

AROUND THE CITY

(Thursday's Daily) The few men that the best crop in the city were taken in this winter. The blocks are from two feet to thirty inches thick, and the ice is of the purest kind. Between twenty and forty tons are stored every day.

(Friday's Daily) Four teachers in the public schools are unable to attend to their duties today, suffering from the grippe. One drunk constituted the entire business at the police court this morning. He was given the usual $5 fine.

(Saturday's Daily) There will be an examination for candidates for preliminary and final examination Dominion land surveys in the Empire Block, commencing Tuesday next at 9:30 a.m. The city commissioners have voted the Lorimer Telephone Co. that their contract has been cancelled and that the city will be open until the 18th next to receive a further offer from this or other companies.

(Sunday's Daily) The board of trade has had a great number of applications from outside points asking for the Edmonton Bulletin Christmas number, which they have been using as literature of the west. The secretary claims he could have used a thousand of them in the same way.

(Monday's Daily) The charge of obtaining money by false pretences from the British-American Insurance Company for insurance on his stock and hardware store, preferred against Edward Morgan, of Mannville, was dismissed by Mr. Justice Harvey at the Supreme court this morning. The charge of setting fire to his own store is being kept by the judge.

(Tuesday's Daily) Dr. Thom, of Vancouver, is a guest at the King Edward. J. K. Cornwall left this morning on the C. P. R. for the coast. R. R. Keely, city engineer, has gone to Chicago and Milwaukee on a ten days' trip.

(Wednesday's Daily) The coroner's inquest into the death of a man who was killed by a horse on the street, was held at the coroner's office this morning. The jury returned a verdict of accidental death.

(Thursday's Daily) The coroner's inquest into the death of a man who was killed by a horse on the street, was held at the coroner's office this morning. The jury returned a verdict of accidental death.

CITY LOSER CASE

(Friday's Daily) Mr. Justice Scott handed out a decision this morning in favor of the plaintiff with costs, in the case of Frank E. Goode vs. the City of Edmonton, a motion for judgment upon a special case stated by the parties. The motion was made recently in chambers by counsel for the plaintiff.

(Saturday's Daily) The city commissioners have voted the Lorimer Telephone Co. that their contract has been cancelled and that the city will be open until the 18th next to receive a further offer from this or other companies.

(Sunday's Daily) The board of trade has had a great number of applications from outside points asking for the Edmonton Bulletin Christmas number, which they have been using as literature of the west. The secretary claims he could have used a thousand of them in the same way.

(Monday's Daily) The charge of obtaining money by false pretences from the British-American Insurance Company for insurance on his stock and hardware store, preferred against Edward Morgan, of Mannville, was dismissed by Mr. Justice Harvey at the Supreme court this morning. The charge of setting fire to his own store is being kept by the judge.

(Tuesday's Daily) Dr. Thom, of Vancouver, is a guest at the King Edward. J. K. Cornwall left this morning on the C. P. R. for the coast. R. R. Keely, city engineer, has gone to Chicago and Milwaukee on a ten days' trip.

(Wednesday's Daily) The coroner's inquest into the death of a man who was killed by a horse on the street, was held at the coroner's office this morning. The jury returned a verdict of accidental death.

(Thursday's Daily) The coroner's inquest into the death of a man who was killed by a horse on the street, was held at the coroner's office this morning. The jury returned a verdict of accidental death.

(Friday's Daily) The coroner's inquest into the death of a man who was killed by a horse on the street, was held at the coroner's office this morning. The jury returned a verdict of accidental death.

(Saturday's Daily) The coroner's inquest into the death of a man who was killed by a horse on the street, was held at the coroner's office this morning. The jury returned a verdict of accidental death.

BONSPIEL IN WETASKIWIN

(Thursday's Daily) The curfew hospital at Wetaskiwin is rapidly gaining a close. The various companies of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, Alberta and British Columbia, the Northwest Mounted Police, and the Yukon. There was a meeting of the board of directors of the hospital on the 7th inst. The need of more men was imperative.

(Friday's Daily) The coroner's inquest into the death of a man who was killed by a horse on the street, was held at the coroner's office this morning. The jury returned a verdict of accidental death.

(Saturday's Daily) The coroner's inquest into the death of a man who was killed by a horse on the street, was held at the coroner's office this morning. The jury returned a verdict of accidental death.

(Sunday's Daily) The coroner's inquest into the death of a man who was killed by a horse on the street, was held at the coroner's office this morning. The jury returned a verdict of accidental death.

(Monday's Daily) The coroner's inquest into the death of a man who was killed by a horse on the street, was held at the coroner's office this morning. The jury returned a verdict of accidental death.

(Tuesday's Daily) The coroner's inquest into the death of a man who was killed by a horse on the street, was held at the coroner's office this morning. The jury returned a verdict of accidental death.

(Wednesday's Daily) The coroner's inquest into the death of a man who was killed by a horse on the street, was held at the coroner's office this morning. The jury returned a verdict of accidental death.

(Thursday's Daily) The coroner's inquest into the death of a man who was killed by a horse on the street, was held at the coroner's office this morning. The jury returned a verdict of accidental death.

(Friday's Daily) The coroner's inquest into the death of a man who was killed by a horse on the street, was held at the coroner's office this morning. The jury returned a verdict of accidental death.

WORK OF THE DREAMER

Last of Regicides in Portugal Has Been Identified. Lisbon, Feb. 6.—Queen Amelie receives only her very close intimates, but made an exception in favor of the wife of the foreign minister. The latter remarked that her eyes were dry. "We have no time to spare," replied the queen, "I am a daughter of France."

(Friday's Daily) The coroner's inquest into the death of a man who was killed by a horse on the street, was held at the coroner's office this morning. The jury returned a verdict of accidental death.

(Saturday's Daily) The coroner's inquest into the death of a man who was killed by a horse on the street, was held at the coroner's office this morning. The jury returned a verdict of accidental death.

(Sunday's Daily) The coroner's inquest into the death of a man who was killed by a horse on the street, was held at the coroner's office this morning. The jury returned a verdict of accidental death.

(Monday's Daily) The coroner's inquest into the death of a man who was killed by a horse on the street, was held at the coroner's office this morning. The jury returned a verdict of accidental death.

(Tuesday's Daily) The coroner's inquest into the death of a man who was killed by a horse on the street, was held at the coroner's office this morning. The jury returned a verdict of accidental death.

(Wednesday's Daily) The coroner's inquest into the death of a man who was killed by a horse on the street, was held at the coroner's office this morning. The jury returned a verdict of accidental death.

(Thursday's Daily) The coroner's inquest into the death of a man who was killed by a horse on the street, was held at the coroner's office this morning. The jury returned a verdict of accidental death.

(Friday's Daily) The coroner's inquest into the death of a man who was killed by a horse on the street, was held at the coroner's office this morning. The jury returned a verdict of accidental death.

RETURNS SHOW GOOD INCREASE

Financial Returns for Dominion for January Show Increase of $304,337. Ottawa, Feb. 8.—The financial statement of the Dominion for the month of January, and for the first ten months of the current fiscal year shows an increase of $304,337 in the total revenue over last month, as compared with January, 1907, and an increase of $9,374,542 for the ten months. The total expenditure on the consolidated fund account for the ten months was $56,332,534, an increase of $10,650,229. Of this increase $2,033,244 is chargeable to January figures for the payment of subsidy increases to provinces amounting to $1,500,000, and of the interest charges on the public debt totalling $2,623,450, both falling due last month.

(Friday's Daily) The coroner's inquest into the death of a man who was killed by a horse on the street, was held at the coroner's office this morning. The jury returned a verdict of accidental death.

(Saturday's Daily) The coroner's inquest into the death of a man who was killed by a horse on the street, was held at the coroner's office this morning. The jury returned a verdict of accidental death.

(Sunday's Daily) The coroner's inquest into the death of a man who was killed by a horse on the street, was held at the coroner's office this morning. The jury returned a verdict of accidental death.

(Monday's Daily) The coroner's inquest into the death of a man who was killed by a horse on the street, was held at the coroner's office this morning. The jury returned a verdict of accidental death.

(Tuesday's Daily) The coroner's inquest into the death of a man who was killed by a horse on the street, was held at the coroner's office this morning. The jury returned a verdict of accidental death.

(Wednesday's Daily) The coroner's inquest into the death of a man who was killed by a horse on the street, was held at the coroner's office this morning. The jury returned a verdict of accidental death.

(Thursday's Daily) The coroner's inquest into the death of a man who was killed by a horse on the street, was held at the coroner's office this morning. The jury returned a verdict of accidental death.

(Friday's Daily) The coroner's inquest into the death of a man who was killed by a horse on the street, was held at the coroner's office this morning. The jury returned a verdict of accidental death.

PEARY'S NEXT VOYAGE

Washington, Feb. 7.—Captain Robert E. Peary, the Arctic explorer, called on President Roosevelt yesterday. Speaking about his trip north, he said: "I will leave New York on July 1 upon my next expedition. I shall work my way north, gathering men and supplies until I reach Cape Sheridan, where I will spend the winter, ready for a dash for the pole the following summer. It will be impossible to proceed further by the time we reach Cape Sheridan on account of darkness. At this point, which is on the coast of Greenland, the sun sets on October 12 and does not rise again until March 1. Nothing, of course, can be done on account of darkness."

(Friday's Daily) The coroner's inquest into the death of a man who was killed by a horse on the street, was held at the coroner's office this morning. The jury returned a verdict of accidental death.

(Saturday's Daily) The coroner's inquest into the death of a man who was killed by a horse on the street, was held at the coroner's office this morning. The jury returned a verdict of accidental death.

(Sunday's Daily) The coroner's inquest into the death of a man who was killed by a horse on the street, was held at the coroner's office this morning. The jury returned a verdict of accidental death.

(Monday's Daily) The coroner's inquest into the death of a man who was killed by a horse on the street, was held at the coroner's office this morning. The jury returned a verdict of accidental death.

(Tuesday's Daily) The coroner's inquest into the death of a man who was killed by a horse on the street, was held at the coroner's office this morning. The jury returned a verdict of accidental death.

(Wednesday's Daily) The coroner's inquest into the death of a man who was killed by a horse on the street, was held at the coroner's office this morning. The jury returned a verdict of accidental death.

(Thursday's Daily) The coroner's inquest into the death of a man who was killed by a horse on the street, was held at the coroner's office this morning. The jury returned a verdict of accidental death.

(Friday's Daily) The coroner's inquest into the death of a man who was killed by a horse on the street, was held at the coroner's office this morning. The jury returned a verdict of accidental death.

THE DOMINION BANK

The annual report of the Dominion Bank published in another issue is gratifying to the general public, as it must be to the shareholders of that institution. It not only shows that notwithstanding the worldwide financial stringency prevailing in the latter part of the year 1907, the bank was a profitable one, but that the bank is in an exceptionally sound financial condition. The net profit for the year, out of which twelve per cent. dividend was paid, amounted to $633,235.31. The amount of $388,456.87 received as premium on new stock was transferred to the reserve fund, which now totals $4,833,456.87 upon a paid up capital of $3,848,397.50. In accordance with a resolution passed at the previous annual meeting $1,000,000 of new capital stock was issued and is being marketed at the present time.

(Friday's Daily) The coroner's inquest into the death of a man who was killed by a horse on the street, was held at the coroner's office this morning. The jury returned a verdict of accidental death.

(Saturday's Daily) The coroner's inquest into the death of a man who was killed by a horse on the street, was held at the coroner's office this morning. The jury returned a verdict of accidental death.

(Sunday's Daily) The coroner's inquest into the death of a man who was killed by a horse on the street, was held at the coroner's office this morning. The jury returned a verdict of accidental death.

(Monday's Daily) The coroner's inquest into the death of a man who was killed by a horse on the street, was held at the coroner's office this morning. The jury returned a verdict of accidental death.

(Tuesday's Daily) The coroner's inquest into the death of a man who was killed by a horse on the street, was held at the coroner's office this morning. The jury returned a verdict of accidental death.

(Wednesday's Daily) The coroner's inquest into the death of a man who was killed by a horse on the street, was held at the coroner's office this morning. The jury returned a verdict of accidental death.

(Thursday's Daily) The coroner's inquest into the death of a man who was killed by a horse on the street, was held at the coroner's office this morning. The jury returned a verdict of accidental death.

(Friday's Daily) The coroner's inquest into the death of a man who was killed by a horse on the street, was held at the coroner's office this morning. The jury returned a verdict of accidental death.

PARIS LIKES PRIZE FIGHTING

Paris, Feb. 7.—The Paris sports have gone prize-fighting mad. The recent Gaucher-Moreau encounter whetted their appetites. Next week "Sam" MacRee, the California negro, boxes "Harry" Shearing for a $1,000 purse. Shearing is an Englishman and both are heavyweights. An international match between lightweight, French, is scheduled for Friday. Women are allowed to attend these fights and they do so in great numbers.

(Friday's Daily) The coroner's inquest into the death of a man who was killed by a horse on the street, was held at the coroner's office this morning. The jury returned a verdict of accidental death.

(Saturday's Daily) The coroner's inquest into the death of a man who was killed by a horse on the street, was held at the coroner's office this morning. The jury returned a verdict of accidental death.

(Sunday's Daily) The coroner's inquest into the death of a man who was killed by a horse on the street, was held at the coroner's office this morning. The jury returned a verdict of accidental death.

(Monday's Daily) The coroner's inquest into the death of a man who was killed by a horse on the street, was held at the coroner's office this morning. The jury returned a verdict of accidental death.

(Tuesday's Daily) The coroner's inquest into the death of a man who was killed by a horse on the street, was held at the coroner's office this morning. The jury returned a verdict of accidental death.

(Wednesday's Daily) The coroner's inquest into the death of a man who was killed by a horse on the street, was held at the coroner's office this morning. The jury returned a verdict of accidental death.

(Thursday's Daily) The coroner's inquest into the death of a man who was killed by a horse on the street, was held at the coroner's office this morning. The jury returned a verdict of accidental death.

(Friday's Daily) The coroner's inquest into the death of a man who was killed by a horse on the street, was held at the coroner's office this morning. The jury returned a verdict of accidental death.

SEMI-WEEKLY

VOLUME V. INTEREST MARKS BOTH DEBATE. Lively Sessions in Legislature Yesterday—Amendment to Railway Resolution Adopted. (Wednesday's Daily.)

"This Government and this Legislature, Mr. Speaker, have gone a very considerable length during its short tenure of office in demonstrating the fact that they are in favor of the principle of government ownership of public utilities, and, sir, the government is prepared to go still further when the needs of the people of this province require it. . . . When we have these matters properly considered and have some definite plan worked out that will commend itself to the good sense of the Legislature as well as the people of this province; when the Government have such endorsement it will be ready for action and will not be long in delivering the goods. But, sir, it is not going to be cajoled or stumped into enacting abortive legislation with respect to railways or anything else by members opposite who are not charged with the responsibility of managing the affairs of the province."—Hon. Mr. Robertson's speech on A. J. Robertson's railway resolution.

Yesterday's debate in the Legislature was one of the most interesting of the session. Two resolutions came up for discussion in the afternoon and at the night session. Hon. Mr. Cushing brought down his eight-hour law act. The biggest electioneer could flow this session by the Opposition members were set afloat yesterday with a number of vaguely defined railway lines tied to its tail. These railways, which the member for Hudson Bay had introduced, would be built or buy, were shown in the practical minister of public works to be a very costly proposition. The cold figures and all they piled failed at first to impress the optimistic members for Roosevelt, who a burst of enthusiasm said that whether these enterprises cost 20 or 25 millions, the government here should take hold of them, build a road from Coates to Edmonton, another to the Hudson Bay and then go into the rest of the province to recoup the badly managed provincial treasury.

"You could sell the raw tonnage," he declared persuasively, "and put it for the roads." An easy way out of any embarrassment that might be thrust on his constituents was not touched upon by Mr. Cushing. "In ten years of time most of us who are in the House

The Manchester House (Established 1886) Our Big Stocktaking Sale. Offers you a splendid opportunity to secure fairly wonderful values in white cottons, cambrics, embroideries and ladies' whitewear of every description. SALE CONTINUES UNTIL FEBRUARY 22nd. W. Johnstone Walker & Company 267 Jasper Avenue East.

WANTED 5,000 HIDES Will pay from 3 to 5c. EDMONTON HIDE AND FUR CO. McDougall Av. back new Imperial bank

Kodaks, Films and Supplies. A fresh and complete stock can be found at Graydon's King Edward Pharmacy. GEO. H. GRAYDON Chemist and Druggist KING EDWARD PHARMACY

Lockjaw From Vaccination. Brockville, Feb. 7.—Lorifer, the ten year old son of Charles Hay, a local Baptist, is severely ill with lockjaw, and little hope is held out for his recovery. The boy was vaccinated during a smallpox epidemic and the wound became infected, lockjaw resulted.

Peary's Next Voyage. Washington, Feb. 7.—Captain Robert E. Peary, the Arctic explorer, called on President Roosevelt yesterday. Speaking about his trip north, he said: "I will leave New York on July 1 upon my next expedition. I shall work my way north, gathering men and supplies until I reach Cape Sheridan, where I will spend the winter, ready for a dash for the pole the following summer. It will be impossible to proceed further by the time we reach Cape Sheridan on account of darkness. At this point, which is on the coast of Greenland, the sun sets on October 12 and does not rise again until March 1. Nothing, of course, can be done on account of darkness."