the road of the horse was knowned down, but not injured. A pleasing event tools place during the day in the shape of a presentation to Mr. George Smith. Mr. Smith is piper of the Lorne Rifles (Halton) and he was present-ed by Col. Allan, on behalf of that bat-talion |with - a blue silk bannergite with silver border and fringe. In the centre appear a crown, in which are the figures 20, indicating the number of the Halton Bat-talion. Above the crown is the word "Lorne" and below it "Rifles." It forms a handsome addition to the decora-tions on Mr. Smith's pipes, and he is proud of it. but not injured.

WE don't hear so much now about Mowat's "go"-ing, but it is probable he will "go" on governing the country honestly and justly with a majority of 17 members in the House.

It is plain the Mowat Government have outlived their day. They are no longer Reformers; indulgence in the sweets of office has made them proud and domineering .- Spectator. TRUE, O King! They have been rather domineering for the past few weeks. They have domineered Toryisy out of five constituencies, and increased the Government majority in the House. What is W. R. Meredith about that he cannot prevent such outrageous conduct. Has he lost Lieutenant Weekes and his package of strong persuasion ?

A TORY organ says of Sir John's Fishery arrangements: _"Nothing has been given away on the part of Canada. The same privileges accorded to American fishing vessels in our waters are accorded Canadian vessels in their waters." With the exception that our fishermen are not allowed to fish there while the Americans have the run of ours, and that whereas Canadian fish and fish products were hitherto admitted to the United States duty free, there and found their principal market, they are now excluded. Oh, no! Sir John does not give away anything. He simply lets it be taken.

REPLYING to the New York Sun which advises mercy and clemency in the case of Louis Riel, the Hamilton Spectator, which ought to know the Government's mind about the matter if any newspaper does, says :

if any newspaper does, says : We would like to oblige the Sun, if pos-sible. One Mr. John Brown once kicked up a little row, much like Riel's, in the United States, and we all remember how he was treated. If the Sim pleases, Canada will follow the example of the United States as set forth in Mr. Brown's case. Mercy, in Mr. Riel's case of 1869, was not infinitely better than vindictive justice. Mercy abown then got Mr. Riel into a bad sora be during the present year. Mr. Riel must hang. From present appearances. however

From present appearances, however there is every indication that Riel will considerably older before he is hung.

APITAL.

A high financial authority of this country recently pronounced these three—Character, Capacity, Capital as the chief elements of success in the career of men, and while all were considered requisite, he put the relative value of each in the order in which it is placed. Ap-plying this principle to the busi-ness of Dry Goods (it means character first. Character that makes a man's name the synonym for probity, honor and commercial safety. Character that will cause a man to adhere to truth even at an apparent sacrific Character that will scorn hypocritical pretensions and deceitful methods. Character that ensures a good repute, for a man is generally

Character that will make a man inflexible to principle, yet kindly considerate and sympathetic to-wards all.

Character whose past record makes a man's statements worthy of credence.

Character that will demand and receive the confidence of those with whom he comes in contact. Capacity second. Capacity to di-rect, control, to master details as well as acquired a broad view of general principles general principles. Capacity to keep expenditure within the healthy scope of income. Capacity to understand the wants and desires of the times. Capacity to say a decided "yes" or "no" as occasion requires. Capacity to com-prehend and act on the fact that this world was created to be occu-pied by a few others besides the man himself. THE London Free Press talks unmitigated bosh when it says that "He (Sir John Macdonald) at all events had no interest in putting a gag in their mouths, but it was rather to the advantage of his side of the House to ventilate the subject of the Franchise Bill to the utmost. The better it was understood the more popular it was likely to become-as in fact it has become-and the less ground the Opposition would have to stand upon. Anything more defiantly contradictory of the truth than this we have seldom read. The London organ knows as well as we and most of its readers do, that Sir John Macdonald introduced

Not until this had been done did the Tory organs venture to give their readers even a synopsis of the measure, which can never be characterized by any other language than that it is a barefaced dishonour able attempt to "dish" the Opposi-tion in Onterio, and especially certain "actives members of it. The reason why this new system necessitates our selling cheap is because we cannot offer our customers a long term of credit as others do, and it is not to be expected that people will buy from us and give us cash, if they could buy as cheaply from others on credit. But they cannot and they are finding out more and more that it pays them to bring their money to the Lion, the great cash house.

We have some big drives to offer in a few days, watch our advertisement, our forte is not advertising, but selling, however, we will always try and keep our business prominently before the public through the papers, while our great stronghold for advertising shall be through our Cheap Goods.
