LOCAL AND PERSONAL ITEMS

Much interest is still being taken in the evangelistic services in the U. B. church and the services are being given earnest attention by large crowds. On Sunday last the morning subject was "Centreville's Greatest Need" which the preacher portrayed as being Home Religion. The subject of the evening service was "How the Thief on the Cross was Saved." Each of these topics was presented in a most interesting manner. During the present week services have been held on Tuesday and Friday evenings. The series will close with the two Sunday services, morning and evening. Much evidence of good has been manifested during the month's campaign just past. The subjects for Sunday 13th will be, at 11 a.m., "The Down Grade" at 7:30 p.m., "What Healed Neuman?"

Charles Wilkinson was summoned to Fredericton last week on account of the serious illness of his brother, T. S. Wilkinson. Fortunately he found the crisis past before his arrival and his brother is now well on the road to recovery. George Wilkinson of Minto is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Wilkinson. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Boyer of Florenceville were the guests on Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Boyer. A. J. Lee spent last week in Bangor, called either through the critical illness of his brother, a resident of that city. He returned on Friday. Miss Portia Reid has resigned her position in the Bank of Nova Scotia here. Her place will be taken by Miss Margaret Campbell. Miss Doris West was confined to the house last week with a severe cold. Miss Helen Harold returned last week from Hawkebury. Miss Eva Alexander was the guest of F. A. Jones and family last week at their home in Knoxford.

The Jas-En-Up orchestra gave another dance in the Opera House on Friday evening which was much enjoyed by those present. A large sleigh load of people from Bridgewater were present and enjoyed the evening with the local one stoppers. Mrs. Sydney Hagerman of Hartland is visiting her son, H. R. Hagerman at his home here. Miss Marion White, R. N., of Presque Isle, is spending a few days with her mother, Mrs. Alice White. Mrs. Chas. Cliff was a visitor in Minto last week, the guest of her son, D. Fred Cliff. David Burr spent last Sunday at Minto. On Saturday the United Farmers were well represented, when they held a big meeting in the Farmers' Hall here, which was addressed by T. W. Caldwell, M. P., on the topics of the day. The personnel of the U. F. Store served tea and cakes on Saturday afternoon and some absorbed so much King Cole that they got a regular tea-jag.

J. Kenneth of St. John was in town last week in the interest of his monumental work. Miss Mabel Giddens of Woodstock spent the week-end with Miss Laura Wilkinson. H. M. Martell, D. O., of Woodstock spent Monday and Tuesday of this week at the Centreville Hotel. Willard Carr of Woodstock spent the week-end the guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Ballou. D. A. Campbell of Hartland was in town on Friday. A. A. Barter of Hartland made a business call on the patrons of his firm here on Friday last. Rev. Hugh Miller attended a meeting of promoters for the Mount Allison campaign fund at East Florenceville last week.

Chaps—Read This

Once you know how "chaps" are caused, you will appreciate why your skin needs Zam-Buk. The keen frosty winds of winter and early spring dry up the skin—make it hard, brittle and without elasticity. Thus the outer tissues break open into smarting cracks and painful sores. That's how the trouble starts.

In cracked hands, chills, frost-bite, eczema and other obstinate skin troubles, use nothing but Zam-Buk. This unique healing balm, derived from a blending of rich, herbal essences supplies the skin's deficiency of natural oils. If your trouble is on the hands, use Zam-Buk at night and slip on a pair of old gloves with Zam-Buk smeared inside. This precious balm will soothe away pain, inflammation and irritation, and grow new soft flexible skin.

Redness, roughness, smarting or soreness is readily healed through Zam-Buk's refined herbal ingredients being absorbed into the underlying tissues. Zam-Buk is powerfully antiseptic. The germs of skin trouble simply can't exist wherever it penetrates.

Keep Zam-Buk always at hand for dealing with cuts, burns, scalds, scap sores, ulcers, abscesses, piles, eczema, poisoned wounds, salt rheum and all skin sores and injuries. All dealers 50c. box, 3 for $1.50. For TRIAL SAMPLE send 1c. stamp to Zam-Buk Co., Toronto.

WINDSOR

Mrs. W. Forrest and Arthur Tedford received the sad news of their sister, Miss Wagon bridge's death Friday night. The funeral was held in the church there—Ed Gordonville. Mr. and Mrs. Forrest and Mr. Tedford and wife attended.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Dickinson of Hopedale are visiting his brothers, H. L. and P. E. Dickinson and their families in this place.

Mrs. H. A. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Forrest, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Dickinson spent a pleasant social evening with Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Dickinson last Tuesday night.

Miss Mable Forrest is teaching our school this term.

Hanford Thompson who has been visiting relatives and friends here has returned to his home in Richmond.
