Another feature that has had a part in the present drastic measures by the lumber kings is the American competition, which is very keen. There is no duty on the goods and the men from across the line dump it in at a price the Canadians cannot afford to sell at.

HIS NAME RUBBED OUT.

and He Loses Cigar Store.

How are the mighty fallen!
It was not enough for the once popular Indian, Tom Longboat, to fail so ingloriously in the Marathon run in London, but now his name has run in London, but now his name has been erased from the cigar store in the Princess Theatre building, that was all his proud possession, and the only vestige of his former greatness consists of the picture of the race in which he is beating Daley at Hanlan's Point in I. C. A. C.

games.

Inside the store you can still buy a few pictures of Tom in his running. togs at two for 25 cents, but they're not going fast even at that bargain price.

For the present, however, a memory of the runner remains in that the Longboat special cigar, at four for a quarter, is still on sale, with a good representation of smiling Tom on the representation of siming from on the lid.

Tom was not in any sense a business man. When the store was purchased for him by the different interests around town, palpably to silence the cry of professionalism in sport against him, emanating from across the line, he looked to be in clover. But people would go and try the door only to find it locked and Tom elsewhere. This sort of thing could not last long, and the transient purchasers drifted back to their old haunts.

Then Tom secured a boy to look after it, but that was not a success either, and finally he store has drifted into the control of Charles Ross. There was practically no custom left, and the present occupants say they must leave the door open all day flong to overcome the bad impression left by the Indian's business methods. People coming into the store wanted to know why the "Tom Loopsboat"

People coming into the store wanted to know why the "Tom Longboat" was still on the window in big let-ters, and their removal three days later leaves only the bottom line, "Athletic Cigar Store."

British Columbia Fruit. British Columbia Fruit.

The Premier of British Columbia. has drawn attention to the development of the fruit-growing industry in that province. He claims that the Department of Agriculture, by arranging for the appearance of British Columbian fruit at the great exhibitions of the Empire, in which it has carried off the noblest premiums and highest awards, has rendered great assistance to the industry. The cohibits, the Premier adds, when sold at public auction, have defrayed every penny of the expenditure incurery penny of the expenditure incur-red. The Provincial Government will spare no effort to encourage the farm-ers and fruit-growers to attain all possible success. It extends all the protection it can to growers by a close supervision of nursery work, and by protection it can to growers by a close supervision of nursery work, and by a proper inspection of orchards. It is thought that Prof. Campbell's system of dry farming—that is, without irrigation—which has done so well in the semi-arid States of America, may prove eminently suitable also for the dry belt of British Columbia.

Wanted-A Job!

A well-known member of the Camadian Parliament had a hard time getting proper accommodation in Quebec during the festivities, in fact he claims that he hadn't a bed for his head or a square meal for the rest of him. He said to a reporter, whom

"Yes."

"Yes."
"Got enough to est and a place to sleep?"
"Sure!"
"Well, her would you like a more respectable han like myself for but-ler? I can draw corks fine and have number of good reference

"Sir, I'd have you know that I posess a family tree,"
"Then I'll bet it needs spraying."

Makes Broiling Easy

It is much more convenient to do your broiling by lifting this Key Plate, than to lift the cover or use the broiler door. You have more room and get the meat directly over the coals.

Notice the Low Warming Closet, a special feature of this year's "Peerless Peninsular" Ranges.

Daylight Oven, Adjustable Damper, Removable Grate Bars, Thermometer in ovenare only a few of the conveniences you should ask about.
