During the tilting at the ring a boy selling strawberries, in his haste to get out of the road of the horse was knocked down, but not injured.

A pleasing event took place during the day in the shape of a presentation to Mr. George Smith. Mr. Smith is piper of the Lorne Rifles (Halton) and he was presented by Col. Allan, on behalf of that battalion with a blue silk banneratte with silver border and fringe. In the centre appear a crown, in which are the figures 20, indicating the number of the Halton Battalion. Above the crown is the word "Lorne" and below it "Rifles." It forms a handsome addition to the decorations on Mr. Smith's pipes, and he is proud of it.

tions on Mr. Smith's pipes, short of it.

The tug of war did not prove altogether satisfactory. The fact that men were chosen on the grounds in civilian's clothes for the Artillery team looked bad, and it all these men belonged to the brigade the marching of some of them did not do credit to the Artillery by any means. It has to be said to the credit of Captain Mutrie that he picked his team from the Eramosa Company without going through the Battalion for them, that every man wore his uniform and that each one marched like a bona fide soldier.

Guelph Daily Mercury

THURSDAY EVE'G, JULY 2, 1885. WE don't hear so much now about Mowat's "go"-ing, but it is probable he will "go" on governing the country honestly and justly with a majority of 17 members in the House.

It is plain the Mowat Government have outlived their day. They are no longer Reformers; indulgence in the sweets of office has made them proud and domineering .- Spectator. TRUE, O King! They have been rather domineering for the past few weeks. They have domineered Toryisy out of five constituencies, and increased the Government majority in the House. What is W. R. Meredith about that he cannot prevent such outrageous conduct. Has he lost Lieutenant Weekes and his package of

A Tory organ says of Sir John's Fishery arrangements: _"Nothing has been given away on the part of Canada. The same privileges accorded to American fishing vessels in our waters are accorded Canadian vessels in their waters." With the exception that our fishermen are not allowed to fish there while the Americans have the run of ours, and that whereas Canadian fish and fish products were hitherto admitted to the United States duty free, there and found their principal market, they are now excluded. Oh, no! Sir John does not give away anything. He simply lets it be taken.

REPLYING to the New York Sun which advises mercy and clemency in the case of Louis Riel, the Hamilton Spectator, which ought to know the Government's mind about the matter if any newspaper does, says:

if any newspaper does, says:

We would like to oblige the Sun, if possible. One Mr. John Brown once kicked up a little row, much like Riel's, in the United States, and we all remember how he was treated. If the Sun pleases, Canada will follow the example of the United States as set forth in Mr. Brown's case. Mercy, in Mr. Riel's case of 1869, was not infinitely better than vindictive justice. Mercy shown then got Mr. Riel into a bad sorale during the present year. Mr. Riel must hang.

From present appearances, however

From present appearances, however there is every indication that Riel will pe considerably older before he is hung.

THE London Free Press talks unmitigated bosh when it says that "He (Sir John Macdonald) at all events had no interest in putting a gag in their mouths, but it was rather to the advantage of his side of the House to ventilate the subject of the Franchise Bill to the utmost. The better it was understood the more popular it was likely to become—as in fact it has become-and the less ground the Opposition would shave to stand upon." Anything more defiantly contradictory of the truth than this we have seldom read. The London organ knows as well as we and most of its readers do, that Sir John Macdonald introduced the Franchise Bill to which the senremotions from Miss Robins' room to Miss Nelles'—George Walker, Wm. Burkholder, Wm. Shortreed, John Chamber-lain, Wm. Woolings, Albert Osborne, Term Miss Robin's room to Miss Nelles'—George Walker, Wm. Burkholder, Wm. Shortreed, John Chamber-lain, Wm. If this was not an attempt to gag the Opposition and to prevent the discussion and ventilation of its provisions, the F. P. might as well assert that the Indian Franchise and the Revising Barrister clauses are not a part and parcel of the measure. Had the organisaid "the better it was understood the more unpopular it beright. Had it also added that "We (the great subsidized F. P.) were ashamed of it until, through the determined efforts of the Opposition, it was licked into quarter decent shape and until the remembrance of good things received and the expectation of Julia Macdonald.

Not until this had been done did the Tory organs venture to give their readers even a synopsis of the measure, which can never be characterized by any other language than that it is a barefaced dishonour able attempt to "dish" the Opposition in Ontario, and especially certain active members of it. Like many other unjust pieces of legislation, it may yet prove a boomerang to strike the heads of those who hurled it.

The Grip Printing and Publishing Company are about to issue Part No. 1 of their "Souvenir Edition" of The Illustrated War News. This edition will—contain a complete history of the Rebellion, and will be issued in two parts, each containing 32 pp., of which 12 will be illustrations. The history has been carefully written by the author of "The War in the Soudan," and the engravings gotten up in the best possible style. There will be a large two-page illustration, printed in colours, of the principal officers at the front, and the cover will be also printed in colours and will form a yery attractive title page for the edition. Each part would make an ordinary book of 120 pages, and when bound in book form will be one of the most attractive mementos of the Rebellion. The price of each number will be 50c., and we predict a large sale. Part 1 will be ready on the 3rd July and can be procured of all Booksellers, or from the Publishers.

The Lion has committed itself to a system of doing the Lion has commetted the above the transfer of the very nature of the case our selling goods cheaply at the same time enables us to do so. The reason why this new system necessitates our selling cheap is because we cannot offer our customers a long term of credit as others do, and it is not to be expected that people will buy from us and give us cash, if they could buy as cheaply from others on credit. But they cannot and they are finding out more and more that it pays them to bring their money to the Lion, the great cash house.

A high financial authority of this country recently pronounced these three—Character, Capacity, Cavital as the chief elements of success in the career of men, and while all were considered requisite, he put the relative value of each in the added in which is placed. the relative value of each in the order in which it is placed. Applying this principle to the business of Dry Goods it means character first. Character, that makes a man's name the synonym for probity, honor and commercial safety. Character that will cause a way to adhere to that will cause a man to adhere to truth even at an apparent sacrifice. Character that will scorn hypocritical pretensions and deceitful methods. Character that ensures a good repute, for a man is generally estimated at his true worth.

Character that will make a man inflexible to principle, yet kindly considerate and sympathetic towards all.

Character whose past record makes a man's statements worthy

Character that will demand and receive the confidence of those with whom he comes in contact. Capacity second. Capacity to direct, control, to master details as well as acquirel a broad view of general principles.

general principles.

Capacity to keep expenditure within the healthy scope of income. Capacity to understand the wants and desires of the times. Capacity to say a decided "yes" or "no" as occasion requires. Capacity to comprehend and act on the fact that this world was created to be occupied by a few others besides the man himself.

Capital third. Capital to meet Capital third. Capital to meet Capital third. Capital to meet engagements promptly and punctually, to take advantage of every benefit accruing therefrom and of every phase of the market. Capital that will open every door and avenue to the man of business, and cause him to stand firm during times of depression and difficulty-These three are all great, but the These three are all great, but the greatest of them all is Character.
