NEWS OF CANNING

M. D. Davidson, Inspector of schools for Kings Co., visited the following schools while a guest at the Waverley: Canning, Stream, Mt. Centreville, Fort Williams and Habitant. Mr. Davidson left on Saturday to spend Sunday in Aylesford.

Mr. Jacob Cohen, St. John, is a guest at the Waverley, and expects to open a store on Main Street.

Mr. William Hadfield, who underwent a serious operation in Montreal Hospital, has greatly improved, and is convalescing in Western Virginia, his many friends will be pleased to learn.

Rev. Thomas W. Hodgson, preached in the Methodist Church at both services on Sunday. Rev. W. Heiser conducted service in United Baptist Church and Rev. Gordon C. Brown held divine service in Christ Church, Canning, and in Kingsport. Rev. Mr. Crosby conducted the regular service in Kingsport Congregational church.

An announcement of interest to many Canning friends is the marriage, which took place on January 23, of Hilda Albert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Dingman, and Alfred Potter Bigelow, son of Mrs. Samuel Bigelow, formerly of Canning, now of Saskatchewan. The marriage was solemnized at the residence of the bride's parents, Saskatoon, Sask. Mr. and Mrs. Bigelow will be "At Home" in Teasdale, Sask., where they will reside.

Mr. Joseph McDonald, who for the past five months has been engaged in electrical work in Canning, left for Sydney, C. B. on Saturday, where he has been engaged by Messrs. W. H. McKay and Co. Mr. McDonald was a social favorite and will be much missed.

Miss Dora Schaffheitlin has returned from spending six weeks in Toronto guest of Mr. and Mrs. Steover.

Mrs. C. F. Reynolds is visiting in Halifax.

Troop Leader Billie Payzant has returned from Berlin, where he accompanied H. O. Eaman, Field Commissioner for Nova Scotia, who organized a Boy Scout Troop in that town.

Mr. William J. Melvin, who underwent a successful operation last week at the Victoria General Hospital, is improving.

Miss Elizabeth Whiteway, Kentville, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. James Curran.

The Annual Labrador Meeting of the Canning W. C. T. U., held at the home of Mrs. John Sandford on Thursday afternoon, March 15, was largely attended, president, Mrs. N. W. Eaton presiding.

The programme, a very interesting one, consisted of readings by Mrs. W. G. Heiser, Mrs. James Webster, Mrs. L. F. Blenkhorn, Miss Marian Eaton, relating to the great work that is being carried on by Dr. Grenfell and his assistants. At the close of the meeting, tea was served and a pleasant hour spent with our hostess.

The Debt Destroying League of United Baptist Church was delightfully entertained on Tuesday afternoon last week by the president Mrs. L. M. Ward. This was the monthly business meeting and at its close a social hour was enjoyed and tea served.

The Modern Pricilla Art Club met at the home of Mrs. Joseph Harris, the evening being greatly enjoyed.

What might have been a serious fire in the house of Mrs. W. H. Baxter, Tuesday morning, through a fire in the chimney which worked out through a prompt action of J. Thompson with a fire extinguisher. As water was not turned on the damage will be kept to a minimum.

Those who listened to the Rev. T. W. Hodgson speaking from the pulpit of the Methodist Church on Sunday, from the words found in the thirty-third and thirty-fourth verses of the thirty-first chapter of Jeremiah, were led to visualize a Christianized world, through the union of Christians. Mark the comprehensive yet exclusive word Christians, a union of all such, regardless of dogmas or creeds. In this union and this alone is no doubt the solution of the difficulties against which we are now contending.

Mr. Percy Kempton is instructing the Boy Scouts in basketry, and on Friday evening opened his classes. Mr. Miller Spinney assisted in military instruction, both of whom were much appreciated.

Mrs. Roy DeWolfe and son, Wolfville were guests this week of Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Eaton.

Mrs. Jacob Cohen, St. John, has rented the residence of Mr. Walter G. Jones.

SHEFFIELD MILLS

The funeral of the late Albert Kinsman, held from his late residence Wednesday afternoon, March 12, was a large and representative one. The service, a very comforting one, was conducted by Rev. Thomas W. Hodgson, who paid touching tributes to the life of the deceased who for almost a year had been laid aside by illness which was borne with great patience and Christian fortitude. The Quartette rendered two beautiful selections. The floral offerings were many and testified to the esteem with which the late Mr. Kinsman was held. The pall bearers were Messrs. John Kinsman, Ernest Kinsman, Reginald Kinsman, Perry Rand. Interment was at Hillaton.

Mrs. C. E. Kinsman is steadily recovering from her illness.

The Women's Institute held an enjoyable meeting at the home of the president, Mrs. W. W. Harris, on Wednesday of last week.

Mrs. Douglas Gossie, who has been visiting Mrs. Clarke Ross, is the guest of Mrs. John Ross, Habitant.

Mrs. Robert Clarke, who has spent the winter in Halifax, arrived in this week to spend some time with her son, Mr. Louis Clarke.

Mrs. David Ellis entertained on the anniversary of her birthday last week, at a delightful dinner party, the guests of honor being Mrs. Margeson and Mrs. John Magee, whose birthday anniversaries are on the same day.

Sam (on outside, looking in). "Look Leah, niggah, is yo' in 'o' life?"

Rastus (on inside, looking out). "Not me, I ain't, jes' Leah."

DRAMATIC CLUB GIVES SPLENDID PERFORMANCE

Canning Dramatic Club added another to its long list of successes, when on Tuesday evening, March 11th, "When A Man's Single" was presented to a capacity house in Canning. Amorens. The stage was decorated with flowers presenting an unusually attractive appearance, and the performance from beginning to end, reflected credit on the performers, and their director, Mrs. Reid Peltan.

Mrs. Frank Houston, Jr. made a charming niece, irresistible in her various moods cleverly portrayed, while Mrs. Alfred Ellis, as Nora the Irish maid, was a source of delight. Mrs. Rufus Eaton took the part of Mrs. Briscoe, the scheming society leader, in a finished manner, while her daughter Evelyn, Miss Josephine Harris, received much applause from an appreciative audience. Messrs. Rudolph and Otto Schaffheitlin, as Jim Horton, the farseeing farmer, and Pete Adams his neighbor, were at their best, and would have done credit to professionals. Mr. Gordon Fraser as Paul Briscoe, and Mr. Lewis Clarke, Paul's half brother, took their parts splendidly.

The Vocal Quartette composed of Mrs. (Dr.) F. F. Chute, Mrs. Walter R. Dickie, Messrs. Gerald McElhiney and Scott Blenkhorn, added greatly to the pleasure of the evening. Canning Orchestra, under the direction of Mrs. Charles Simmet, is always a source of pleasure, and on this occasion, was at its best, the programme being very pleasing, and well rendered. The personnel is as follows: Violin—Mrs. (Dr.) F. F. Chute, Mrs. Walter Dickie, Rev. Thomas W. Hodgson, Dr. Chute, Messrs. Otto Schaffheitlin, Billie Payzant, Viola, Miss Dora Schaffheitlin; Cello, Mr. Rudolph Schaffheitlin; Cornet, Mr. Charles Cox; Flute, Mr. Mullett.

WE ARE MOVERS

Maritime bred people, probably owing to proximity of shipping ports, which though not always furnishing point of exit, certainly inculcate them with wander lust, are noted travellers. Nova Scotia ships calling at any and all foreign trade centres find their Blue-nooners.

While this may be good for the world as a whole, it has undoubtedly checked the growth of our own country and interfered with stability of communities, certain families becoming extinct.

Years ago the name of Pines was well represented in Canning, today not one of the name lives in the town, the nearest being Joseph H., son of John O. Pines, who has large holdings and a residence at the corner of Sheffield Street. Another son, Richard, spent his life in Ceylon. Luke Pines lived in the house next to Seminary on Bigelow Street fifty years ago, his daughter, Mrs. Jacob Lockhart, living there in the house built by Edward Harris, now occupied by Lady Borden; a second daughter Mrs. Wm. Coffill, living in a residence where Mrs. A. B. Baxter now resides; another daughter Mrs. Dickie Schaffheitlin, in the house then standing at rear of E. P. Grant's house; and his son, John H., living in the upper part of the building built by him on Main Street and running a general store underneath. In the year 1874 John H. Pines, whose quaint sayings are still remembered by the older generation, built the Brig. "J. A. Horne" at the Wash Bowl back of the present residence of Chas. E. Ellis, and in 1877 rented his store to E. Bigelow, Sons & Co. Later this was bought by the late G. W. Parker and is now occupied by L. W. Slack.

The oldest daughter of John H. Pines, Mina, married Capt. Lewis H. Davidson who lived in Hantsport some years, and whose death was reported in Massachusetts last week. There remained of the family, consisting of Fred, Henry, Annie, Susan, Edward, Lina and Rupert, moved to Mass. at the death of Mr. Pines where Henry gained some distinction as an inventor of building devices. Of all the families mentioned Mrs. Jacob Lockhart, Jr. is the only representative now living here. Other families of Pines have merged into the names of Woodworth, Cox and Borden.

A TRIBUTE

One of Canning's sons of whom we can be justly proud has passed on as reported from Colorado last week, in the person of Dr. Augustus Tupper Clark. Beginning his practice at Parrsboro when a young man he was a true laborer there until some thirty years ago. Since which time he has practiced at Calais, Me.

Being another of the adopted sons of Cumberland County and being in touch with him during the last ten years of his residence there I wish to express the results of my observation and association. A skilful practitioner, he gave untiring effort to the relief of his patients, never studying their bank balance or looking at his watch when they called. If his horses were weary his friend the livery man might miss a team from the stable and would understand it. Personally he never appeared to weary.

One afternoon in the late fall we were detained at Kingsport by failure of the steamer in making the trip, and both being anxious to get to Parrsboro without further delay engaged a passage in the Schooner "Seafarer", commanded by the late Capt. Randolph Morris.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Holt entertained at an enjoyable meeting of Hillaton Bridge Club, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Kinman, who have been ill, have recovered from a severe attack of Gripe.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Clarke entertained the Rook Club, a delightful evening being enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilmet Irving entertained at a delightful Candy pull on Friday evening, the guests voting it one of the best. Music and supper were enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Fraser, held a delightful dance on Saturday evening, which was enjoyed by a large number.

We regret Mrs. Dixon McDonald slipped on the ice last week, and fractured her ankle.

Rev. Thomas W. Hodgson conducted service in Union Church, on Sabbath afternoon, a large number listening to a fine discourse.

We are glad to know that good news has been received of Mrs. Melbourne Corkum, who underwent a successful operation at the Victoria General Hospital, Halifax, on Thursday.

Scotts Bay Division held an interesting meeting last week, the programme, being a very fine one, enjoyed by a large number.

The Annual Thankoffering meeting of the Union Mission Band, of Upper Canada Baptist and Presbyterian churches was held in the Baptist Church, Sabbath evening, March 16, the leader Mrs. (Rev.) G. A. Logan presiding. The service opened with the Doxology, and the 23rd Psalm, repeated in unison, followed with prayer by Rev. G. A. Logan. The following programme, a very beautiful one, was well rendered, from the finest to the oldest member of the Band, and reflected credit on the leader, Miss Wilson and Miss Power, assistants.

Exercise—Our Thank Offering—10 children of the Band.

Recitation—Margaret Hardman. Chorus—"Little Stars"—Band. Recitation—"A Good Boy"—Avon Parker.

Exercise—"Our Lord, and His Harvest"—Alec. Hardman Dorothy Berger.

Recitation—"The Little Children of Japan"—Winifred Belcher. Local Solo—Leone Rafuse. Recitation—"What Daddy Says to Me"—Alec. Hardman.

While the offering was being taken, "Jesus Bids Us Shine" was sung delightfully by the school.

Quartet—"Little Brown Eyes"—Leone Rafuse, Winifred Belcher, Gynieve Hudson, Mildred Hudson.

Recitation—John Berger. A very fine program entitled "Heralds of the King" was then presented by the members of the Band. The various nationalities of Canada were cleverly represented, with the Herald of Spencers Island. The schooner got away from Pickett wharf late in the tide and picked us up at Kingsport. Southeast wind increasing on passage we found ourselves off Partridge Island in a gale with too little water to get in the river, and after a time with a vessel dragging her anchor. Any one who has been on a lee shore and has felt the thump of his craft on the bottom can appreciate the sensation. After an hour or so of extreme danger the rising tide enabled the vessel to get inside light, with a tattered remnant of mainsail, but the night was unforgettable by all on board. On that occasion we found and admired the courage of Dr. Clark.

Coupled with his pleasing personality, the quality of true manliness which we have noted, will account for the genuine affection felt for Dr. Clark on the North Shore and for the sorrow at the final parting.

KINGSPOET

Kingsport Whist Club held a delightful meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred West, Mrs. A. W. Dickie, won the ladies prize and A. B. Taylor, the gentlemen's.

Mrs. E. I. Loomer, entertained delightfully at the tea hour last week and was assisted by Mrs. George Bigelow, and Mrs. Stewart Loomer.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Dickie entertained Kingsport and Medford, Bridge Club, the winners of the ladies' prize being Miss Aileen Dickie, and of the gentlemen's Mr. Thomas Ellis.

Miss Juanita Loomer has returned from Kentville where she visited Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tupper, and Berwick, where she was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Morse.

Mr. George Greene, Halifax, spent a few days in town last week.

HILLATON

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Holt entertained at an enjoyable meeting of Hillaton Bridge Club, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Kinman, who have been ill, have recovered from a severe attack of Gripe.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Clarke entertained the Rook Club, a delightful evening being enjoyed.

MARCH 21
BLESS THE LORD, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits: who redeemeth thy life from destruction: who crowneth thee with lovingkindness and tender mercies.—Psalm 103:1,4.

MARCH 22
I SOUGHT THE LORD, and he heard me, and delivered me from all my fears. This poor man cried, and the Lord heard him, and saved him out of all his troubles.—Psalm 34:4,6.

MARCH 23
TRUST IN THE LORD, and do good: so shalt thou dwell in the land, and verily thou shalt be fed. Delight thyself also in the Lord, and he shall give thee the desires of thine heart.—Psalm 37:3,4.

MARCH 24
—THE RIGHTeous shall inherit the land, and dwell therein for ever. The law of his God is in his heart: none of his steps shall slide.—Psalm 37:29, 31.

MARCH 25
PURE RELIGION and undefiled before God and the Father is this. To visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and to keep himself unstained from the world.—James 1:27.

MARCH 26
HE SHALL FEED HIS FLOCK LIKE A SHEPHERD: HE SHALL GATHER THE LAMBS WITH HIS ARM, AND CARRY THEM IN HIS BOSOM.—Isaiah 40:11.

MARCH 27
GIVE, and it shall be given unto you: good measure, pressed down, and shaken together, and running over, shall men give into your bosom. For with the same measure that ye mete withal it shall be measured to you again.—Luke 6:38.

NEWSPAPER ADVERTISING

"Diogenes" in the Saturday Review, Victoria, has this to say on the subject of newspaper advertising that every business man who wishes to succeed should read and ponder:

"The first privilege of a newspaper is to afford the whole community the widest possible opening for publicity, at the lowest rates, consistent with sound business. Liberal, but discriminating advertising is the sure foundation of any paper, and I venture to think there can be no better place for an advertisement than the pages of a newspaper, where it is accessible to all and offensive to none."

"The ad is as its record shows. The Queen of all inventions. By it the smallest business grows. When one of us or it bestows Our business-like attentions."

Minard's Liniment Relieves Colds, bringing their "Tidings of Great Joy". The scene was a very interesting and impressive one, and enjoyed by all. The saluting of the flag, and the National Anthem brought to a close a programme that will long remain with us as a delight. Collection amounted to $7.00.

STUDENTS AGAINST DRINK-EXPULSION

Expulsion from college was recommended by the Associated Students of the State College of Washington as a punishment for any student found intoxicated, in possession of liquor, or in any way involved in liquor traffic. The recommendation was embodied in a communication to the administration, to voice the sentiment of the general student body, roused particularly by the arrest of two students on a "boot-legging" charge.

Telephone and get in Ahead of the Spring Calls!

Now—today—is a good time to get after orders for spring goods from your country customer.

His stocktaking is over; he knows the thin places in his stock; and, like yourself, he's awaiting the beginning of the spring business hustle—in point of fact he's in just the ideal mood to place a substantial order for goods that appeal to him.

Go to your Telephone, then; call your customer over the Long Distance Lines; tell him spring has come and ask him what he needs. He is familiar with your staples and you can describe new goods to him. Note down what he wants and ask him to Telephone any omissions.

That's how to get the bulk of his business. If you put off till later, on when the roads are dotted with travelling salesmen, your share of the business is likely to be much smaller.

It would pay you to arrange to finance a weekly Long Distance Call from him covering orders for articles to meet his additional wants.
