

On The Side

If an egg and a half cost four dollars and a half why not buy a hen?

Mr. Marconi might confer a favor upon Montreal by also making moist streets.

On second thought, March also came in like the Atlantic Ocean cut loose from its moorings.

There is enough water around now to gladden the heart of the hottest prohibitionist that ever lived.

Be charitable. Every ton of coal given to the poor in this world will be so much fuel saved for use in the next.

When you see a married man with his trousers pulled to his suspenders it's a sign that his wife belongs to a sewing society.

"Prince Henry needs sleep."—Telegraphic Despatch.

In that case why not arrange to have him visit Windsor.

The usual order of things is reversed in matrimonial warfare. First comes the surrender, then the engagement and last, but not least, the call to arms.

Regardless of how little genuine love they have for him the Boers are always careful to see that General Kitchener's supply of regrets never runs short.

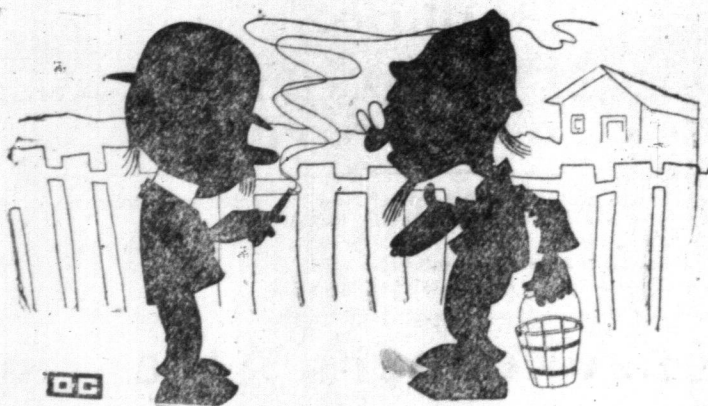

Now that Prince Henry's trip is nearly over, people in the States should pay more attention to the Jeffries-Fitzsimmons fight and other matters truly American.

The dreary blizzard days are over. Adieu ye icy streets! Thy treachery shall trap no more my unsuspecting feet.

The blossom-laden days are nigh. Their balmy breath I feel. And then an turned wrong end up by The smooth banana peel.

Flying is not a twentieth-century idea. As far back as 1273 Friar Bacon predicted that flying would "shortly" become a general practice and Bishop Wilkins in 1652 said:—

After the Local Regatta

City Engineer—Now, my good fellow, I think you'll need a bigger bucket than that to remove the sad sea waves, and real estate from Queen St.

"It will yet be as usual to hear a man call for his wings when he is going on a journey as it is now to hear him call for his boots."

A Boston man of the discreet age of 35 has married a coy, blushing but wealthy widow of 70 and her sons are harsh enough to insinuate that the husband is only after their mamma's money. Why this discrimination in the matter of sexes? Had the man been old and rich and the woman young and poor no one would object. Isn't it time men were emancipated? Can't a poor young man marry a rich old lady without causing the neighbors to talk, when if the sexes and conditions were reversed the world would not approve? Clearly a society to agitate for the rights of man to equality with woman in this respect is one of the crying needs of the new century.

LOCAL REGATTA.

The March thaw and juicy weather regatta club held its annual spring races on Queen street Tuesday afternoon, and they were highly successful. While the current was a little too strong in the centre for fast work, there were no upsets or drowning accidents.

The steamer City of Chatham and Detroit with about 2000 enthusiasts, kept the course clear until it tried to make a short cut over to William street got stuck in the real estate. There were three entries for the first race. It was a four leg run starting up Queen street, a boat to windward along William street, a close tack down King street and a home run to the athletic grounds. The finish was as follows:

1. Capt. Crow's tug.
2. Snail in Distress.
3. The Vic.

There were other events too numerous to mention, the prizes being distributed in the evening by the chairman of the good roads committee, who complimented the city engineer on the excellent condition of the roads.

The Law.

Of health has no uniform guardians of its peace. If it had there would be arrests innumerable in every restaurant every day of the year. Both in the quantity and quality of the food they eat and in the manner of its consumption men and women sin each day against the laws of health. Those who will not heed Nature's warnings cannot escape her punishments, and dyspepsia or stomach "trouble" is the inevitable penalty of careless eating.

There is no other medicine for diseases of the stomach and allied organs of digestion and nutrition which can compare with Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It cures these diseases perfectly and permanently, and enables the building up of the whole body into vigorous health.

"I took two bottles of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery for stomach trouble," writes Clarence Carney, Esq., of Taylorstown, London, Co. Va. "It did me so much good that I didn't take any more. I can eat most anything now. I am so well pleased with it I hardly know how to thank you for your kind information. I tried a whole lot of things before I wrote to you. There was a gentleman told me about your medicine, how it had cured him about thought I would try a bottle of it. I am glad I did, for I don't know what I would have done if it had not been for Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery."

DOVER.

F. Burke gave the event of the season last Thursday night, nearly all the young people of the vicinity were invited to sup the night fantastic. Taylor and Latham's orchestra furnished the music. Every one thoroughly enjoyed themselves. While Miss Anderson and Mr. Urquhart were going to the party Mr. Urquhart's team took fright and put them both in the bottom of the Baldoon ditch. They fortunately got off with only a severe shaking up and a good ducking. Mr. Urquhart's buggy was badly broken.

The ladies of this section are going to organize a Ladies Aid Society on Thursday afternoon at 2.30 at the residence of Mr. J. Urquhart. We wish them every success.

TESTIMONIAL

Kingsville, Feb. 4th, 1902

Mrs. Robt. Melosh, Kingsville, Ont.

In the year 1900 I was a great sufferer with muscular rheumatic, tried many remedies without reaping any benefit, for five months I could not get one night's rest, I could not remove my arm from my side until I was recommended by a friend to go to A. G. Adams for treatment, which I did and in a very short time was able to do my own work, in four weeks was restored to my natural health. I feel as if I cannot find words to express my feelings to Mr. A. G. Adams for what he has done for me.

MRS. R. MELOSH.

Essex, Ont., Dec. 29th, 1900

A. G. Adams, Esq., Dear friend,

Mrs. Rush tells me that I am to send you ten dollars for your most successful treatment of her case. You will be pleased to learn that she is really the new woman we read so much about. Your skillful discovery of her difficulty and methods of treatment looks almost like a miracle. She has passed from a living death to life. All pain and distress are gone, stomach and appetite are good and she is gaining flesh and cheerfulness. I thank you very much for your careful treatment, and wish you a Happy New Year. Yours sincerely

THOMAS RUSH.
